FOREWORD

It is a very responsible thing to translate the Holy Scriptures from their original languages, Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek, into modern speech. Translating the Holy Scriptures means a rendering into another language the thoughts and sayings of the heavenly Author of this sacred library of sixty-six books, Jehovah God, which holy men of long ago put down in writing under inspiration for our benefit today.

That is a sobering thought. The translators who have a fear and love of the divine Author of the Holy Scriptures feel especially a responsibility toward Him to transmit his thoughts and declarations as accurately as possible. They also feel a responsibility toward the searching readers of the modern translation who depend upon the inspired Word of the Most High God for their everlasting salvation.

It was with such a sense of solemn responsibility that the committee of dedicated men have produced the New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures, over the course of many years. As soon as each part of the translation became available for publication it was turned over to the publishers for printing, all together in six volumes. The New World Translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures, containing the twenty-seven books from Matthew through The Revelation, first appeared in 1950. In due order the volumes of the New World Translation of the Hebrew-Aramaic Scriptures appeared, the first volume in 1953, the second in 1955, the third in 1957, the fourth in 1958, and the fifth in 1960.

From the start of the work it was the desire of the translators to have all these contemplated volumes brought together in the form of one book, inasmuch as the Holy Scriptures are in fact one book by the One Author. To this end, as soon as the final volume of the series had been issued in 1960, the committee set to work to prepare the entire translation for publication under one cover. The committee was then able to take under survey the translation as a whole, and to discern where improvements could be made.

An effort was put forth to bring about even greater consistency in the renderings of the related parts of the Holy Scriptures, such as in harmonizing with the original Hebrew readings the reading of quotations made in the Christian Greek Scriptures. Since the one-volume edition of the Holy Scriptures was to contain no footnotes, many footnote readings that had appeared in the earlier translation in six distinct volumes were lifted and put in the main text of the one-volume edition. This does not mean that the earlier rendering that was now replaced was rejected. Rather, the purpose was to attain to closer conformity to the literal reading in the original languages. All this process has resulted in revisions in the main text of the translation.

The now completed one-volume edition may therefore be properly called a revised edition of the New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures. In releasing it for publication we do so with a deep sense of gratitude to the Divine Author of the Holy Scriptures, who has thus privileged us and in whose spirit we have trusted to co-operate with us in this worthy work. We hope for His blessing upon the published translation in behalf of all who read and use it in learning his holy will.

4 This is a history of the heavens and the earth in the time of their being created, in the day that Jehovah God made earth and heaven.

5 Now there was as vet no bush of the field found in the earth and no vegetation of the field was as yet sprouting, because Jehovah God had not made it rain upon the earth and there was no man to cultivate the ground. 6 But a mist would go up from the earth and it watered the entire surface of the 7 And Jehovah God proceeded to him; male and female he created form the man out of dust from the ground and to blow into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man came to be a living soul. 8 Further, Jehovah God planted a garden in Eden, toward the east, and there he put the man whom he had formed. 9 Thus Jehovah God made to grow out of the ground every tree desirable to one's sight and good for food and also the tree of life in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and bad.

10 Now there was a river issuing out of Eden to water the garden. and from there it began to be parted and it became, as it were, four heads. 11 The first one's name is Pi'shon: it is the one encircling the entire land of Hav'i · lah. where there is gold. 12 And the gold of that land is good. There also are the bdellium gum and the onyx stone. 13 And the name of the second river is Gi'hon: it is the one encircling the entire land of Cush. 14 And the name of the third river is Hid'de kel; it is the one going to the east of As·svr'i·a. and all their army came to their And the fourth river is the Eu-

18 And Jehovah God went on to say: "It is not good for the man to continue by himself. I am going to make a helper for him, as a complement of him." 19 Now Jehovah God was forming from the ground every wild beast of the field and every flying creature of the heavens, and he began bringing them to the man to see what he would call each one; and whatever the man would call it, each living soul, that was its name. 20 So the man was calling the names of all the domestic animals and of the flying creatures of the heavens and of every wild beast of the field, but for man there was found no helper as a complement of him. 21 Hence Jehovah God had a deep sleep fall upon the man and, while he was sleeping, he took one of his ribs and then closed up the flesh over its place. 22 And Jehovah God proceeded to build the rib that he had taken from the man into a woman and to bring her to the man.

23 Then the man said:

"This is at last bone of my bones And flesh of my flesh,

This one will be called Woman, Because from man this one was taken."

24 That is why a man will leave his father and his mother and he must stick to his wife and they must become one flesh, 25 And both of them continued to be naked, the man and his wife, and yet they did not become ashamed.

now the serpent proved to be the most cautious of all the wild beasts of the field that Jehovah God had made. So it began to say to the woman: "Is it really so that God said you must not eat from every tree of the garden?" 2 At this the woman said to the serpent: "Of the fruit of the trees of the garden we may eat. 3 But as for [eating] of the fruit of the tree that | will eat all the days of your life. is in the middle of the garden, God 15 And I shall put enmity between serpent said to the woman: "You positively will not die. 5 For God knows that in the very day of your eating from it your eyes are bound to be opened and you are bound to be like God, knowing good and bad."

6 Consequently the woman saw that the tree was good for food and that it was something to be longed for to the eyes, yes, the tree was desirable to look upon. So she began taking of its fruit and eating it. Afterward she gave some also to her husband when with her and he began eating it. 7 Then the eyes of both of them became opened and they began to realize that they were naked. Hence they sewed fig leaves together and made loin coverings for themselves.

8 Later they heard the voice of Jehovah God walking in the garden about the breezy part of the day, and the man and his wife went into hiding from the face of Jehovah God in between the trees of the garden. 9 And Jehovah God kept calling to the man and saying to him: "Where are you?" 10 Finally he said: "Your voice I heard in the garden, but I was afraid because I was naked and so I hid myself." 11 At that he said: "Who told you that you were naked? From the tree from which I commanded you not to eat have you eaten?" 12 And the man went on to say: "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit | from the tree and so I ate." 13 With that Jehovah God said to the woman: "What is this you have done?" To this the woman replied: "The serpent—it deceived me and so I ate."

14 And Jehovah God proceeded to say to the serpent: "Because you have done this thing, you are the cursed one out of all the domestic animals and out of all the wild beasts of the field. Upon your belly you will go and dust is what you

20 After this Adam called his wife's name Eve, because she had to become the mother of everyone living. 21 And Jehovah God proceeded to make long garments of skin for Adam and for his wife and to clothe them. 22 And Jehovah God went on to say: "Here the man has become like one of us in knowing good and bad, and now in order that he may not put his hand out and actually take [fruit] and live to time indefinite.-" 23 With that Jehovah God put him out of the garden of Eden to cultiman out and posted at the east of the garden of Eden the cherubs and the flaming blade of a sword that was turning itself continually to guard the way to the tree of life.

Am I my brother's guardian?" 10 At this he said: "What have you done? Listen! Your brother's blood is crying out to me from the ground. 11 And now you are cursed in banishment from the ground, which has opened its mouth also from the tree of life and eat to receive your brother's blood at your hand. 12 When you cultivate the ground, it will not give you back its power. And so Jehovah set up a sign for sheep, but Cain became a cultivator | Cain in order that no one finding him should strike him. 16 With 5 This is the book of Adam's histhat Cain went away from the face of Jehovah and took up residence in the land of Fugitiveness to the east of Eden.

17 Afterward Cain had intercourse with his wife and she became pregnant and gave birth to E'noch. Then he engaged in building a city and called the city's name by the name of his son E'noch, 18 Later there was born to E'noch I'rad. And I'rad became father to Me·hu'ia·el, and Me·hu'ia el became father to Me thu'shael, and Me-thu'sha-el became father to La'mech.

19 And La'mech proceeded to take two wives for himself. The name of the first was A'dah and the name of the second was Zil'lah. 20 In time A'dah gave birth to Ja'bal. He proved to be the founder of those who dwell in tents and have livestock. 21 And the name of his brother was Ju'bal. He proved to be the founder of all those who handle the harp and the pipe. 22 As for Zil'lah, she too gave birth to Tu'bal-cain, the forger of every sort of tool of copper and iron. And the sister of Tu'bal-cain was Na'a·mah. 23 Consequently La'mech composed these words for his wives A'dah and Zil'lah:

"Hear my voice, you wives of La'mech:

Then he became father to a son in his likeness, in his image, and called his name Seth. 4 And the days of Adam after his fathering Seth came to be eight hundred years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters. 5 So all the days of Adam that he lived amounted to nine hundred and thirty years and he died.

6 And Seth lived on for a hundred and five years. Then he became father to E'nosh, 7 And after his fathering E'nosh Seth continued to live eight hundred and seven years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters. 20 So all the days of Ja'red amounted to nine hundred and sixty-two years and he died.

21 And E'noch lived on for sixtyfive years. Then he became father to Me·thu'se·lah. 22 And after his fathering Me·thu'se·lah E'noch went on walking with the [true] God three hundred years. Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters. 23 So all the days of E'noch amounted to three hundred and sixty-five years. 24 And E'noch kept walking with the [true] God. Then he was no more, for God took him.

Meanwhile he became father to sons and daughters. 27 So all the days of Me thu'se lah amounted to nine hundred and sixty-nine years and he died.

28 And La'mech lived on for a hundred and eighty-two years. Then he became father to a son. 29 And he proceeded to call his name Noah, saying: "This one will bring us comfort from our work and from the pain of our hands the [true] God. 10 In time Noah resulting from the ground which became father to three sons, Shem, Jehovah has cursed." 30 And after his fathering Noah La'mech continued to live five hundred and sight of the [true] God and the ninety-five years. 6 Now it came about that when men started to grow in numbers on the surface of the ground and daughters were born to them, 2 then the sons of the [true] God began to notice the daughters of men, that they were good-looking; and they went taking wives for themselves, namely, all whom they chose. 3 After that Jehovah said: "My spirit shall not act toward man indefinitely in that he is also flesh. Accordingly his days shall amount to a hundred and twenty years."

Enoch, Noah, mankind's badness

4 The Neph'i·lim proved to be in the earth in those days, and also after that, when the sons of the [true] God continued to have relations with the daughters of men and they bore sons to them, they were the mighty ones who were of old, the men of fame.

5 Consequently Jehovah saw that the badness of man was abundant in the earth and every inclination of the thoughts of his heart was only bad all the time. 6 And Jehovah felt regrets that he had made men in the earth, and he felt hurt at his heart. 7 So Jehovah said: "I am going to wipe men whom I have created off the surface of the ground, from man to domestic animal, to moving animal and to flying creature of the heavens, because I do regret that I have made them." 8 But Noah found favor in the eyes of Jehovah.

9 This is the history of Noah.

Noah was a righteous man. He proved himself faultless among his contemporaries. Noah walked with Ham and Ja'pheth. 11 And the earth came to be ruined in the earth became filled with violence. 12 So God saw the earth and, look! it was ruined, because all earth.

You will make compartments in the ark, and you must cover it inside and outside with tar. 15 And this is how you will make it: three hundred cubits the length of the ark, fifty cubits its width, and thirty cubits its height. 16 You will make a tso'har [roof; or, window] for the ark, and you | years old when the deluge of waters will complete it to the extent of a cubit upward, and the entrance of the ark you will put in its side: you will make it with a lower story. a second story and a third story.

17 "And as for me, here I am bringing the deluge of waters upon the earth to bring to ruin all flesh in which the force of life is active from under the heavens. Everything that is in the earth will expire. 18 And I do establish my covenant with you: and you must go into the ark, you and your sons and your wife and your sons' wives with you. 19 And of every living creature of every sort of flesh, two of each, you will bring into the ark to preserve them alive with you. Male and female they will be. 20 Of the flying creatures according to their kinds and of the domestic animals according to their kinds, of all moving animals of the ground according to their kinds, two of each will go in there to you Noah's sons, and the wife of Noah to preserve them alive. 21 And as for you, take for yourself every sort of food that is eaten; and you must gather it to yourself, and it must serve as food for you and for them."

22 And Noah proceeded to do according to all that God had commanded him. He did just so.

7 After that Jehovah said to Noah: "Go, you and all your household, into the ark, because you are the one I have seen to be righteous before me among this generation. 2 Of every clean beast you must take to yourself by sevens, the sire and its mate: and of every beast that is not clean just two, the sire and its mate; 3 also of the flying creatures of the heavens by sevens, male and female, to preserve off- forty days upon the earth, and the spring alive on the surface of the waters kept increasing and began upon the earth forty days and forty nights: and I will wipe every existing thing that I have made off the surface of the ground." 5 And Noah proceeded to do according to all that Jehovah had commanded

6 And Noah was six hundred occurred on the earth. 7 So Noah went in, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him, into the ark ahead of the waters of the deluge. 8 Of every clean beast and of every beast that is not clean and of the flying creatures and everything that moves on the ground. 9 they went in by twos to Noah inside the ark, male and female. just as God had commanded Noah. 10 And seven days later it turned out that the waters of the deluge came upon the earth.

11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month. on the seventeenth day of the month, on this day all the springs of the vast watery deep were broken open and the floodgates of the heavens were opened. 12 And the downpour upon the earth went on for forty days and forty nights. 13 On this very day Noah went in. and Shem and Ham and Ja'pheth, and the three wives of his sons with him, into the ark: 14 they and every wild beast according to its kind, and every domestic animal according to its kind, and every moving animal that moves on the earth according to its kind, and every flying creature of the heavens according to its kind, every bird, every winged creature. 15 And they kept going to Noah inside the ark, two by two, of every sort of flesh in which the force of life was active. 16 And those going in, male and female of every sort of flesh, went in, just as God had commanded him. After that Jehovah shut the door behind him.

17 And the deluge went on for carrying the ark and it was floating ! waters became overwhelming and kept increasing greatly upon the earth, but the ark kept going on the surface of the waters. 19 And the waters overwhelmed the earth so greatly that all the tall mountains that were under the whole heavens came to be covered. 20 Up to fifteen cubits the waters overwhelmed them and the mountains became covered.

21 So all flesh that was moving upon the earth expired, among the flying creatures and among the domestic animals and among the wild beasts and among all the swarms that were swarming upon the earth, and all mankind. 22 Everything in which the breath of the force of life was active in its nostrils, namely, all that were on the dry ground, died. 23 Thus he wiped out every existing thing that was on the surface of the ground, from man to beast, to moving animal and to flying creature of the heavens, and they were wiped off the earth; and only Noah and those who were with him in the ark kept on surviving. 24 And

the earth a hundred and fifty days.

8 After that God remembered Noah and every wild beast and every domestic animal that was with him in the ark, and God caused a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters began to subside. 2 And the springs of the watery deep and the floodgates of the heavens became stopped up. and so the downpour from the heavens was restrained. 3 And the waters began receding from off the earth, progressively receding; and at the end of a hundred and fifty days the waters were lacking. 4 And in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month. the ark came to rest on the mountains of Ar'a rat. 5 And the waters kept on progressively lessening until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first of the month, the tops of the mountains appeared.

6 So it occurred that at the end high above the earth. 18 And the of forty days Noah proceeded to open the window of the ark that he had made. 7 After that he sent out a raven, and it continued flying outdoors, going and returning, until the waters dried off the earth.

> 8 Later he sent out from him a dove to see whether the waters had abated from the surface of the ground. 9 And the dove did not find any resting place for the sole of its foot, and so it returned to him into the ark because the waters were yet upon the surface of the whole earth. At that he put his hand out and took it and brought it to himself inside the ark. 10 And he went on waiting still another seven days, and once again he sent out the dove from the ark. 11 Later on the dove came to him about the time of evening and, look! there was an olive leaf freshly plucked in its bill, and so Noah got to know that the waters had abated from the earth. 12 And he went on waiting still another seven days. Then he sent out the dove. but it did not come back again to him any more.

13 Now in the six hundred and first year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, it came about that the waters had drained from off the earth; and Noah proceeded to remove the covering of the ark and to look, and here the surface of the ground had drained dry. 14 And in the second month. on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth had dried off.

15 God now spoke to Noah, saving: 16 "Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives with you. 17 Every living creature that is with you of every sort of flesh, among the flying creatures and among the beasts and among all the moving animals that move upon the earth. bring out with you, as they must swarm in the earth and be fruitful and become many upon the earth."

18 At that Noah went out, and also his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him. 19 Every living creature, every moving animal and every flying creature that is with you among fowls. everything that moves on the earth. according to their families they went out of the ark. 20 And Noah from all those going out of the ark began to build an altar to Jehovah to every living creature of the and to take some of all the clean beasts and of all the clean flying creatures and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar. 21 And Jehovah began to smell a restful odor. and so Jehovah said in his heart: "Never again shall I call down evil upon the ground on man's account. because the inclination of the heart of man is bad from his youth up; and never again shall I deal every living thing a blow just as I have nite. 13 My rainbow I do give in done, 22 For all the days the earth continues, seed sowing and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night, will never cease."

9 And God went on to bless Noah and his sons and to say to them: "Be fruitful and become many and fill the earth. 2 And a fear of you and a terror of you will continue upon every living creature of the earth and upon every flying creature of the heavens, upon everything that goes moving on the ground, and upon all the fishes of the sea. Into your hand they are now given. 3 Every moving animal that is alive may serve as food for you. As in the case of green vegetation. I do give it all to you. 4 Only flesh with its soul-its blood -you must not eat. 5 And, besides that, your blood of your souls shall I ask back. From the hand of every living creature shall I ask it back; and from the hand of man, father of Ca'naan. 19 These three from the hand of each one who is his brother, shall I ask back the soul of man. 6 Anyone shedding man's blood, by man will his own blood be shed, for in God's image farmer and proceeded to plant a he made man. 7 And as for you men, be fruitful and become many, make the earth swarm with you icated, and so he uncovered himself and become many in it."

Noah and to his sons with him: father's nakedness and went telling men and with your offspring after a mantle and put it upon both among beasts and among all living creatures of the earth with you. earth. 11 Yes. I do establish my covenant with you: No more will all flesh be cut off by waters of a deluge, and no more will there occur a deluge to bring the earth to ruin."

12 And God added: "This is the sign of the covenant that I am giving between me and you and every living soul that is with you, for the generations to time indefithe cloud, and it must serve as a sign of the covenant between me and the earth, 14 And it shall occur that when I bring a cloud over the earth, then the rainbow will certainly appear in the cloud. 15 And I shall certainly remember my covenant which is between me and you and every living soul among all flesh; and no more will the waters become a deluge to bring all flesh to ruin. 16 And the rainbow must occur in the cloud, and I shall certainly see it to remember the covenant to time indefinite between God and every living soul among all flesh that is upon the earth."

17 And God repeated to Noah: "This is the sign of the covenant that I do establish between me and all flesh that is upon the earth."

18 And Noah's sons who came out of the ark were Shem and Ham and Ja'pheth. Later Ham was the were Noah's sons, and from these was all the earth's population spread abroad.

20 Now Noah started off as a vineyard. 21 And he began drinking of the wine and became intoxin the midst of his tent. 22 Later 8 And God went on to say to Ham the father of Ca'naan saw his 9 "And as for me, here I am es- it to his two brothers outside. tablishing my covenant with you 23 At that Shem and Ja'pheth took YOU. 10 and with every living soul their shoulders and walked in backwards. Thus they covered their father's nakedness, while their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father's nakedness.

24 Finally Noah awoke from his wine and got to know what his youngest son had done to him. 25 At this he said:

"Cursed be Ca'naan.

Let him become the lowest slave to his brothers." 26 And he added:

"Blessed be Jehovah, Shem's God. And let Ca'naan become a slave to him.

27 Let God grant ample space to Ja'pheth.

> And let him reside in the tents of Shem.

> Let Ca'naan become a slave to him also."

28 And Noah continued to live three hundred and fifty years after the deluge. 29 So all the days of Noah amounted to nine hundred and fifty years and he died.

And this is the history of Noah's sons, Shem, Ham and Ja'pheth.

Now sons began to be born to them after the deluge. 2 The sons of Ja'pheth were Go'mer and Ma'gog and Ma'da i and Ja'van and Tu'bal and Me'shech and Ti'ras.

3 And the sons of Go'mer were Ash'ke naz and Ri'phath and Togar'mah. 4 And the sons of Ja'van were E·li'shah and Tar'shish, Kit'tim and Do'da · nim. 5 From these the population of the isles of the nations was spread about in their lands, each according to its tongue, according to their families, by their nations. 6 And the sons of Ham were Cush and Miz'ra im and Put and Ca'naan.

7 And the sons of Cush were Se'ba and Hav'i lah and Sab'tah and Ra'a mah and Sab'te ca.

And the sons of Ra'a mah were She'ba and De'dan. 8 And Cush became father to Nim'rod. He made the start in becoming a mighty one in the earth. 9 He displayed himself a mighty hunter in opposition to Jehovah.

That is why there is a saving: "Just like Nim'rod a mighty hunter in opposition to Jehovah." 10 And the beginning of his kingdom came to be Ba'bel and E'rech and Ac'cad and Cal'neh, in the land of Shi'nar. 11 Out of that land he went forth into As-svr'i-a and set himself to building Nin'e-veh and Re-ho'both-Ir and Ca'lah 12 and Re'sen between Nin'e-veh and Ca'lah: this is the great city.

13 And Miz'ra im became father to Lu'dim and An'a-mim and Leha'bim and Naph tu'him 14 and Path ru'sim and Cas lu'him (from among whom the Phi-lis'tines went forth) and Caph'to rim.

15 And Ca'naan became father to Si'don his first-born and Heth 16 and the Jeb'u site and the Am'or ite and the Girga shite 17 and the Hi'vite and the Ark'ite and the Si'nite 18 and the Ar'vad ite and the Zem'a rite and the Ha'math ite; and afterward the families of the Ca'naan ite were scattered. 19 So the boundary of the Ca'naan ite came to be from Si'don as far as Ge'rar, near Ga'za, as far as Sod'om and Gomor'rah and Ad'mah and Ze-boi'im, near La'sha. 20 These were the sons of Ham according to their families, according to their tongues, in their lands, by their nations.

21 And to Shem, the forefather of all the sons of E'ber, the brother of Ja'pheth the oldest, there was also progeny born. 22 The sons of Shem were E'lam and As'shur and Ar pach'shad and Lud and A'ram.

23 And the sons of A'ram were Uz and Hul and Ge'ther and Mash. 24 And Ar pach'shad became father to She'lah, and She'lah became father to E'ber.

25 And to E'ber there were two sons born. The name of the one was Pe'leg, because in his days the earth was divided; and the name of his brother was Jok'tan.

26 And Jok'tan became father to Al·mo'dad and She'leph and Ha-zar-ma'veth and Je'rah 27 and Ha-do'ram and U'zal and Dik'lah 28 and O'bal and earth, and Jehovah had scattered O'phir and Hav'i-lah and Jo'- face of the earth. bab; all these were the sons of Jok'tan.

30 And their place of dwelling came to extend from Me'sha as far as Se'phar, the mountainous region of the East.

31 These were the sons of Shem according to their families, according to their tongues, in their lands. according to their nations.

32 These were the families of the sons of Noah according to their family descents, by their nations. and from these the nations were spread about in the earth after the deluge.

Now all the earth continued to be of one language and of one set of words. 2 And it came about that in their journeying eastward they eventually discovered a valley plain in the land of Shi'nar, and they took up dwelling there. 3 And they began to say, each one to the other: "Come on! Let us make bricks and bake them with a burning process." So brick served as stone for them, but bitumen served as mortar for them. 4 They now said: "Come on! Let us build ourselves a city and also a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a celebrated name for ourselves, for fear we may be scattered over all the surface of the earth."

5 And Jehovah proceeded to go down to see the city and the tower that the sons of men had built. 6 After that Jehovah said: "Look! They are one people and there is one language for them all, and this is what they start to do. Why, now there is nothing that they may have in mind to do that will be sons and daughters. unattainable for them. 7 Come now! Let us go down and there ty years. Then he became father confuse their language that they to Na'hor, 23 And after his famay not listen to one another's thering Na'hor Se'rug continued to language." 8 Accordingly Jehovah live two hundred years. Meanwhile scattered them from there over all he became father to sons and the surface of the earth, and they daughters. gradually left off building the city. 9 That is why its name was called twenty-nine years. Then he became Ba'bel, because there Jehovah had father to Te'rah. 25 And after his

27 And this is the history of Te'rah.

Te'rah became father to A'bram. Na'hor and Ha'ran: and Ha'ran behis birth, in Ur of the Chal-de'ans. 29 And A'bram and Na'hor proceeded to take wives for themselves. The name of A'bram's wife was Sar'ai, while the name of Na'hor's wife was Mil'cah, the daughter of Ha'ran, the father of Mil'cah and father of Is'cah. 30 But Sar'ai continued to be barren; she had no child.

31 After that Te'rah took A'bram his son and Lot, the son of Ha'ran, his grandson, and Sar'ai his daughter-in-law, the wife of A'bram his son, and they went with him out of Ur of the Chal de'ans to go to the land of Ca'naan. In time they came to Ha'ran and took up dwelling there. 32 And the days of Te'rah came to be two hundred and five years. Then Te'rah died in Ha'ran.

12 And Jehovah proceeded to say to A'bram: "Go your way out of your country and from your relatives and from the house of your father to the country that I shall show you; 2 and I shall make a great nation out of you and I shall bless you and I will make your name great; and prove your-self a blessing. 3 And I will bless those who bless you, and him that calls down evil upon you I shall curse, and all the families of the ground will certainly bless themselves by means of you."

4 At that A'bram went just as Jehovah had spoken to him, and Lot the son of his brother and all Jehovah touched Phar'aoh and his years. Meanwhile he became father lated and the souls whom they had acquired in Ha'ran, and they got on their way out to go to the land of Ca'naan. Finally they came to the land of Ca'naan, 6 And A'bram went on through the land as far as the site of She'chem, near the big trees of Mo'reh: and at that time the Ca'naan ite was in the land. 7 Jehovah now appeared came father to Lot. 28 Later Ha'- to A'bram and said: "To your seed ran died while in company with I am going to give this land." After Te'rah his father in the land of that he built an altar there to Jehovah, who had appeared to him. 8 Later he moved from there to the mountainous region to the east of Beth'el and pitched his tent with Beth'el on the west and A'i on the east. Then he built an altar there to Jehovah and began to call on the name of Jehovah. 9 Afterward A'bram broke camp, going then from encampment to encampment toward the Neg'eb.

> 10 Now a famine arose in the land and A'bram made his way down toward Egypt to reside there as an alien, because the famine was severe in the land. 11 And it came about that as soon as he got near to entering Egypt, then he said to Sar'ai his wife: "Please. now! I well know you are a woman beautiful in appearance. 12 So it is bound to happen that the Egyptians will see you and will say, 'This is his wife.' And they will certainly kill me, but you they will preserve alive. 13 Please say you are my sister, in order that it may go well with me on your account. and my soul will be certain to live due to you."

14 So it happened that, as soon as A'bram entered Egypt, the Egyptians got to see the woman, that she was very beautiful. 15 And the princes of Phar'aoh also got to see her and they began praising her to Phar'aoh, so that the woman was taken to the house of Phar'aoh. 16 And he treated A'bram well on Lot went with him. And A'bram her account, and he came to have was seventy-five years old when he sheep and cattle and asses and went out from Ha'ran. 5 So menservants and maidservants and A'bram took Sar'ai his wife and she-asses and camels. 17 Then

18 With that Phar'aoh called A'bram and said: "What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife? 19 Why did you say, 'She is my sister.' so that I was about to take her as my wife? And now here is your wife. Take her and go!" 20 And Phar'aoh issued commands to men concerning him, and they went escorting him and his wife and all that he had.

13 Following that A'bram went up out of Egypt, he and his wife and all that he had, and Lot with him, to the Neg'eb. 2 And A'bram was heavily stocked with herds and silver and gold. 3 And he made his way from encampment to encampment out of the Neg'eb and to Beth'el, to the place where his tent had been at first between Beth'el and A'i, 4 to the place of the altar that he had made there originally: and A'bram proceeded to call there on the name of Jehovah.

5 Now Lot, who was going along with A'bram, also owned sheep and cattle and tents. 6 So the land did not allow for them to dwell all together, because their goods had become many and they were not able to dwell all together. 7 And a quarrel arose between the herders of A'bram's livestock and the herders of Lot's livestock; and at that time the Ca'naan ite and the Per'iz zite were dwelling in the land. 8 Hence A'bram said to Lot: "Please, do not let any quarreling continue between me and you and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we men are brothers. 9 Is not the whole land available to you? Please, separate from me. If you go to the left, then I will go to the right; but if you go to the right, then I will go to in the fourteenth year Ched or lathe left." 10 So Lot raised his eyes o'mer came, and also the kings who and saw the whole District of the were with him, and they inflicted Jordan, that all of it was a wellwatered region before Jehovah te roth-kar na'im, and the Zu'zim brought Sod'om and Go·mor'rah to in Ham, and the E'mim in Sha'ruin, like the garden of Jehovah, veh-kir-i-a-tha'im, 6 and the Ho'like the land of Egypt as far as rites in their mountain of Se'ir, Zo'ar. 11 Then Lot chose for him- down to El-pa'ran, which is at the household with great plagues be- | self the whole District of the Jorcause of Sar'ai, A'bram's wife, dan, and Lot moved his camp to the east. So they separated the one from the other. 12 A'bram dwelt in the land of Ca'naan, but Lot dwelt among the cities of the District, Finally he pitched tent near Sod'om. 13 And the men of Sod'om were bad and were gross sinners against Jehovah.

14 And Jehovah said to A'bram after Lot had separated from him: "Raise your eyes, please, and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward. 15 because all the land at which you are looking, to you and to your seed I am going to give it until time indefinite. 16 And I will constitute your seed like the dust particles of the earth, so that, if a man could be able to count the dust particles of the earth, then your seed could be numbered. 17 Get up, go about in the land through its length and through its breadth, because to you I am going to give it." 18 So A'bram continued to live in tents. Later on he came and dwelt among the big trees of Mam're, which are in He'bron; and there he proceeded to build an altar to Jehovah.

14 Now it came about in the days of Am'ra phel king of Shi'nar. Ar'i och king of El·la'sar, Ched orla o'mer king of E'lam, and Ti'dal king of Goi'im, 2 that these made war with Be'ra king of Sod'om, and with Bir'sha king of Go·mor'rah, Shi'nab king of Ad'mah, and Sheme'ber king of Ze-boi'im, and the king of Be'la (that is to say, Zo'ar). 3 All these marched as allies to the Low Plain of Sid'dim, that is, the Salt Sea.

4 Twelve years they had served Ched or la o'mer, but the thirteenth year they rebelled. 5 And defeats on the Reph'a·im in Ash'-

8 At this point the king of Sod'om went on the march, and also the king of Go mor'rah and the king of Ad'mah and the king of Ze-boi'im and the king of Be'la (that is to say, Zo'ar), and they drew up in battle order against them in the Low Plain of Sid'dim, 9 against Ched·or·la·o'mer king of E'lam and Ti'dal king of Goi'im and Am'ra phel king of Shi'nar and Ar'i och king of El·la'sar; four kings against the five. 10 Now the Low Plain of Sid'dim was pits upon pits of bitumen; and the kings of Sod'om and Go mor'rah took to flight and went falling into them, and those who remained fled to the mountainous region. 11 Then the victors took all the goods of Sod'om and Go mor'rah and all their food and went on their way. 12 They also took Lot the son of A'bram's brother and his goods and continued on their way. He was then dwelling in Sod'om.

13 After that a man who had escaped came and told A'bram the Hebrew. He was then tabernacling among the big trees of Mam're the Am'or ite, the brother of Esh'col and brother of A'ner; and they were confederates of A'bram. 14 Thus A'bram got to hear that his brother had been taken captive. With that he mustered his trained men, three hundred and eighteen slaves born in his household, and went in pursuit up to Dan. 15 And by night he resorted to dividing his forces, he and his slaves, against them, and thus he defeated them and kept in pursuit of them up to Ho'bah, which is north of Damascus. 16 And he proceeded to recover all the goods, and he recovered also Lot his brother and his goods and also the women and the people.

17 Then the king of Sod'om went out to meet him after he returned and said: "Look up, please, to the from defeating Ched or la o'mer heavens and count the stars, if you who has delivered your oppressors into your hand!" At that A'bram gave him a tenth of everything.

21 After that the king of Sod'om said to A'bram: "Give me the souls, but take the goods for yourself." 22 At this A'bram said to the king of Sod'om: "I do lift up my hand [in an oath] to Jehovah the Most High God, Producer of heaven and earth, 23 that, from a thread to a sandal lace, no, I shall take nothing from anything that is yours, in order that you may not say, 'It was I who made A'bram rich.' 24 Nothing for me! Only what the young men have already eaten, and the share of the men who went with me, A'ner, Esh'col and Mam're-let them take their share."

15 After these things the word of Jehovah came to A'bram in a vision, saying: "Do not fear, A'bram. I am a shield for you. Your reward will be very great." 2 At this A'bram said: "Lord Jehovah, what will you give me, seeing that I am going childless and the one who will possess my house is a man of Damascus, E·li·e'zer?" 3 And A'bram added: "Look! You have given me no seed, and, look! a son of my household is succeeding me as heir." 4 But, look! the word of Jehovah to him was in these words: "This man will not succeed you as heir, but one who will come out of your own inward parts will succeed you as heir."

12 After a while the sun was about to set, and a deep sleep fell upon A'bram, and, look! a frightfully great darkness was falling upon him. 13 And he began to say to A'bram: "You may know for sure that your seed will become an alien resident in a land not theirs, and they will have to serve them, and these will certainly afflict them for four hundred years. 14 But the nation that they will serve I am judging, and after that they will go out with many goods. 15 As for you, you will go to your forefathers in peace; you will be buried at a good old age. 16 But in the fourth generation they will return here, because the error of the Am'or ites has not yet come to completion."

17 The sun was now setting and a dense darkness came and, look! a smoking furnace and a fiery torch that passed in between these pieces. 18 On that day Jehovah concluded with A'bram a covenant, saying: "To your seed I will give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Eu phra'tes: and the Kad'mon-ites 20 and the ites and the Ca'naan ites and the your seed will become." 6 And he Gir'ga shites and the Jeb'u sites."

> Now Sar'ai, A'bram's wife, had borne him no children; but she had an Egyptian maidservant and her name was Ha'gar. 2 Hence Sar'ai said to A'bram: "Please now! Jehovah has shut me off from bearing children. Please, have relations with my maidservant. Perhaps I may get children from her." So A'bram listened to the voice of Sar'ai. 3 Then Sar'ai. A'bram's wife, took Ha'gar, her Egyptian maidservant, at the end of ten years of A'bram's dwelling in the land of Ca'naan, and gave her to A'bram her husband as his wife. 4 Accordingly he had relations with Ha'gar, and she became pregnant. When she became aware that she was pregnant, then her mistress began to be despised in her eyes.

> 5 At this Sar'ai said to A'bram: "The violence done me be upon you. I myself gave my maidservant over to your bosom, and she became aware that she was pregnant, and I began to be despised in her eyes. May Jehovah judge between me and you." 6 So A'bram said to Sar'ai: "Look! Your maidservant is at your disposal. Do to her what is good in your eyes." Then Sar'ai began to humiliate her so that she ran away from her.

7 Later Jehovah's angel found her at a fountain of waters in the wilderness, at the fountain on the way to Shur. 8 And he began to say: "Ha'gar, maidservant of Sar'ai, just where have you come from and where are you going?" To this she said: "Why, from Sar'ai my mistress I am running away." 9 And Jehovah's angel went on to say to her: "Return to your mistress and humble yourself under her hand." 10 Then Jehovah's angel said to her: "I shall greatly multiply your seed, so that it will not be numbered for multitude." 11 Further Jehovah's angel added to her: "Here you are pregnant, 19 the Ken'ites and the Ken'iz zites and you shall give birth to a son and must call his name Ish'ma el: Hit'tites and the Per'iz zites and for Jehovah has heard your affliction. 12 As for him, he will be- | tions. 10 This is my covenant that brothers he will tabernacle."

When A'bram got to be ninetynine years old, then Jehovah appeared to A'bram and said to him: "I am God Almighty. Walk before me and prove yourself faultless. 2 And I will give my covenant between me and you, that I may multiply you very, very much."

3 At this A'bram fell upon his face, and God continued to speak with him, saying: 4 "As for me, look! my covenant is with you, and you will certainly become a father of a crowd of nations. 5 And your name will not be called A'bram any more, and your name must become Abraham, because a father of a crowd of nations I will make you. 6 And I will make you very, very fruitful and will make you become nations, and kings will come out of you.

7 "And I will carry out my covenant between me and you and your seed after you according to their generations for a covenant to time indefinite, to prove myself God to you and to your seed after you. 8 And I will give to you and to your seed after you the land of your alien residences, even the entire land of Ca'naan, for a possesprove myself God to them."

9 And God said further to Abraham: "As for you, you are to keep after you according to their genera- enant I shall establish with Isaac, Here it is and anyone purchased with money from any foreigner who is not from your seed. 13 Every man born in your house and every man purchased with money of yours must without fail get circumcised; and my covenant in the flesh of you men must serve as a covenant to time indefinite. 14 And an uncircumcised male who will not get the flesh of his foreskin circumcised. even that soul must be cut off from his people. He has broken my covenant."

> 15 And God went on to say to Abraham: "As for Sar'ai your wife, you must not call her name Sar'ai. because Sarah is her name. 16 And I will bless her and also give you a son from her; and I will bless her and she shall become nations; kings of peoples will come from her." 17 At this Abraham fell upon his face and began to laugh and to say in his heart: "Will a man a hundred years old have a child born, and will Sarah, yes, will a woman ninety years old give birth?"

18 After that Abraham said to the [true] God: "O that Ish'ma el might live before you!" 19 To this God said: "Sarah your wife is indeed bearing you a son, and you must call his name Isaac. And I will establish my covenant with him for a covenant to time indefinite to his seed after him. 20 But as regards Ish'ma·el I have heard you. Look! I will bless him and will sion to time indefinite; and I will make him fruitful and will multiply him very, very much. He will certainly produce twelve chieftains, and I will make him become a my covenant, you and your seed great nation. 21 However, my covwhom Sarah will bear to you at | and to give it to the attendant, and this appointed time next year."

22 With that God finished speak-Abraham, 23 Abraham then proceeded to take Ish'ma el his son and all the men born in his house and everyone purchased with monev of his, every male among the men of the household of Abraham. and he went to circumcising the flesh of their foreskins in this very day, just as God had spoken with to return to you next year at this him. 24 And Abraham was ninetynine years old when he had the will have a son." Now Sarah was flesh of his foreskin circumcised. 25 And Ish'ma el his son was thirteen years old when he had the flesh of his foreskin circumcised. 26 In this very day Abraham got circumcised, and also Ish'ma el his son. 27 And all the men of his household, anyone born in the house and anyone purchased with money from a foreigner, got circumcised with him.

Afterward Jehovah appeared to him among the big trees of Mam're, while he was sitting at the entrance of the tent about the heat of the day. 2 When he raised his eyes, then he looked and there three men were standing some distance from him. When he caught sight of them he began running to meet them from the entrance of the tent and proceeded to bow down to the earth, 3 Then he there and looked down toward Sod'said: "Jehovah, if, now, I have om, and Abraham was walking found favor in your eyes, please do with them to escort them. 17 And not pass by your servant. 4 Let a little water be taken, please, and ered from Abraham what I am you must have your feet washed. doing? 18 Why. At this they said: that he may command his sons and "All right. You may do just as you his household after him so that have spoken."

> 9 They now said to him: "Where is Sarah your wife?" To this he said: "Here in the tent!" 10 So he continued: "I am surely going time, and, look! Sarah your wife listening at the tent entrance, and it was behind the man. 11 And Abraham and Sarah were old. being advanced in years. Sarah had stopped having menstruation. 12 Hence Sarah began to laugh inside herself, saving: "After I am worn out, shall I really have pleasure, my lord being old besides?" 13 Then Jehovah said to Abraham: "Why was it that Sarah laughed, saying, 'Shall I really and truly give birth although I have become old?' 14 Is anything too extraordinary for Jehovah? At the appointed time I shall return to you. next year at this time, and Sarah will have a son." 15 But Sarah began to deny it, saying: "I did not laugh!" For she was afraid. At this he said: "No! but you did laugh."

16 Later the men got up from Jehovah said: "Am I keeping covly going to become a nation great and mighty, and all the nations of the earth must bless themselves by they shall keep Jehovah's way to do righteousness and judgment: in order that Jehovah may certainly

22 At this point the men turned from there and got on their way to Sod'om; but as for Jehovah, he was still standing before Abraham. 23 Then Abraham approached and began to say: "Will you really sweep away the righteous with the wicked? 24 Suppose there are fifty righteous men in the midst of the city, Will you, then, sweep them away and not pardon the place for the sake of the fifty righteous who are inside it? 25 It is unthinkable of you that you are acting in this manner to put to death the righteous man with the wicked one so that it has to occur with the righteous man as it does with the wicked! It is unthinkable of you. Is the Judge of all the earth not going to do what is right?" 26 Then Jehovah said: "If I shall find in Sod'om fifty righteous men in the midst of the city I will pardon the whole place on their account." 27 But Abraham went on to answer and say: "Please, here I have taken upon myself to speak to Jehovah, whereas I am dust and ashes. 28 Suppose the fifty righteous should be lacking five. Will you for the five bring the whole city to ruin?" To this he said: "I shall not bring it to ruin if I find there forty-five."

29 But yet again he spoke further to him and said: "Suppose forty are found there." In turn he said: "I shall not do it on account of the forty." 30 But he continued: "May Jehovah, please, not grow hot with anger, but let me go on speaking: Suppose thirty are found there." In turn he said: "I shall not do it if I find thirty there." 31 But he continued on: "Please, here I have taken upon myself to speak to Jehovah: Suppose twenty are found there." In turn he said: "I shall not bring it to ruin on account of the twenty."

Suppose ten are found there." In turn he said: "I shall not bring it to ruin on account of the ten." 33 Then Jehovah went his way when he had finished speaking to Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

Abraham intercedes, Angels visit Lot

19 Now the two angels arrived at Sod'om by evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sod'om. When Lot caught sight of them. then he got up to meet them and bowed down with his face to the earth. 2 And he proceeded to say: "Please, now, my lords, turn aside, please, into the house of your servant and stay overnight and have Your feet washed. Then you must get up early and travel on your way." To this they said: "No. but in the public square is where we shall stay overnight." 3 But he was very insistent with them, so that they turned aside to him and came into his house. Then he made a feast for them, and he baked unfermented cakes, and they went to eating.

4 Before they could lie down, the men of the city, the men of Sod'om, surrounded the house, from boy to old man, all the people in one mob. 5 And they kept calling out to Lot and saying to him: "Where are the men who came in to you tonight? Bring them out to us that we may have intercourse with them."

6 Finally Lot went out to them to the entrance, but he shut the door behind him. 7 Then he said: "Please, my brothers, do not act badly. 8 Please, here I have two daughters who have never had intercourse with a man. Please, let me bring them out to you. Then do to them as is good in your eyes. Only to these men do not do a thing, because that is why they have come under the shadow of my roof." 9 At this they said: "Stand back there!" And they added: "This lone man came here to reside as an alien and yet he would actually play the judge. Now we are going to do worse to you than to 32 Finally he said: "May Jehovah, them." And they came pressing heavily in on the man, on Lot, and | am not able to escape to the mounwere getting near to break in the tainous region for fear calamity door, 10 So the men thrust out may keep close to me and I certheir hands and brought Lot in to them, into the house, and they shut the door. 11 But they struck with blindness the men who were at the entrance of the house, from the least to the greatest, so that they were wearing themselves out trying to find the entrance.

12 Then the men said to Lot: "Do you have anyone else here? Son-in-law and your sons and your daughters and all who are yours in the city, bring out of the place! 13 For we are bringing this place to ruin, because the outcry against them has grown loud before Jehovah. so that Jehovah sent us to bring the city to ruin." 14 Hence Lot went on out and began to speak to his sons-in-law who were to take his daughters, and he kept on saving: "Get up! Get out of this place, because Jehovah is bringing the city to ruin!" But in the eyes of his sons-in-law he seemed like a man who was joking.

15 However, when the dawn ascended, then the angels became urgent with Lot, saying: "Get up! Take your wife and your two daughters who are found here, for fear you may be swept away in the ward all the land of the District error of the city!" 16 When he and saw a sight. Why, here thick kept lingering, then in the compassion of Jehovah upon him, the men seized hold of his hand and of it came about that when God the hand of his wife and of the brought the cities of the District to hands of his two daughters and ruin God kept Abraham in mind in they proceeded to bring him out and to station him outside the city. 17 And it came about that, as soon overthrowing the cities among as they had brought them forth to which Lot had been dwelling. the outskirts, he began to say: "Escape for your soul! Do not look behind you and do not stand still in all the District! Escape to the mountainous region for fear you may be swept away!"

18 Then Lot said to them: "Not that, please, Jehovah! 19 Please, now, your servant has found favor tainly die. 20 Please, now, this city is nearby to flee there and it is a small thing. May I, please, escape there-is it not a small thing?-and my soul will live on." 21 So he said to him: "Here I do show you consideration to this extent also, by my not overthrowing the city of which you have spoken. 22 Hurry! Escape there, because I am not able to do a thing until your arriving there!" That is why he called the name of the city Zo'ar.

23 The sun had gone forth over the land when Lot arrived at Zo'ar. 24 Then Jehovah made it rain sulphur and fire from Jehovah. from the heavens, upon Sod'om and upon Go·mor'rah. 25 So he went ahead overthrowing these cities, even the entire District and all the inhabitants of the cities and the plants of the ground. 26 And his wife began to look around from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

27 Now Abraham made his way early in the morning to the place where he had stood before Jehovah. 28 Then he looked down toward Sod'om and Go·mor'rah and tosmoke ascended from the land like the thick smoke of a kiln! 29 And that he took steps to send Lot out of the midst of the overthrow when

30 Later Lot went up from Zo'ar and began dwelling in the mountainous region, and his two daughters along with him, because he got afraid of dwelling in Zo'ar. So he began dwelling in a cave, he and his two daughters. 31 And the first-born proceeded to say to the younger woman: "Our father is old in your eyes so that you are mag- and there is not a man in the land nifying your loving-kindness, which to have relations with us according you have exercised with me to to the way of the whole earth. preserve my soul alive, but I-I 32 Come, let us give our father

But and when she got up. 34 And if you are not returning her, know it came about on the next day that that you will positively die, you the first-born then said to the younger: "Here I lay down with my let us preserve offspring from our father." 35 So they repeatedly during that night also: then the vounger got up and lay down with lay down and when she got up. name Mo'ab. He is the father of Mo'ab, to this day, 38 As for the younger, she too gave birth to a son and then called his name Benof Am'mon, to this day,

Now Abraham moved camp from there to the land of the Neg'eb and took up dwelling between Ka'desh and Shur and residing as an alien at Ge'rar. 2 And Abraham repeated concerning Sarah his wife: "She is my sister." With that A.bim'e-lech king of Ge'rar sent and took Sarah. 3 Afterward God came to A.bim'e-lech in a dream by night and said to him: "Here you are as good as dead because of the woman whom you have taken, since she is owned by another owner as his wife." 4 However, A.bim'e-lech had not gone near her. Hence he said: "Jehovah, will you kill a nation that is really righteous? 5 Did not he say to me, 'She is my sister'? and that the [true] God said to him in and you are cleared of reproach." the dream: "I too have known that 17 And Abraham began to make

8 So A.bim'e-lech got up early father last night. Let us give him in the morning and proceeded to wine to drink tonight also. Then call all his servants and to speak you go in lie down with him, and of all these things in their ears. And the men got very much afraid. 9 Then A.bim'e-lech called Abragave their father wine to drink ham and said to him: "What have you done to us, and what sin have I committed against you, in that him, but he did not know when she you have brought upon me and my kingdom a great sin? He is the father of the sons God in this place, and they will certainly kill me because of my wife.' 12 And, besides, she is truly my sister, the daughter of my father, only not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife. 13 And it came about that, when God caused me to wander from the house of my father, then I said to her, 'This is your loving-kindness which you may exercise toward me: At every place where we shall come say of me: "He is my brother." '"

14 Following that A.bim'e-lech took sheep and cattle and menservants and maidservants and gave them to Abraham and returned to him Sarah his wife. 15 Further A.bim'e-lech said: "Here my land is available to you. Dwell where it is good in your eyes." 16 And to Sarah he said: "Here I do give a she-did not she too say, 'He is thousand silver pieces of money to my brother'? In the honesty of my your brother. Here it is for you a heart and with innocency of my covering of the eyes to all who are hands I have done this." 6 At with you, and before everybody, supplication to the [true] God: and [ and his wife and his slave girls, and they began bearing children. 18 For Jehovah had tightly shut up every womb of the house of A.bim'e-lech because of Sarah. Abraham's wife.

And Jehovah turned his attention to Sarah just as he had said, and Jehovah now did to Sarah just as he had spoken. 2 And Sarah became pregnant and then bore a son to Abraham in his old age at the appointed time of which God had spoken to him. 3 Accordingly Abraham called the name of his son who had been born to him. whom Sarah had borne to him. Isaac, 4 And Abraham proceeded to circumcise Isaac his son when eight days old, just as God had commanded him. 5 And Abraham was a hundred years old when Isaac his son was born to him. 6 Then Sarah said: "God has prepared laughter for me: everybody hearing of it will laugh at me." 7 And she added: "Who would have uttered to Abraham, 'Sarah will certainly suckle children,' whereas I have given birth to a son in his old age?"

8 Now the child kept growing and came to be weaned; and Abraham then prepared a big feast on the day of Isaac's being weaned. 9 And Sarah kept noticing the son of Ha'gar the Egyptian, whom she to take a wife for him from the had borne to Abraham, poking fun. land of Egypt. 10 So she began to say to Abraham: "Drive out this slave girl and her son, for the son of this slave girl is not going to be an heir with my son, with Isaac!" 11 But the thing proved to be very displeasing to Abraham as regards his son. 12 Then God said to Abraham: "Do not let anything that Sarah ity; that, according to the loyal keeps saying to you be displeasing to you about the boy and about your slave girl. Listen to her voice. because it is by means of Isaac that what will be called your seed will be. 13 And as for the son of the slave girl, I shall also constitute him a nation, because he is your A.bim'e-lech severely as regards the offspring."

14 So Abraham got up early in God proceeded to heal A.bim'e-lech | the morning and took bread and a skin water bottle and gave it to Ha'gar, setting it upon her shoulder, and the child, and then dismissed her. And she went her way and wandered about in the wilderness of Be'er-she'ba. 15 Finally the water became exhausted in the skin bottle and she threw the child under one of the bushes. 16 Then she went on and sat down by herself, about the distance of a bowshot away, because she said: "Let me not see it when the child dies." So she sat down at a distance and began to raise her voice and weep.

> 17 At that God heard the voice of the boy, and God's angel called to Ha'gar out of the heavens and said to her: "What is the matter with you, Ha'gar? Do not be afraid. because God has listened to the voice of the boy there where he is. 18 Get up, lift up the boy and take hold of him with your hand, because I shall constitute him a great nation." 19 Then God opened her eyes so that she caught sight of a well of water: and she went and began to fill the skin bottle with water and to give the boy a drink. 20 And God continued to be with the boy, and he kept growing and dwelling in the wilderness; and he became an archer 21 And he took up dwelling in the wilderness of Pa'ran, and his mother proceeded

> 22 Now it came about at that time that A.bim'e-lech together with Phi'col the chief of his army said to Abraham: "God is with you in everything you are doing. 23 So now swear to me here by God that you will not prove false to me and to my offspring and to my posterlove with which I have dealt with you, you will deal with me and with the land in which you have been residing as an alien." 24 So Abraham said: "I shall swear."

And both of them walked on together.

9 Finally they reached the place that the [true] God had designated to him, and Abraham built an altar there and set the wood in order and bound Isaac his son hand and foot and put him upon the altar on top of the wood. 10 Then Abraham put out his hand and took the slaughtering knife to kill his son. 11 But Jehovah's angel began calling to him out of the heavens and saying: "Abraham, Abraham!" to which he answered: "Here I am!" 12 And he went on to say: "Do not put out your hand against the boy and do Abraham to the test. 20 Now it came about after these things that the report got through to Abraham: "Here Mil'cah herself has also borne sons to Na'hor your brother: 21 Uz his first-born and Buz his brother and Kem·u'el the father of A'ram, 22 and Che'sed and Ha'zo and Pil'dash and Jid'laph and Be-thu'el." 23 And Bethu'el became the father of Rebek'ah. These eight Mil'cah bore to Na'hor the brother of Abraham. 24 There was his concubine too. whose name was Reu'mah. None of us Sarah his wife in the cave of the

7 Thereupon Abraham got up and bowed down to the natives, to the sons of Heth, 8 and spoke with them, saying: "If your souls agree to bury my dead out of my sight, listen to me and urge E'phron the son of Zo'har for me, 9 that he may give me the cave of Machpe'lah, which is his, which is at it to me in the midst of you for 10 As it was, E'phron was sitting among the sons of Heth. So E'phron the Hit'tite answered Abraham in the hearing of the sons of Heth with all those entering the gate of his city, saying: 11 "No, my lord! Listen to me. The field I do give to you, and the cave that is in it to you I do give it. Before the eyes of the sons of my people I do give it to you. Bury your dead." 12 At that Abraham bowed down before the natives 13 and spoke to E'phron in the hearing of the natives, saying: "Only if you—no, listen to me! I will give you the amount of silver for the field. Take it from

14 Then E'phron answered Abraham, saying to him: 15 "My lord, listen to me. A land plot worth four 23 And Sarah's life got to be hundred silver shekels, what is that a hundred and twenty-seven between me and you? So bury your years long. They were the years of dead." 16 Accordingly Abraham Sarah's life. 2 So Sarah died in listened to E'phron, and Abraham weighed out to E'phron the amount bron, in the land of Ca'naan, and of silver that he had spoken in the Abraham came in to bewail Sarah hearing of the sons of Heth, four and to weep over her. 3 Then hundred silver shekels current with Abraham got up from before his the merchants. 17 Thus the field alien resident and settler I am field and the cave that was in it among you. Now Abraham was old, advanced in years; and Jehovah had blessed Abraham in everything. 2 Hence Abraham said to his servant, the oldest one of his household, who was managing all he had: "Put your hand, please, under my thigh, 3 as I must have you swear by Jehovah, the God of the heavens and the God of the earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Ca'naan · ites in among whom I am dwelling, 4 but you will go to my country and to my relatives, and you will certainly take a wife for my son, for Isaac."

5 However, the servant said to him: "What if the woman does not wish to come with me to this land? Must I be sure to return your son to the land from where you went out?" 6 At this Abraham said to him: "Be on your guard that you do not return my son there. 7 Jehovah the God of the heavens, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my relatives and who spoke to me and who swore to me, saying, 'To your seed I am going to give this land,' he will send his angel ahead of you, and you will certainly take a wife for my son from there. 8 But if the woman should not wish to come with you, you also will have become free from this oath you gave me. Only you must not return my son there." 9 With that the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master and swore to him concerning this matter.

10 So the servant took ten camels from the camels of his master and proceeded to go with every sort of good thing of his master's in his hand. Then he rose and got on his way to Mes·o·po·ta'mi·a to the city of Na'hor. 11 Eventually he had the camels kneel down outside the women who draw water were accustomed to go out. 12 And he went on to say: "Jehovah the God of my master Abraham, cause it to happen, please, before me this day and perform loving-kindness with my master Abraham. 13 Here I am stationed at a fountain of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water. 14 What must occur is that the young woman to whom I shall say, 'Let your water jar down, please, that I may take a drink,' and who will indeed say, 'Take a drink, and I shall also water your camels,' this is the one you must assign to your servant, to Isaac: and by this let me know that you have performed loval love with my master."

15 Well, it came about that before he had finished speaking, why, here coming out was Re bek'ah, who had been born to Be thu'el the son of Mil'cah the wife of Na'hor, Abraham's brother, and her water jar was upon her shoulder. 16 Now the young woman was very attractive in appearance, a virgin, and no man had had sexual intercourse with her; and she made her way down to the fountain and began to fill her water jar and then came up. 17 At once the servant ran to meet her and said: "Give me, please, a little sip of water from your jar." 18 In turn she said: "Drink, my lord." With that she quickly lowered her jar upon her hand and gave him a drink. 19 When she was finished giving him a drink, then she said: "For your camels too I shall draw water until they are done drinking." 20 So she quickly emptied her jar into the drinking trough and ran yet again and again to the well to draw water, and kept drawing for all his camels. 21 All the while the man was gazing at her in wonder, keeping silent to know whether Jehovah had made his trip successful or not.

22 Consequently it came about that, when the camels had finished city at a well of water about eve- drinking, then the man took a gold nose ring of a half shekel in weight | making him greater and giving him and two bracelets for her hands, sheep and cattle and silver and ten shekels of gold was their gold and menservants and maidweight. 23 and he went on to say: "Whose daughter are you? Tell me, please. Is there any room at the master bore a son to my master house of your father for us to after her growing old; and he will spend the night?" 24 At that she said to him: "I am the daughter of Be-thu'el the son of Mil'cah, whom she bore to Na'hor." 25 And she said further to him: "There is both straw and much fodder with us, also a place to spend the night." 26 And the man proceeded to bow down and prostrate himself before Jehovah 27 and say: "Blessed be Jehovah the God of my master Abraham, who has not left his loving-kindness and his trustworthiness toward my master. I being on the way, Jehovah has led me to the house of the brothers of my master."

28 And the young woman went running and telling the household of her mother about these things. 29 Now Re-bek'ah had a brother and his name was La'ban. So La'ban went running to the man who was outside at the fountain. 30 And it came about that on seeing the nose ring and the bracelets on the hands of his sister and on hearing the words of Re bek'ah his sister, saying: "This is the way the man spoke to me," then he came to the man and there he was, standing by the camels at the fountain. 31 At once he said: "Come, you blessed one of Jehovah, Why do you keep standing out here, when indeed say to me: "Both you take I myself have made the house ready and room for the camels?" 32 With that the man came on into the house, and he went unharnessing the camels and giving straw and fodder to the camels and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him. 33 Then something to eat was set before him, but he said: "I shall not eat until I have spoken about my matters." Hence he said: "Speak!"

servants and camels and asses. 36 Further, Sarah the wife of my give him everything he has. 37 So my master made me swear, saying, 'You must not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Ca'naan · ites in whose land I am dwelling. 38 No, but you will go to the house of my father and to my family and you must take a wife for my son.' 39 But I said to my master, 'What if the woman will not come with me?' 40 Then he said to me, 'Jehovah, before whom I have walked, will send his angel with you and will certainly give success to your way; and you must take a wife for my son from my family and from the house of my father. 41 At that time you will be cleared of obligation to me by oath when you get to my family, and if they will not give her to you, then you shall become free of obligation to me by oath.'

42 "When I got to the fountain today, then I said, 'Jehovah the God of my master Abraham, if you are really giving success to my way on which I am going, 43 here I am stationed at a fountain of water. What must occur is that the maiden coming out to draw water to whom I shall actually say: "Please, let me drink a little water from your jar," 44 and who will a drink, and I shall also draw water for your camels," she is the woman whom Jehovah has assigned for the son of my master.'

45 "Before I was finished speaking in my heart, why, there was Re bek'ah coming out, with her jar upon her shoulder: and she made her way down to the fountain and began to draw water. Then I said to her, 'Give me a drink, please.' 46 So she quickly lowered her jar 34 Then he went on to say: "I from off her and said, "Take a 47 After that I asked her and said, Abraham's servant and his men. 'Whose daughter are you?' to which she said, 'The daughter of Be thu'el the son of Na'hor, whom Mil'cah bore to him.' Accordingly I put the nose ring on her nostril and the bracelets on her hands. 48 And I proceeded to bow down and prestrate myself before Jehovah and bless Jehovah the God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the true way to take the daughter of the brother of my master for his son. 49 And now if you are actually exercising loving-kindness and trustworthiness toward my master, tell me; but if not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand or to the left."

50 Then Laban and Be-thu'el answered and said: "From Jehovah this thing has issued. We are unable to speak bad or good to you. 51 Here is Re-bek'ah before you. Take her and go, and let her become a wife to the son of your master, just as Jehovah has spoken." 52 And it came about that when Abraham's servant had heard their words, he at once prostrated himself on the earth before Jehovah. 53 And the servant began to bring out articles of silver and articles of gold and garments and to give them to Re bek'ah; and he gave choice things to her brother and to her mother. 54 After that they ate and drank, he and the men who were with him, and they spent the night there and got up in the morning.

Then he said: "SEND me off to my master." 55 To this her brother and her mother said: "Let the young woman stay with us at least ten days. Afterward she can go." 56 But he said to them: "Do not detain me, seeing that Jehovah has given success to my way. Send me off, that I may go to my master." 57 So they said: "Let us call the young woman and inquire at her mouth." 58 Then they called Rebek'ah and said to her: "Will you go with this man?" In turn she rah. said: "I am willing to go."

59 At that they sent off Re bek'ah their sister and her nurse and the sons of the concubines that

60 And they began to bless Rebek'ah and say to her: "O you, our sister, may you become thousands times ten thousand, and let your seed take possession of the gate of those who hate it." 61 After that Re-bek'ah and her lady attendants rose and they went riding on the camels and following the man; and the servant took Re-bek'ah and got on his way.

62 Now Isaac had come from the way that goes to Be er-la hai-roi. for he was dwelling in the land of the Neg'eb. 63 And Isaac was out walking in order to meditate in the field at about the falling of evening. When he raised his eyes and looked. why, there camels were coming! 64 When Re-bek'ah raised her eyes, she caught sight of Isaac and she swung herself down from off the camel, 65 Then she said to the servant: "Who is that man there walking in the field to meet us?" and the servant said: "It is my master." And she proceeded to take a headcloth and to cover herself. 66 And the servant went relating to Isaac all the things he had done, 67 After that Isaac brought her into the tent of Sarah his mother. Thus he took Re-bek'ah and she became his wife: and he fell in love with her, and Isaac found comfort after the loss of his mother.

Furthermore, Abraham again took a wife, and her name was Ke tu'rah. 2 In time she bore him Zim'ran and Jok'shan and Me'dan and Mid'i-an and Ish'bak and Shu'ah.

3 And Jok'shan became father to She'ba and De'dan.

And the sons of De'dan became As shu'rim and Le tu'shim and Le·um'mim.

4 And the sons of Mid'i an were E'phah and E'pher and Ha'noch and A.bi'da and El.da'ah.

All these were the sons of Ke-tu'-

Abraham had Abraham gave gifts. | 21 And Isaac kept on entreating Then he sent them away from Jehovah especially for his wife, Isaac his son, while he was still because she was barren; so Jehoalive, eastward, to the land of the East. 7 And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, a hundred and seventyfive years. 8 Then Abraham expired and died in a good old age, old and satisfied, and was gathered to his people. 9 So Isaac and Ish'ma·el his sons buried him in the cave of Mach pe'lah in the field of E'phron the son of Zo'har the Hit'tite that is in front of Mam're, 10 the field that Abraham had purchased from the sons of Heth. There Abraham was buried, and also Sarah his wife. 11 And it developed that after Abraham's death God continued to bless Isaac his son, and Isaac was dwelling close by Be-er-la'hai-roi.

12 And this is the history of Ish'ma el the son of Abraham whom Ha'gar the Egyptian the maidservant of Sarah bore to Abraham.

13 Now these are the names of the sons of Ish'ma·el, by their names, according to their family origins: Ish'ma el's first-born Neba'ioth and Ke'dar and Ad'be-el and Mib'sam 14 and Mish'ma and Du'mah and Mas'sa, 15 Ha'dad and Te'ma, Je'tur, Na'phish and Ked'e mah. 16 These are the sons of Ish'ma el, and these are their names by their courtvards and by their walled camps: twelve chieftains according to their clans. 17 And these are the years of Ish'ma el's life, a hundred and thirtyseven years. Then he expired and died and was gathered to his people. 18 And they took up tabernacling from Hav'i-lah near Shur, which is in front of Egypt, as far as As·syr'i·a. In front of all his brothers he settled down.

19 And this is the history of Isaac the son of Abraham.

Abraham became father to Isaac. 20 And Isaac happened to be forty La'ban the Syrian, as his wife, birthright.

vah let himself be entreated for him, and Re-bek'ah his wife became pregnant. 22 And the sons within her began to struggle with each other, so that she said: "If this is the way it is, just why am I alive?" With that she went to inquire of Jehovah. 23 And Jehovah proceeded to say to her: "Two nations are in your belly, and two national groups will be separated from your inward parts; and the one national group will be stronger than the other national group, and the older will serve the younger."

24 Gradually her days came to the full for giving birth, and, look! twins were in her belly. 25 Then the first came out red all over like an official garment of hair; so they called his name E'sau. 26 And after that his brother came out and his hand was holding onto the heel of E'sau; so he called his name Jacob. And Isaac was sixty years old at her giving them birth.

27 And the boys got bigger, and E'sau became a man knowing how to hunt, a man of the field, but Jacob a blameless man, dwelling in tents. 28 And Isaac had love for E'sau, because it meant game in his mouth, whereas Re bek'ah was a lover of Jacob. 29 Once Jacob was boiling up some stew, when E'sau came along from the field and he was tired. 30 So E'sau said to Jacob: "Quick, please, give me a swallow of the red-the red there. for I am tired!" That is why his name was called E'dom. 31 To this Jacob said: "Sell me, first of all, your right as first-born!" 32 And E'sau continued: "Here I am simply going to die, and of what benefit to me is a birthright?" 33 And Jacob added: "Swear to me first of all!" And he proceeded to swear to him and to sell his right as first-born to Jacob. 34 And Jacob gave E'sau bread and lentil years old at his taking Re-bek'ah stew, and he went to eating and the daughter of Be-thu'el the Syr- drinking. Then he got up and went ian of Pad'dan-a'ram, the sister of his way. So E'sau despised the

Now there arose a famine in | ine that occurred in the days of he was getting up to a hundred Abraham, so that Isaac directed measures to one, as Jehovah was himself to A.bim'e-lech, king of the blessing him. 13 Consequently the Phi-lis'tines, to Ge'rar, 2 Then Jehovah appeared to him and said: "Do not go down to Egypt. Taber- growing great until he got very nacle in the land that I designated great. 14 And he came to have to you. 3 Reside as an alien in flocks of sheep and herds of cattle this land, and I shall continue with and a large body of servants, so you and bless you, because to you and to your seed I shall give all him. these lands, and I will carry out the sworn statement that I swore to Abraham your father, 4 'And I will multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens and I will give by means of your seed all nations of the earth will certainly bless themselves.' 5 due to the fact that Abraham listened to my voice and continued to keep his obligations to me, my commands, my statutes, and my laws." 6 So Isaac went on dwelling at Ge'rar.

7 Well, the men of the place kept asking with respect to his wife, and he would say: "She is my sister." For he was afraid to say "My wife" for fear that, to quote him, "the men of the place should kill me because of Re bek'ah," because she was attractive in appearance. 8 So it came about that as his days there extended themselves A.bim'e.lech, king of the Phi.lis'tines, was looking out of the winfear I should die on her account." 10 But A.bim'e-lech continued: "What is this you have done to us? with your wife, and you would have ful in the earth." brought guilt upon us!" 11 Then A.bim'e-lech commanded all the people, saying: "Anybody touching be put to death!"

12 Afterward Isaac began to sow the land, besides the first fam- seed in that land, and in that year man became great and went on advancing more and more and that the Phi-lis'tines began to envy

15 As for all the wells that the servants of his father had dug in the days of Abraham his father, these the Phi·lis'tines stopped up and they would fill them with to your seed all these lands; and dry earth. 16 Finally A.bim'e-lech said to Isaac: "Move from our neighborhood, because you have grown far stronger than we are." 17 So Isaac moved from there and encamped in the torrent valley of Ge'rar and took up dwelling there. 18 And Isaac proceeded to dig again the wells of water that they had dug in the days of Abraham his father but which the Phi-lis'tines went stopping up after Abraham's death; and he resumed calling their names by the names that his father had called them.

19 And the servants of Isaac went on digging in the torrent valley and so they found there a well of fresh water. 20 And the shepherds of Ge'rar fell to quarreling with the shepherds of Isaac. dow and taking in the sight, and saying: "The water is ours!" Hence there was Isaac having a good time he called the name of the well with Re bek'ah his wife. 9 At E'sek, because they had contended once A.bim'e-lech called Isaac and with him. 21 And they went digsaid: "Why, she is no other than ging another well, and they fell to your wife! So how is it that you quarreling over it also. Hence he said. 'She is my sister'?" At this called its name Sit'nah. 22 Later Isaac said to him: "I said it for he moved away from there and dug another well, but they did not quarrel over it. Hence he called its name Re-ho'both and said: "It is A little more and certainly one of because now Jehovah has given us the people would have lain down ample room and has made us fruit-

Hence we said, 'Let, please, an oath of obligation occur between us, between us and you, and let us conclude a covenant with you. 29 that you will do nothing bad toward us just as we have not touched you and just as we have done only good toward you in that we sent you away in peace. You now are the blessed of Jehovah." 30 Then he made a feast for them and they ate and drank. 31 Next morning they were early in rising and they made sworn statements one to the other. After that Isaac sent them away and they went from him in peace.

32 Now on that day it occurred that the servants of Isaac proceeded to come and report to him regarding the well that they had dug, and to say to him: "We have found water!" 33 Hence he called its name Shi'bah. That is why the name of the city is Be'er-she'ba, down to this day.

34 And E'sau grew to be forty years old. Then he took as wife Ju'dith the daughter of Be e'ri the Hit'tite and also Bas'e math the daughter of E'lon the Hit'tite. 35 And they were a source of bitterness of spirit to Isaac and Re-

5 However, Re bek'ah was listenson. And E'sau went on out into the field to hunt game and to bring it in. 6 And Re bek'ah said to Jacob her son: "Here I just heard your father speaking to E'sau your brother, saying, 7 'Bring me some game and make me a tasty dish and, ah, let me eat, that I may bless you before Jehovah before my death.' 8 And now, my son, listen to my voice in what I am commanding you. 9 Go, please, to the herd and get me from there two kids of the goats, good ones, that I may make them up into a tasty dish for your father such as he is fond of. 10 Then you must bring it to your father and he must eat it, in order that he may bless you before his death."

11 And Jacob proceeded to say to Re bek'ah his mother: "But E'sau my brother is a hairy man and I am a smooth man. 12 What if my father feels me? Then I shall certainly become in his eyes like one making a mockery, and I shall certainly bring upon myself a malediction and not a blessing." 13 At this his mother said to him: "Upon me be the malediction meant for you, my son. Only listen to my voice and go, get them for me." 14 Accordingly he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and his mother made a tasty dish such as his father was fond of. 15 After that Re-bek'ah 27 Now it came about that when took garments of E'sau her older Isaac was old and his eyes son, the most desirable ones which were too dim to see he then called were with her in the house, and 18 So he went on in to his father and said: "My father!" to which Isaac had finished blessing Jacob. he said: "Here I am! Who are you, yes, it indeed came about when my son?" 19 And Jacob went on to say to his father: "I am E'sau before the face of Isaac his father, your first-born. I have done just as that E'sau his brother came back you have spoken to me. Raise yourself up, please. Sit down and eat some of my game, in order that your soul may bless me." 20 At that Isaac said to his son: "How is it that you have been so quick in finding it, my son?" In turn he said: "Because Jehovah your God his father said to him: "Who are caused it to meet up with me." 21 Then Isaac said to Jacob: "Come near, please, that I may feel you, my son, to know whether you are really my son E'sau or not." 22 So Jacob came near to Isaac his father, and he went feeling him, after which he said: "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands come in and I blessed him? Blessed are the hands of E'sau." 23 And he did not recognize him. because 34 On hearing his father's words his hands proved to be hairy like the hands of E'sau his brother. Hence he blessed him.

Then he brought it to his father and said to his father: "Let my father get up and eat some of his son's game, in order that your soul may bless me." 32 At this Isaac you?" to which he said: "I am your son, your first-born, E'sau." 33 And Isaac began to shake with a great trembling in extreme measure, and so he said: "Who, then, was it that hunted for game and came bringing it to me, so that I ate of everything before you could

41 However, E'sau harbored animosity for Jacob on account of the blessing with which his father had blessed him, and E'sau kept saying in his heart: "The days of the period of mourning for my father are getting closer. After that I am going to kill Jacob my brother."
42 When the words of E'sau her older son were told to Re-bek'ah. she at once sent and called Jacob her younger son and said to him: "Look! E'sau your brother is comforting himself in regard to youto kill you. 43 Now, then, my son, listen to my voice and get up, run away to La'ban my brother at Ha'ran. 44 And you must dwell with him for some days until the rage of your brother calms down, 45 until the anger of your brother turns away from you and he has forgotten what you have done to him. And I shall certainly send and get you from there. Why should I be bereaved also of both of you in one dav?"

46 After that Re-bek'ah kept saying to Isaac: "I have come to abhor this life of mine because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob ever takes a wife from the daughters of Heth like these from the daughters of the land, of what good is life to me?"

9Q Consequently Isaac called Jacob and blessed him and commanded him and said to him: "You must not take a wife from the daughters of Ca'naan. 2 Get up, go to Pad'dan-a'ram to the house of Be-thu'el the father of your mother and from there take yourself a wife from the daughters the dust particles of the earth, and of La'ban the brother of your you will certainly spread abroad to 5 So Isaac sent Jacob away, and grow restless, you will indeed break he struck out for Pad'dan-a'ram, for La'ban the son of Be thu'el the Syrian, the brother of Re bek'ah, mother of Jacob and E'sau.

> 6 When E'sau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him away to Pad'dan-a'ram to take from there a wife for himself, and that when he blessed him he laid the command upon him, saving: "Do not take a wife from the daughters of Ca'naan"; 7 and that Jacob was obeying his father and his mother and was on his way to Pad'dan-a'ram: 8 then E'sau saw that the daughters of Ca'naan were displeasing in the eyes of Isaac his father. 9 Hence E'sau went to Ish'ma·el and took as wife Ma'halath the daughter of Ish'ma el the son of Abraham, the sister of Neba'ioth, besides his other wives.

> 10 And Jacob continued on his way out from Be'er-she'ba and kept going to Ha'ran. 11 In time he came across a place and set about spending the night there because the sun had set. So he took one of the stones of the place and set it as his head supporter and lay down in that place. 12 And he began to dream, and, look! there was a ladder stationed upon the earth and its top reaching up to the heavens; and, look! there were God's angels ascending and descending on it. 13 And, look! there was Jehovah stationed above it. and he proceeded to say:

> "I am Jehovah the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac. The land upon which you are lying, to you I am going to give it and to your seed. 14 And your seed will certainly become like

This is nothing else but the house of God and this is Jacob got up early in the morning and took the stone that was there as his head supporter and he set it up as a pillar and poured oil on the top of it. 19 Further, he called the name of that place Beth'el; but the fact is, Luz was the city's name formerly.

20 And Jacob went on to vow a vow, saying: "If God will continue with me and will certainly keep me and will certainly give me bread to eat and garments to wear 21 and I shall certainly return in peace to the house of my father, then Jehovah will have proved to be my God. 22 And this stone that I have set up as a pillar will become a house of God, and as for everything that you will give me I shall without fail give the tenth of it to you."

Then we must water the sheep."

9 While he was yet speaking with them, Rachel came with the sheep that belonged to her father, for she was a shepherdess. 10 And it came about that when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother and the sheep of La'ban his mother's brother, Jacob on this way on which I am going immediately approached and rolled away the stone from off the mouth of the well and watered the sheep of La'ban his mother's brother. 11 Then Jacob kissed Rachel and raised his voice and burst into tears. 12 And Jacob began to tell Rachel that he was the brother of her father and that he was the son of Re bek'ah. And she went running and telling her father.

13 Now it came about that as 29 After that Jacob set his feet soon as Laban heard the report in motion and traveled on to about Jacob the son of his sister in motion and traveled on to about Jacob the son of his sister. the land of the Orientals. 2 Now he went running to meet him. he looked, and here there was a Then he embraced him and kissed well in the field and here three him and brought him on into his house. Keep to birth and then said: "It is bedwelling with me." 20 And Jacob cause Jehovah has listened, in that proceeded to serve seven years for I was hated and so he gave me Rachel, but in his eyes they proved to be like some few days because of his love for her.

21 Then Jacob said to Laban: "Give over my wife, because my days are up, and let me have relations with her." 22 With that La'ban gathered all the men of the place and made a feast. 23 But it turned out that during the evening he resorted to taking Le'ah his daughter and bringing her to him that he might have relations with her. 24 Moreover, Laban gave to her Zil'pah his maidservant. even to Le'ah his daughter, as a maidservant. 25 So it followed in the morning that here it was Le'ah! Consequently he said to La'ban: "What is this you have done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served with you? So why have you tricked me?" 26 To this La'ban said: "It is not customary to do this way in our place, to give the younger woman before the firstborn. 27 Celebrate to the full the week of this woman. After that there shall be given to you also this other woman for the service that you can serve with me for seven years more." 28 Accordingly Jacob did so and celebrated fully the week of this woman, after which he gave him Rachel his daughter as his wife. 29 Besides, La'ban gave Bil'hah his maidservant to Rachel his daughter as her maidservant.

30 Then he had relations also with Rachel and also expressed also this one." Hence she called his name Sim'e on. 34 And she became pregnant yet again and brought a son to birth and then said: "Now this time my husband will join himself to me, because I have borne him three sons." His name was therefore called Le'vi. 35 And she became pregnant once more and brought a son to birth and then said: "This time I shall laud Jehovah." She therefore called his name Judah. After that she left off giving birth.

30 When Rachel came to see that she had borne nothing to Jacob, Rachel got jealous of her sister and began to say to Jacob: "Give me children or otherwise I shall be a dead woman." 2 At this Jacob's anger burned against Rachel and he said: "Am I in the place of God, who has held back the fruit of the belly from you?" 3 So she said: "Here is my slave girl Bil'hah. Have relations with her, that she may give birth upon my knees and that I, even I, may get children from her." 4 With that she gave him Bil'hah her maidservant as wife, and Jacob had relations with her. 5 And Bil'hah became pregnant and in time bore Jacob a son. 6 Then Rachel said: "God has acted as my judge and has also listened to my voice, so that he gave me a son." That is why she called his name Dan. 7 And Bil'hah, Rachel's maidservant, became pregnant once more and in time bore a second son to more love for Rachel than for Le'- Jacob. 8 Then Rachel said: "With ah, and he went serving with strenuous wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister. I have also come! off winner!" So she called his name | chel, and God heard and answered Naph'ta·li.

9 When Le'ah came to see that she had left off giving birth, she brought a son to birth. Then she proceeded to take Zil'pah her maid- said: "God has taken away my servant and to give her to Jacob as reproach!" 24 So she called his wife. 10 In time Zil'pah, Le'ah's name Joseph, saying: "Jehovah is maidservant, bore a son to Jacob, adding another son to me." 11 Then Le'ah said: "With good fortune!" So she called his name Gad. 12 After that Zil'pah, Le'ah's maidservant, bore a second son to Jacob. 13 Then Le'ah said: "With my happiness! For the daughters will certainly pronounce Ash'er.

14 Now Reu'ben went walking in the days of the wheat harvest and 27 Then Laban said to him: "If. got to find mandrakes in the field. So he brought them to Le'ah his eyes,-I have taken the omens to mother. Then Rachel said to Le'ah: "Give me, please, some of your son's mandrakes." 15 At this she said to her: "Is this a little thing, your having taken my husband, with your now taking also my son's mandrakes?" So Rachel said: "For that reason he is going to lie down with you tonight in exchange for your son's mandrakes."

16 When Jacob was coming from the field in the evening. Le'ah went on out to meet him and then said: "It is with me you are going to have relations, because I have hired you outright with my son's mandrakes." Accordingly he lay down with her that night, 17 And God heard and answered Le'ah and she became pregnant and in time bore to Jacob a fifth son, 18 Then Le'ah said: "God has given me a hireling's wages, because I have given my maidservant to my husband." So she called his name Is'sa char. 19 And Le'ah became pregnant once more and in time bore a sixth son to Jacob. 20 Then Le'ah said: "God has endowed me. yes, me, with a good endowment. At last my husband will tolerate me, because I have borne him six sons." So she called his name Zeb'u·lun. 21 And afterward she bore a daughter and then called her something stolen if it is with me." name Di'nah.

22 Finally God remembered Raher in that he opened her womb. 23 And she became pregnant and

25 And it followed that when Rachel had given birth to Joseph. Jacob immediately said to La'ban: "Send me away that I may go to my place and to my country. 26 Give over my wives and my children, for whom I have served me happy." So she called his name with you, that I may go; for you vourself must know my service which I have rendered you." now, I have found favor in your the effect that Jehovah is blessing me due to you." 28 And he added: "Stipulate your wages to me and I shall give them." 29 So he said to him: "You yourself must know how I have served you and how your herd has fared with me: 30 that it was little that you actually had before my coming, and it went expanding to a multitude, in that Jehovah blessed you since I stepped in. So now when am I to do something also for my own house?"

31 Then he said: "What shall I give you?" And Jacob went on to say: "You will give me nothing whatsoever! If you will do this thing for me, I shall resume shepherding your flock. I shall continue guarding it. 32 I will pass among your whole flock today. You set aside from there every sheep speckled and with color patches, and every dark-brown sheep among the young rams and any color-patched and speckled one among the shegoats. Hereafter such must be my wages. 33 And my right-doing must answer for me on whatever future day you may come to look over my wages; every one that is not speckled and color-patched among the she-goats and dark brown among the young rams is 39 Consequently the flocks would get in heat before the staffs, and become your wages, then the whole the flocks would produce striped, flock produced striped ones. 9 So speckled and color-patched ones. 40 And Jacob separated the young rams and then turned the faces of the flocks to the striped ones and time when the flock got in heat all the dark-brown ones among the that I raised my eyes and saw a flocks of La'ban. So the feeble ones always came to be La'ban's. but the robust ones Jacob's.

43 And the man went on increasing more and more, and great flocks and maidservants and menservants and camels and asses came to be his.

14 At this Rachel and Le'ah answered and said to him: "Is there 31 In time he got to hear the a share of inheritance for us any words of the sons of Laban, more in the house of our father? thing that belonged to our father: foreigners to him since he has sold

What can I do against these today or against their children whom they have borne? 44 And now, come, let us conclude a covenant, I and you, and it must serve as a witness between me and you." 45 Accordingly Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar, 46 Then Jacob said to his brothers: "Pick up stones!" Accordingly they ate bread and passed the night in the mountain. 55 However, La'ban got up early in the morning and kissed his children and his daughters and blessed them. Then La'ban got on his way that he might return to his own place.

99 And as for Jacob, he got on his way, and the angels of God now met up with him. 2 Immediately Jacob said, when he saw them: "The camp of God this is!" Hence he called the name of that place Ma·ha·na'im.

3 Then Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to E'sau his brother to the land of Se'ir, the field of E'dom, 4 and he commanded them, saying: "This is what you will say to my lord, to E'sau, 'This is what your servant Jacob has said: "With La'ban I have resided as an alien and I have stayed for a long time till now. 5 And I have come to have bulls and asses. sheep, and menservants and maidservants, and I would like to send to notify my lord, that I may find

34 Now Di'nah the daughter of Le'ah, whom she had borne to Jacob, used to go out to see the daughters of the land. 2 And She chem the son of Ha'mor the Hi'vite, a chieftain of the land, got to see her and then took her and lay down with her and violated her. he fell in love with the young woman and kept speaking persuasively to the young woman. urge him, so that he took it.

25 However, it came about that on the third day, when they got to be aching, the two sons of Jacob. Sim'e on and Le'vi, brothers of Di'nah, proceeded to take each one because he had defiled Di'nah their his sword and to go unsuspectedly to the city and to kill every male. 26 And Ha'mor and She'chem his son they killed with the edge of the sword. Then they took Di'nah from She'chem's house and went on out. 27 The other sons of Jacob attacked the fatally wounded men and went come like us, by every male of yours plundering the city, because they had defiled their sister. 28 Their shall certainly give our daughters flocks and their herds and their to you, and your daughters we asses and what was in the city and shall take for ourselves, and we what was in the field they took. shall certainly dwell with you and 29 And all their means of maintenance and all their little children and their wives they carried off captive, so that they plundered all that was in the houses.

30 At this Jacob said to Sim'e on ostracism upon me in making me a

After that God said to Jacob: "Rise, go up to Beth'el and dwell there, and make an altar there to the [true] God who appeared to you when you were running away from E'sau your brother."

2 Then Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him: "Put away the foreign gods that are in the midst of you and cleanse yourselves and change your mantles, 3 and let us rise and go up to Beth'el. And there I shall make an altar to the [true] God who answered me in the day of my distress in that he proved to be with me in the way that I have gone." 4 So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods that were in their hands and the earrings that were in their ears, and Jacob hid them under the big tree that was close by She'chem.

5 After that he pulled away, and the terror of God came to be upon the cities that were round about them, so that they did not chase after the sons of Jacob. 6 Eventually Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Ca'naan, that is to say. Beth'el, he and all the people who were with him. 7 Then he built an altar there and began to call the place El-beth'el, because there the [true] God had revealed himself to him at the time of his running away from his brother. 8 Later Deb'o rah the nursing woman of Re-bek'ah died and was buried at the foot of Beth'el under a massive tree. Hence he called its name Al'lon-bac'uth.

9 God now appeared to Jacob once again during his coming from Pad'dan-a'ram and blessed him. 10 And God went on to say to him: Is'sa char and Zeb'u lun. 24 The "Your name is Jacob, No longer is sons by Rachel were Joseph and your name to be called Jacob, but Benjamin. 25 And the sons by Israel will your name become." Nations and a congregation of nations will proceed out of you, and kings will come out of your loins. 12 As for the land that I have given to Abraham and to Isaac, to you I shall give it, and to your seed after you I shall give the land." 13 After that God went up from above him at the place where he had spoken with him.

14 Consequently Jacob stationed a pillar in the place where he had spoken with him, a pillar of stone. and he poured a drink offering upon it and poured oil upon it. 15 And Jacob continued to call the name of the place where God had spoken with him Beth'el.

16 Then he pulled away from Beth'el. And while there was vet a good stretch of land before coming to Eph'rath, Rachel proceeded to give birth, and it was going hard with her in making the delivery. 17 But so it was that while she had difficulty in making the delivery the midwife said to her: "Do not be afraid, for you will have this son also," 18 And the result was that as her soul was going out (because she died) she called his name Ben-o'ni; but his father called him Benjamin. 19 Thus Rachel died and was buried on the way to Eph'rath, that is to say. Beth'le hem. 20 Hence Jacob stationed a pillar over her grave. This is the pillar of Rachel's grave down to this day.

21 After that Israel pulled away and pitched his tent a distance beyond the tower of E'der. 22 And it came about while Israel was tabernacling in that land that once Reu'ben went and lay down with Bil'hah his father's concubine, and Israel got to hear of it.

So there came to be twelve sons of Jacob. 23 The sons by Le'ah were Jacob's first-born Reu'ben and Sim'e on and Le'vi and Judah and him in Pad'dan-a'ram.

27 At length Jacob came to Isaac his father to Mam're, to Kir'i athar'ba, that is to say, He'bron, where Abraham and also Isaac had resided as aliens. 28 And the days of Isaac came to be a hundred and eighty years. 29 After that Isaac expired and died and was gathered to his people, old and satisfied with days, and E'sau and Jacob his sons buried him.

38 Now in the meantime it came about that when Judah went down from his brothers he pitched his tent near a man, an A-dul'lamite, and his name was Hi'rah. 2 And there Judah got to see a daughter of a certain Ca'naan-ite. and his name was Shu'a. So he took her and had relations with her, he at once took her for a her. 3 And she became pregnant. Later she bore a son and he called his name Er. 4 Again she became pregnant. Accordingly Ta'mar went and continued to dwell at her own father's house.

For she saw that She'lah had grown up and vet she had not been given as a wife to him.

15 When Judah caught sight of harlot, because she had covered her face. 16 So he turned aside to her by the road and said: "Allow me, please, to have relations with you." For he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. However, she said: "What will you give me Ach'zib at the time she bore him. me?" 17 To this he said: "I myself shall send a kid of the goats from the herd." But she said: "Will you give a security until you send it?" 18 And he continued: "What is the security that I shall give seal ring and your cord and your rod that is in your hand." Then he gave them to her and had relations with her, so that she became preggot up and went and removed her shawl off her and clothed herself with the garments of her widow-

20 And Judah proceeded to send the kid of the goats by the hand of brother. 10 Now what he did was his companion the A dul'lam ite in order to get back the security from the hand of the woman, but he never found her. 21 And he went in-law: "Dwell as a widow in the inquiring of the men of her place, house of your father until She'lah saying: "Where is that temple my son grows up." After that he 23 So Judah said: "Let her take 24 However, about three months later it happened that it was told to Judah: "Ta'mar your daughterhere she is also pregnant by her harlotry." At that Judah said: "Bring her out and let her be brought out she herself sent to her father-in-law, saying: "By the man nant." And she added: "Examine. seal ring and the cord and the rod." 26 Then Judah examined them and said: "She is more righteous than I am, for the reason that I did not give her to She'lah my son," And he had no further intercourse with her after that.

27 Now it developed that in the time of her giving birth, why, here there were twins in her belly. 28 Further, it turned out that when she was giving birth one extended his hand, and the midwife at once took and tied a scarlet piece about his hand, saying: "This one came out first." 29 Finally it developed that as soon as he drew back his hand, why, here his brother came out, so that she exclaimed: "What do you mean by this, that you have produced a perineal rupture for yourself?" Hence his name was called Pe'rez. 30 And afterward his brother upon whose hand the scarlet piece was came out and his name came to be called Ze'rah.

39 As for Joseph, he was brought down to Egypt, and Pot'i phar, a court official of Phar'aoh, the chief of the bodyguard, an Egyptian, got to buy him from the hand of the Ish'ma el ites who had brought him down there. 2 But Jehovah proved to be with Joseph, turn out successful in his hand.

4 And Joseph kept finding favor my voice. 15 And it followed that

At | in his eyes and waited upon him any rate, I have sent this kid, but continually, so that he appointed him over his house, and all that was his he gave into his hand. 5 And it followed that from the time he appointed him over his in-law has played the harlot, and house and in charge of all that was his Jehovah kept blessing the house of the Egyptian due to Joseph, and Jehovah's blessing came to be upon burned." 25 As she was being all that he had in the house and in the field. 6 Finally he left everything that was his in Joseph's to whom these belong I am preg- hand; and he did not know what was with him at all except the please, to whom these belong, the bread he was eating. Moreover, Joseph grew to be beautiful in form and beautiful in appearance.

7 Now after these things it came about that the wife of his master began to raise her eyes toward Joseph and say: "Lie down with me." 8 But he would refuse and would say to his master's wife: "Here my master does not know what is with me in the house, and everything he has he has given into my hand. 9 There is no one greater in this house than I am, and he has not withheld from me anything at all except you, because you are his wife. So how could I commit this great badness and actually sin against God?"

10 So it turned out that as she spoke to Joseph day after day he never listened to her to lie alongside her, to continue with her. 11 But it happened that on this day as other days he went into the house to do his business, and there was none of the men of the house there in the house. 12 Then she grabbed hold of him by his garment, saying: "Lie down with me!" But he left his garment in her hand and took to flight and went on outside. 13 So it occurred that as soon as she saw that he had left his garment in her hand that so that he turned out a successful he might flee outside, 14 she beman and came to be over the house gan to cry out to the men of her of his master, the Egyptian. 3 And house and to say to them: "Look! his master got to see that Jehovah He brought to us a man, a Hebrew. was with him and that everything to make us a laughingstock. 17 Then she spoke to him according to these words, saying: "The Hebrew servant whom you brought to us came to me to make me a laughingstock. 18 But it followed that as soon as I raised my voice and began to cry out, he then left his garment beside me and went fleeing outside." 19 The result was that as soon as his master heard the words of his wife which she spoke to him, saying: "Like this and this your servant did to me," his anger blazed. 20 So Joseph's master took him and gave him over to the prison house, the place where the prisoners of the king were kept under arrest, and he continued there in the prison house

21 However, Jehovah continued with Joseph and kept extending loving-kindness to him and granting him to find favor in the eves of the chief officer of the prison house. 22 So the chief officer of the prison house gave over into Joseph's hand all the prisoners who were in the prison house; and everything that they were doing there he proved to be the one having it done. 23 The chief officer of the prison house was looking after absolutely nothing that was in his hand, because Jehovah was with Joseph and what he was doing Jehovah was making it turn out successful. and bonoke stoll nour

So Joseph said to them: "Do not interpretations belong to God? Relate

it to me, please."

9 And the chief of the cupbearers went on to relate his dream to Joseph and to say to him: "In my dream, why, here there was a vine before me. 10 And on the vine there were three twigs, and it was apparently sprouting shoots. Its blossoms pushed forth. Its clusters ripened their grapes. 11 And Phar'aoh's cup was in my hand, and I proceeded to take the grapes and squeeze them out into Phar'aoh's cup. After that I gave the cup into Phar'aoh's hand." 12 Then Joseph said to him: "This is its interpretation: The three twigs are three days. 13 In three days from now Phar'aoh will lift up your head and he will certainly return you to your office; and you will certainly give Phar'aoh's cup into his hand. according to the former custom when you acted as his cupbearer. 14 Nevertheless, you must keep me in your remembrance as soon as it goes well with you, and you must. with me and mention me to Phar'ach, and you must get me out of chief of the bodyguard assigned should put me in the prison hole."

Then Jacob said to his sons: "Why do you keep looking at one another?" 2 And he added: "Here I have heard that there are cereals in Egypt. 29 At length they came to Jacob their father to the land of Ca'naan and told him all the things that had befallen them, saying: 30 "The man who is the lord of the country spoke harshly with us, the country. 31 But we said to not act as spies. 32 We are twelve brothers, the sons of our father. Is he still alive?" 28 To this they said: "Your servant our father is getting along well. He is still alive." Then they bowed down and prostrated themselves.

44 Later on he commanded the man who was over his house, saving: "Fill the bags of the men with food to the extent they are able to carry it and place the money of each one in the mouth of his bag. 2 But you must place my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the bag of the youngest and the money for his cereals." So he did according to the word of Joseph which he had spoken.

3 The morning had become light when the men were sent away. both they and their asses. 4 They went out of the city. They had not gone far when Joseph said to the man who was over his house: "Get up! At last the cup was found in Benjamin's bag.

13 Then they ripped their mantles apart and lifted each one his load back onto his ass and returned to the city. 14 And Judah and his brothers went on into Joseph's house, and he was still there; and they proceeded to fall upon their faces to the earth, 15 Joseph now said to them: "What sort of deed is this that you have done? Did you not know that such a man as I am can expertly read omens?" 16 At this Judah exclaimed: "What can we say to my master? What can we speak? And how can we prove ourselves righteous? The [true] God has found out the error of your slaves. Here we are slaves to my master, both we and the one in whose hand the cup was found!" 17 However, he said: "It is unthinkable for me to do this! The man in whose hand the cup was found is the one who will become a slave to me. As for the rest of you, go up in peace to your father."

18 Judah now came near to him and said: "I pray you, my master, please let your slave speak a word in the hearing of my master, and do not let your anger grow hot against your slave, because it is the same with you as with Phar'ach. 19 My master asked his slaves, saying, 'Do you have a father or a brother?' 20 So we said to my master, 'We do have an aged father and a child of his old age, the youngest. 30 "And now, as soon as I should come to your slave my father without the boy along with us, when that one's soul is bound up with this one's soul, 31 then it is certain to occur that as soon as he sees that the boy is not there he will simply die, and your slaves will indeed bring down the gray hairs of your slave our father with grief to She'ol. 32 For your slave became surety for the boy when away from his father, saying, 'If I fail to bring him back to you, then I shall have sinned against my father forever. 33 So now, please, let your slave stay instead of the boy as a slave to my master, that the boy may go up with his brothers.' 34 For how can I go up to my father without the boy along with me, for fear that then I may look upon the calamity that will find out my father?"

2 And he began to raise his voice in weeping, so that the Egyptians got to hear it and Phar'aoh's house got to hear it. 3 Finally Joseph said to his brothers: "I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?" But his brothers were unable to answer him at all, because they were disturbed by reason of him. 4 So Joseph said to his brothers: "Come close to me, please." With that they came close to him.

Then he said: "I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. 5 But now do not feel hurt and do not be angry with yourselves because you sold me here; because for the preservation of life God has sent me ahead of you. 6 For this is the second year of the famine in the midst of the earth. and there are yet five years in which there will be no plowing time or harvest. 7 Consequently God sent me ahead of you in order to place a remnant for you men in the earth and to keep you alive by a great escape. 8 So now it was not you who sent me here, but it was the [true] God, that he might appoint me a father to Phar'aoh and a lord for all his house and as one dominating over all the land of Egypt.

16 And the news was heard at the house of Phar'aoh, saying: "Jo-seph's brothers have come!" And it proved to be good in the eyes of Phar'aoh and of his servants. 17 Accordingly Phar'aoh said to Joseph: "Say to your brothers, 'Do this: Load your beasts of burden and go enter the land of Ca'naan. 18 and take your father and your households and come here to me. that I may give you the good of the land of Egypt; and eat the fat part of the land. 19 And you yourself are commanded: "Do this: TAKE for yourselves wagons from the land of Egypt for your little ones and your wives, and you must lift your father on one and come here. 20 And do not let your eve feel sorry over your equipment, because the good of all the land of Egypt is YOURS." '"

21 Following that the sons of Israel did so, and Joseph gave them wagons according to Phar'aoh's orders and gave them provisions for the way. 22 To each of them he gave individual changes of mantles, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred silver pieces and five changes of mantles. 23 And to his father he sent as follows: ten asses carrying good things of Egypt and ten she-asses carrying grain and bread and sustenance for his father go. However, he said to them: "Do not get exasperated at one another on the way."

Joseph my son is still alive! Ah, let me go and see him before I die!"

46 Accordingly Israel and all who were his pulled out and came to Be'er-she'ba, and he proceeded to sacrifice sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. 2 Then God talked to Israel in visions of the night and said: "Jacob, Jacob!" to which he said: "Here I am!" 3 And he went on to say: "I am the [true] God, the God of your father. Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I shall constitute you there into a great nation. 4 I myself shall go down with you to Egypt and I myself shall surely bring you up also; and Joseph will lay his hand upon your eyes."

5 After that Jacob got up out of Be'er-she'ba, and the sons of Israel continued transporting Jacob their father and their little ones and their wives in the wagons that Phar'aoh had sent to transport him. 6 Further, they took along their herds and their goods, which they had accumulated in the land of Ca'naan. Eventually they came into Egypt, Jacob and all his offspring with him. 7 He brought his sons and his sons' sons with him. his daughters and his sons' daughters, even all his offspring, with 21 And the sons of Benjamin were Be'la and Be'cher and Ash'bel. Ge'ra and Na'a man, E'hi and Rosh, Mup'pim and Hup'pim and Ard.

After that they came into the land of Go'shen. 29 Then Joseph had his chariot made ready and went up to meet Israel his father at Go'shen. When he appeared to him he at once fell upon his neck and gave way to tears upon his neck again and again. 30 Finally Israel said to Joseph: "This time I am willing to die, now that I have seen your face, since you are still alive."

31 Then Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household: "Let me go up and report to Phar'ach and say to him, 'My brothers and my father's household who 9 So Jacob said to Phar'aoh: "The were in the land of Ca'naan have come here to me. 32 And the men are shepherds, because they became stock raisers; and their flocks and their herds and all they have they have brought here.' 33 And what must occur is that when Phar'aoh will call you and actually say, 'What is Your occupation?' 34 you must say, 'Your servants have continued to be stock raisers from our youth until now, both we and our forefathers,' in order that you may dwell in the land of Go'shen, because every herder of sheep is a detestable thing to Egypt."

47 Accordingly Joseph came and reported to Phar'aoh and said: "My father and my brothers and their flocks and their herds and little ones. all they have have come from the land of Ca'naan, and here they are all the land, because the famine in the land of Go'shen." 2 And was very severe; and the land of from the whole number of his Egypt and the land of Ca'naan bebrothers he took five men, that he came exhausted as a result of the might present them to Phar'aoh, famine, 14 And Joseph went on

7 Then Joseph brought in Jacob his father and introduced him to Phar'aoh, and Jacob proceeded to bless Phar'aoh, 8 Phar'aoh now said to Jacob: "How many are the days of the years of your life?" days of the years of my alien residences are a hundred and thirty years. Few and distressing the days of the years of my life have proved, and they have not reached the days of the years of the lives of my fathers in the days of their alien residences." 10 After that Jacob blessed Phar'aoh and went

Thus he kept putting E'phra·im before Ma·nas'seh.

21 After that Israel said to Joseph: "Look, I am dying, but God will certainly continue with you people and return you to the land of your forefathers. 22 As for me, I do give you one shoulder [of land] more than to your brothers, which I took from the hand of the Am'or ites by my sword and by my bow."

33 Thus Jacob finished giving commands to his sons. Then he gathered his feet up onto the couch and expired and was gathered to his people.

50 Then Joseph fell upon the face of his father and burst into tears over him and kissed him. 2 After that Joseph commanded his servants, the physicians, to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel, 3 and they took fully forty days for him, for this Mam're. 14 Afterward Joseph remany days they customarily take for the embalming, and the Egyptians continued to shed tears for him seventy days.

12 And his sons proceeded to do for him exactly as he had commanded them. 13 So his sons carried him into the land of Ca'naan and buried him in the cave of the field of Mach pe'lah, the field that Abraham had purchased for the possession of a burial place from E'phron the Hit'tite in front of turned to Egypt, he and his brothers and all those who went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

15 When the brothers of Joseph saw that their father was dead, they began to say: "It may be that Joseph is harboring animosity against us and he will be sure to repay us for all the evil that we have rendered him." 16 So they expressed a command to Joseph in these words: "Your father gave the command before his death, saying, Joseph: "I beseech you, pardon, ers and their sin in that they now pardon, please, the revolt 7 So Joseph went up to bury his of the servants of your father's

15 Later on the king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, the name of one of whom was Shiph'tiply, and it must turn out that, rah and the name of the other in case war should befall us, then Pu'ah, 16 yes, he went so far as

Because they are lively, they have already come in to them."

20 So God dealt well with the midwives; and the people kept growing more numerous and becoming very mighty. 21 And it came about that because the midwives had feared the [true] God he later presented them with families. 22 Finally Phar'aoh commanded all his people, saying: "Every new-born son you are to throw into the river Nile, but every daughter you are to preserve alive."

2 Meantime, a certain man of the house of Le'vi went ahead and took a daughter of Le'vi. 2 And the woman became pregnant and brought a son to birth. When she saw how good-looking he was, she kept him concealed for three lunar months. 3 When she was no longer able to conceal him, she then took for him an ark of papyrus and coated it with bitumen and pitch and put the child in it and put it among the reeds by the bank of the river Nile. 4 Further, his sister stationed herself at a distance to find out what would be done with him.

Then she brought him to Phar'aoh's daughter, so that he became a son to her; and she proceeded to call his name Moses and to say: "It is because I have drawn him out of the water."

> 11 Now it came about in those days, as Moses was becoming strong, that he went out to his brothers that he might look at the burdens they were bearing; and he caught sight of a certain Egyptian striking a certain Hebrew of his brothers. 12 So he turned this way and that and saw there was nobody in sight. Then he struck the Egyptian down and hid him in the sand.

So he said to the one in the wrong: "Why should you strike your companion?" 14 At this he said: "Who appointed you as a prince and judge over us? Are you intending to kill me just as you killed the Egyptian?" Moses now got afraid and said: "Surely the thing has become known!"

We want to | go, please, a journey of three days the sons of Israel went in and into the wilderness and sacrifice to began to cry out to Phar'aoh. Jehovah our God; otherwise he may strike at us with pestilence or with sword." 4 At this the king of Egypt said to them: "Why is it, Moses and Aaron, that you cause the people to leave off from their works? Go bearing your burdens!" 5 And Phar'aoh continued: "Look! The people of the land are now many, and you indeed make them desist from their bearing of burdens."

6 Immediately on that day Phar'aoh commanded those who drove the people to work and their officers, saying: 7 "You must not gather straw to give to the people to make bricks as formerly. Let them themselves go and gather straw for themselves. 8 Moreover, the required amount of bricks that they were making formerly, you will further impose upon them. You must not make any reduction for them, because they are relaxing. That is why they are crying out, saving, 'We want to go, we want to sacrifice to our God!' 9 Let the service be heavy upon the men and let them work at it, and let them not pay attention to false words."

10 So those who drove the people to work and their officers went out and said to the people: "Here is what Phar'aoh has said, 'I am giving you no more straw. 11 You yourselves go, get straw for yourselves wherever you may find it, because there is to be no reducing of your services one bit." 12 Consequently the people scattered about over all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw. 13 And those who drove them to work kept urging them, saying: "Finish Your works, each one his work, day for day, just as when straw was available." 14 Later on the officers of the sons of Israel, whom Phar'aoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, these saying: "Why is it you did not finish Your prescribed task in making bricks as formerly, both yesterday and today?"

15 Consequently the officers of saying: "Why do you deal this way with your servants? 16 There is no straw given to your servants and yet they are saying to us, 'Make bricks!' and here your servants are beaten, whereas your own people are at fault." 17 But he said: "You are relaxing, you are relaxing! That is why you are saying. 'We want to go, we want to sacrifice to Jehovah.' 18 And now go, serve! Though no straw will be given to you, yet you are to give the fixed amount of bricks."

19 Then the officers of the sons of Israel saw themselves in an evil plight at the saying: "You must not deduct from your bricks one bit of anyone's daily rate." 20 After that they encountered Moses and Aaron, who were standing there to meet them as they came out from Phar'aoh. 21 At once they said to them: "May Jehovah look upon you and judge, since you have made us smell offensive before Phar'aoh and before his servants so as to put a sword in their hand to kill us." 22 Then Moses turned to Jehovah and said: "Jehovah, why have you caused evil to this people? Why is it that you have sent me? 23 For from the time that I went in before Phar'aoh to speak in your name, he has done evil to this people, and you have by no means delivered your people."

6 So Jehovah said to Moses: "Now you will see what I shall do to Phar'aoh, because on account of a strong hand he will send them away and on account of a strong hand he will drive them out of his land."

2 And God went on to speak to Moses and to say to him: "I am Jehovah, 3 And I used to appear to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob as God Almighty, but as respects my name Jehovah I did not make myself known to them. 4 And I also established my covenant with them to give them the land of Ca'naan. the land of their alien residences in which they resided as aliens. 5 And I, even I, have heard the God renews promises of deliverance

It will become a big snake." 10 So Moses and Aaron went on in to Phar'aoh and did exactly as Jehovah had commanded. Accordingly Aaron threw his rod down before Phar'aoh and his servants and it became a big snake. 11 However, Phar'aoh also called for the wise men and the sorcerers; and the magic-practicing priests of Egypt themselves also proceeded to do the same thing with their magic arts. 12 So they threw down each one his rod, and they became big snakes: but Aaron's rod swallowed

8 After that Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron: "Take for yoursight. 9 And it must become a powder upon all the land of Egypt, and it must become boils breaking out with blisters upon man and beast in all the land of Egypt."

10 So they took the soot of a kiln and stood before Phar'aoh, and Moses tossed it toward the heavens, and it became boils with blisters, breaking out on man and beast. 11 And the magic-practicing priests were unable to stand before Moses as a result of the boils, because the boils had developed on the magicone was left. 32 However, Phar'- Phar'aoh's heart become obstinate, and he did not listen to them, | down to the earth, and Jehovah just as Jehovah had stated to kept making it rain down hail upon Moses.

Not a hoof will be allowed to remain, because it is from them that we shall take some to worship Jehovah our God, and we ourselves do not know what we shall render in worship to Jehovah until our arriving there." 27 At this Jehovah let Phar'aoh's heart become obstinate, and he did not consent to send them away. 28 So Phar'aoh said to him: "Get out from me! Watch yourself! Do not try to see my face again, because on the day of your seeing my face you will die." 29 To this Moses said: "That is the way you have spoken. I shall not try to see your face any more."

And after that I shall go out." With that he went out from Phar'aoh in the heat of anger.

9 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Phar'aoh will not listen to you men, in order for my miracles to be increased in the land of Egypt." 10 And Moses and Aaron performed all these miracles before Phar'aoh: but Jehovah would let Phar'aoh's heart become obstinate, so that he did not send the sons of Israel

3 And Moses went on to say to the people: "Let there be a remembering of this day on which you went out of Egypt, from the house of slaves, because by strength of hand Jehovah brought you out from here. So nothing leavened may be eaten. 4 Today you are going out in the month of A'bib. 5 And it must occur that when Jehovah will have brought you into the land of the Ca'naan-ites and the Hit'tites and the Am'or ites and the Hi'vites and the Jeb'usites, which he swore to your forefathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, then you must render this service in this month. 6 Seven days you are to eat unfermented cakes, and on the time of Phar'aoh's sending the seventh day is a festival to Jehovah. 7 Unfermented cakes are to be eaten for the seven days; and Phi·lis'tines just because it was nothing leavened is to be seen with near, for God said: "It might be you, and no sour dough is to be seen with you within all your boundaries. 8 And you must tell turn to Egypt." 18 Hence God your son on that day, saying, 'It is made the people go round about by because of that which Jehovah has the way of the wilderness of the done to me when I came out of Red Sea. Jehovah now spoke to Moses, saving: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, that they should turn back and encamp before Pi-ha-hi'roth between Mig'dol and the sea in view of Ba'al-ze'phon. In front of it you are to encamp by the sea. 3 Then Phar'aoh will certainly say respecting the sons of Israel, "They are wandering in confusion in the land. The wilderness has closed in upon them.' 4 So I shall indeed let Phar'aoh's heart become obstinate, and he will certainly chase after them and I shall get glory for myself by means of Phar'aoh and all his military forces; and the Egyptians will certainly know that I am Jehovah." Accordingly they did just that.

5 Later it was reported to the king of Egypt that the people had run away. Immediately the heart of Phar'aoh as well as his servants was changed regarding the people, so that they said: "What is this that we have done, in that we have sent Israel away from slaving for us?" 6 So he proceeded to make his war chariots ready, and he took his people with him. 7 And he proceeded to take six hundred chosen chariots and all the other chariots of Egypt and warriors upon every one of them. 8 Thus Jehovah let the heart of Phar'aoh the king of Egypt become obstinate, and he went chasing after the sons of Israel, while the sons of Israel were going out with uplifted hand. 9 And the Egyptians went chasing after them, and all the chariot horses of Phar'aoh and his cavalrymen and his military forces were overtaking them while camping by the sea, by Pi·ha·hi'roth in view of Ba'al-ze'phon.

10 When Phar'aoh got close by, the sons of Israel began to raise their eyes and here the Egyptians were marching after them; and the

What is this that you have done to us in leading us out of Egypt? 12 Is this not the word we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, 'Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians'? For it is better for us to serve the Egyptians than for us to die in the wilderness.' 13 Then Moses said to the people: "Do not be afraid. Stand firm and see the salvation of Jehovah, which he will perform for you today. For the Egyptians whom you do see today you will not see again, no, never again. 14 Jehovah will himself fight for you, and you yourselves will be silent."

15 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Why do you keep crying out to me? Speak to the sons of Israel that they should break camp. 16 As for you, lift up your rod and stretch your hand out over the sea and split it apart, that the sons of Israel may go through the midst of the sea on dry land. 17 As for me, here I am letting the hearts of the Egyptians become obstinate, that they may go in after them and that I may get glory for myself by means of Phar'aoh and all his military forces, his war chariots and his cavalrymen. 18 And the Egyptians will certainly know that I am Jehovah when I get glory for 26 Finally Jehovah said to Moses: "Stretch your hand out over the sea, that the waters may come back over the Egyptians, their war chariots and their cavalrymen." 27 Moses at once stretched his hand out over the sea, and the sea began to come back to its normal condition at the approaching of morning. All the while the Egyptians were fleeing from encountering it, but Jehovah shook the Egyptians off into the midst of the sea. 28 And the waters kept coming back. Finally they covered the war chariots and the cavalrymen belonging to all of Phar'aoh's military forces and who had gone into the sea after them. Not so much as one among them was let remain.

29 As for the sons of Israel, they walked on dry land in the midst of the seabed, and the waters were for them a wall on their right hand and on their left. 30 Thus on that day Jehovah saved Israel from the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel got to see the Egyptians dead hand will drive them away! on the seashore. 31 Israel also 10 You blew with your breath, got to see the great hand that Jehovah put in action against the Egyptians; and the people began to

So Jehovah directed him to a tree, and he threw it into the water and the water became sweet.

27 After that they came to E'lim, where there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees. So they went camping there by the water.

16 Later they departed from E'lim, and the entire assembly of the sons of Israel finally came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between E'lim and Si'nai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their coming out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the entire assembly of the sons of Israel began to murmur against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. 3 And the sons of Israel kept saying to them: "If only we 20 And Mir'i am the prophetess, had died by Jehovah's hand in the Aaron's sister, proceeded to take a land of Egypt while we were sitting by the pots of meat, while we were come up and cover the camp, and eating bread to satisfaction, be- in the morning there had developed cause you have brought us out into a layer of dew round about the this wilderness to put this whole congregation to death by famine."

4 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Here I am raining down bread for you from the heavens; and the frost upon the earth. 15 When the people must go out and pick up each his amount day for day, in order that I may put them to the test as to whether they will walk in my law or not. 5 And it must occur on the sixth day that they must prepare what they will bring in, and it must prove double what they keep picking up day by day."

6 So Moses and Aaron said to all the sons of Israel: "At evening you will certainly know that it is Jehovah who has brought you out from the land of Egypt. 7 And in the morning you will indeed see Jehovah's glory, because he has heard YOUR murmurings against Jehovah. And what are we that you should murmur against us?" 8 And Moses continued: "It will be when Jehovah gives you in the evening meat to eat and in the morning bread to satisfaction, because Jehovah has heard your murmurings that you are murmuring against him. And what are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against men would leave some of it until Jehovah."

9 And Moses went on to say to Aaron: "Say to the entire assembly of the sons of Israel, 'Come near before Jehovah, because he has heard your murmurings." 10 Then it occurred that as soon as Aaron had spoken to the entire assembly of the sons of Israel, they turned and faced toward the wilderness, and, look! Jehovah's glory appeared in the cloud.

11 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 12 "I have heard the murmurings of the sons of Israel. Speak to them, saying, 'Between the two evenings you will eat meat and in the morning you will be satisfied with bread; and you will certainly know that I am Jehovah your God.'"

For they did not know what it was. Hence Moses said to them: "It is the bread that Jehovah has given you for food. 16 This is the word that Jehovah has commanded, 'Pick up some of it, each one in proportion to his eating. You are to take an omer measure for each individual according to the number of the souls that each of you has in his tent.'" 17 And the sons of Israel began to do so; and they went picking it up, some gathering much and some gathering little. 18 When they would measure it by the omer, he that had gathered much had no surplus and he that had gathered little had no shortage. They picked it up each one in proportion to his eating.

19 Then Moses said to them: "Let nobody leave any of it until the morning." 20 But they did not listen to Moses. When some the morning, it would breed worms and stink: so that Moses became indignant at them. 21 And they would pick it up morning by morning, each one in proportion to his eating. When the sun got hot, it melted.

22 And it came about on the sixth day that they picked up twice as much bread, two omer measures for one person. So all the chieftains of the assembly came and reported it to Moses. 23 At that he said to them: "It is what Jehovah has spoken. Tomorrow there will be a sabbath observance of a holy sabbath to Jehovah. What you can bake, bake, and what you can boil, boil, and all the surplus that there is save it up for you as something to be kept 13 Accordingly it occurred that until the morning." 24 AccordEXODUS 16: 25-17: 11 Sabbath law, Second water complaint

14 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Write this as a memorial in the book and propound it in Joshua's ears, 'I shall completely wipe out the remembrance of Am'a lek from under the heavens." 15 And Moses proceeded to build an altar and to call its name Je-ho'vah-nis'si. 16 saving: "Because a hand is against the throne of Jah, Jehovah will have war with Am'a-lek from generation to generation."

18 Now Jeth'ro the priest of Mid'i an, Moses' father-inlaw, got to hear about all that God had done for Moses and for Israel his people, how Jehovah had brought Israel out of Egypt. 2 So Jeth'ro. Moses' father-in-law, took Zip po'rah, Moses' wife, after the sending of her away, 3 and her two sons, the name of one of whom was Ger'shom, "because," he said, "an alien resident I have come to be in a foreign land": 4 and the name of the other was E·li·e'zer, "because," to quote him, "the God of my father is my helper in that he delivered me from Phar'aoh's sword."

5 So Jeth'ro. Moses' father-inlaw, and his sons and his wife came to Moses into the wilderness where he was camping, at the mountain of the [true] God. 6 Then he sent word to Moses: "I, your father-in-law, Jeth'ro, am come to you, and also your wife and her two sons with her." 7 At once Moses went on out to meet his father-in-law, and he proceeded to prostrate himself and to kiss him; and they each one began asking how the other was getting along. you. Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God: and Aaron and all the older men of Israel came to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law, before the [true] God.

13 And it came about on the next day that Moses sat down as usual to serve as judge for the people, and the people kept standing before Moses from the morning till the evening. 14 And Moses' father-in-law got to see all that he was doing for the people. So he said: "What kind of business is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you alone continue sitting and all the people continue taking their stand before you from morning till evening?" 15 Then Moses said to his father-in-law: "Because the people keep coming to me to inquire of God. 16 In the event that they have a case arise, it must come to me and I must judge between the one party and the other, and I must make known the decisions of the [true] God and his laws."

19 In the third month after the sons of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, on the same day, they came into the wilderness of Si'nai. 2 And they proceeded to pull away from Reph'i-dim and to come into the wilderness of Si'nai and to encamp in the wilderness; and Israel went camping there in front of the mountain.

7 So Moses came and called the older men of the people and set before them all these words that Jehovah had commanded him. 8 After that all the people answered unanimously and said: "All that Jehovah has spoken we are willing to do." Immediately Moses took back the words of the people to Jehovah. 9 At this Jehovah said to Moses: "Look! I am coming to you in a dark cloud, in order that the people may hear when I speak with you, and that in you also they may put faith to time indefinite." Then Moses reported the words of the people to Jehovah.

10 And Jehovah went on to say to Moses: "Go to the people, and you must sanctify them today and tomorrow, and they must wash their mantles. 11 And they must prove ready for the third day, because on the third day Jehovah will come down before the eyes of all the people upon Mount Si'nai. 12 And you must set bounds for the people round about, saying, 'Guard yourselves against going up into the mountain, and do not touch the edge of it. 16 And on the third day when it became morning it came about that thunders and lightnings began occurring, and a heavy cloud upon the mountain and a very loud sound of a horn, so that all the people who were in the camp began to tremble, 17 Moses now brought the people out of the camp to meet the [true] God, and they went taking their stand at the base of the mountain. 18 And Mount Si'-nai smoked all over, due to the fact that Jehovah came down upon it in fire; and its smoke kept ascending like the smoke of a kiln. and the whole mountain was trembling very much. 19 When the sound of the horn became continually louder and louder, Moses began to speak, and the [true] God began to answer him with a voice.

20 So Jehovah came down upon Mount Si'nai to the top of the mountain. Then Jehovah called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went on up. 21 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Go down. warn the people, that they do not try to break through to Jehovah to take a look and many of them have to fall. 22 And let the priests also who regularly come near to Jehovah sanctify themselves, that Jehovah may not break out upon them." 23 At this Moses said to Jehovah: "The people are not able to come up to Mount Si'nai, because you yourself already warned us, saying, 'Set bounds for the mountain and make it sacred.' 24 However, Jehovah said to him: "Go, descend, and you must come up, you and Aaron with you; but let not the mother in order that your days priests and the people break through to come up to Jehovah, that he that Jehovah your God is giving you. may not break out upon them." | 13 "You must not murder.

17 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 18 "You must make a basin of copper and its stand of copper for washing, and you must put it between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water into it. 19 And Aaron and his sons must wash their hands and their feet at it. 20 When they go into the tent of meeting they will wash with water that they may not die, or when they go near the altar to minister in order to make an offering made by fire smoke to Jehovah. 21 And they must wash their hands and their feet that they may not die, and it must serve as a regulation to time indefinite for them, for him and his offspring throughout their generations."

22 And Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 23 "As for you, take to yourself the choicest perfumes: myrrh in congealed drops five hundred units, and sweet cinnamon in half that amount, two hundred and fifty units, and sweet calamus two hundred and fifty units, 24 and cassia five hundred units by the shekel of the holy place, and olive oil a hin. 25 Then you must make

It is to continue as something holy for you. 33 Anyone who makes an ointment like it and who puts some of it upon a stranger must be cut off from his people."

34 And Jehovah went on to say to Moses: "Take to yourself perfumes: stacte drops and onycha and perfumed galbanum and pure frankincense. There should be the same portion of each. 35 And you must make it into an incense, a spice mixture, the work of an ointment maker, salted, pure, some-thing holy. 36 And you must pound some of it into fine powder and put some of it before the Testimony in the tent of meeting, where I shall present myself to you. It should be most holy to you people. 37 And the incense that you will make with this composition, you must not make for yourselves. For you it is to continue as something holy to Jehovah. 38 Whoever makes any like it to enjoy its smell must be cut off from his people."

31 And Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 2 "See, I do call by name Bez'al el out of it a holy anointing oil, an the son of U'ri the son of Hur of the tribe of Judah. 3 And I shall to time indefinite, because in six fill him with the spirit of God in days Jehovah made the heavens wisdom and in understanding and and the earth and on the seventh in knowledge and in every kind of craftsmanship, 4 for designing devices, for working in gold and silver and copper, 5 and in working of stones to set them and in working of wood to make products of every kind. 6 As for me, look! I do put with him O.ho'li.ab the son of A.his'a.mach of the tribe of Dan, and in the heart of everyone wise of heart I do put wisdom, that they may indeed make everything I have commanded you: 7 the tent of meeting and the Ark for the testimony and the cover that is upon it, and all the utensils of the tent. 8 and the table and its utensils, and the lampstand of pure gold and all its utensils, and the altar of incense, 9 and the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the basin and its stand, 10 and the garments of knitted work and the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons for acting as priests; 11 and the anointing oil and the perfumed incense for the sanctuary. According to everything I have commanded you they will do."

12 And Jehovah said further to Moses: 13 "As for you, speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'Especially my sabbaths you are to keep, for it is a sign between me and you during your generations that you may know that I Jehovah am sanctifying you. 14 And you must keep the sabbath, for it is something holy to you. It is something holy to Jehovah. Anyone doing work on the sabbath day will positively be Israel must keep the sabbath, so as to carry out the sabbath during their generations. It is a covenant day he rested and proceeded to refresh himself."

18 Now as soon as he had finished speaking with him on Mount Si'nai he proceeded to give Moses two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone written on by God's finger.

29 Meanwhile the people got to see that Moses was taking a long time about coming down from the mountain. So the people congregated themselves about Aaron and said to him: "Get up, make for us a god who will go ahead of us, because as regards this Moses, the man who led us up out of the land of Egypt, we certainly do not know what has happened to him." 2 At this Aaron said to them: "Tear off the gold earrings that are in the ears of your wives, of your sons and of your daughters and bring them to me." 3 And all the people began tearing off the gold earrings that were in their ears and bringing them to Aaron. 4 Then he took the gold from their hands, and he formed it with a graving tool and proceeded to make it into a molten statue of a calf. And they began to say: "This is your God, O Israel, who led you up out of the land of Egypt."

5 When Aaron got to see this, he went to building an altar before it. Finally Aaron called out and said: "There is a festival to Jehovah tomorrow." 6 So on the next day they were early in rising, and they began offering up burnt offerings and presenting communion sacrifices. After that the people sat down to eat and drink. Then they got up to have a good time.

7 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Go, descend, because your people whom you led up out of the land of Egypt have acted ruinously. 8 They have turned aside in a put to death. 16 And the sons of hurry from the way I have commanded them to go. They have made a molten statue of a calf for themselves and keep bowing down to time indefinite. 17 Between me to it and sacrificing to it and sayand the sons of Israel it is a sign ing. "This is your God, O Israel, who led you up out of the land of ! Egypt." 9 And Jehovah went on as he got near the camp and could to say to Moses: "I have looked at this people and here it is a stiffnecked people. 10 So now let me be, that my anger may blaze against them and I may exterminate them. and let me make you into a great nation."

11 And Moses proceeded to soften the face of Jehovah his God and to say: "Why, O Jehovah, should your anger blaze against your people whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a strong hand? 12 Why should the Egyptians sav. 'With evil intent he brought them out in order to kill them among the mountains and to exterminate them from the surface of the ground'? Turn from your burning anger and feel regret over the evil against your people. 13 Remember Abraham, Isaac and Israel your servants, to whom you swore by yourself, in that you said to them, 'I shall multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens, and all this land that I have designated I shall give to your seed, that they may indeed take possession of it to time indefinite."

14 And Jehovah began to feel regret over the evil that he had spoken of doing to his people.

15 After that Moses turned and went down from the mountain with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hand, tablets written upon on both their sides. On this side and on that they were written upon. 16 And the tablets were the workmanship of God, and the writing was the writing of God engraved upon the tablets. 17 And Joshua began to hear the noise of the people because of their shouting, and he proceeded to say to Moses: "There is a noise of battle in the camp." 18 But he said:

"It is not the sound of the singing over mighty performance. And it is not the sound of the singing of defeat;

that I am hearing."

19 So it came about that as soon see the calf and the dances, Moses' anger began to blaze, and he at once threw the tablets from his hands and shattered them at the foot of the mountain. 20 Then he took the calf that they had made and he burnt it with fire and crushed it till it was fine, after which he scattered it upon the surface of the waters and made the sons of Israel drink it. 21 After that Moses said to Aaron: "What did this people do to you that you have brought a great sin upon it?" 22 To this Aaron said: "Do not let the anger of my lord blaze. You yourself well know the people, that they are evil-inclined. 23 So they said to me, 'Make for us a god who will go ahead of us, because as regards this Moses, the man who led us up out of the land of Egypt, we certainly do not know what has happened to him.' 24 Hence I said to them, 'Who have any gold? They must tear it off themselves that they may give it to me.' And I proceeded to throw it into the fire and this calf came on out."

25 And Moses got to see that the people went unrestrained, because Aaron had let them go unrestrained for a disgrace among their opposers. 26 Then Moses took his stand in the gate of the camp and said: "Who is on Jehovah's side? To me!" And all the sons of Le'vi began gathering themselves to him. 27 He now said to them: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'Put each one of you his sword on his side. Pass through and return from gate to gate in the camp and kill each one his brother and each one his fellow and each one his intimate acquaintance." 28 And the sons of Le'vi proceeded to do as Moses had said, so that there fell of the people on that day about three thousand men. 29 And Moses went on to say: "Fill your hand today with power for Jehovah, because each one of you is against his own son and his own It is the sound of other singing brother, and that he may confer a blessing upon you today."

30 And it came about on the off themselves from Mount Ho'reb very next day that Moses proceeded onward. to say to the people: "You-you have sinned with a great sin, and now I shall go up to Jehovah. Perhaps I can make amends for your sin." 31 So Moses returned to Jehovah and said: "Ah, but this peothat they made a god of gold for will pardon their sin,-and if not, wipe me out, please, from your book that you have written." 33 However, Jehovah said to Moses: "Whoever has sinned against me, I shall wipe him out of my book. 34 And now, come, lead the people to where I have spoken to you of. Look! My angel will go ahead of you, and on the day of my bringing punishment I shall certainly bring punishment upon them for their sin." 35 And Jehovah began plaguing the people because they had made the calf, which Aaron had made.

33 And Jehovah said further to Moses: "Go, move up from here, you and the people whom you led up out of the land of Egypt, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, saying, "To your seed I shall give it." 2 And I will send an angel ahead of you and drive out the Ca'naan ites, the Am'or-ites, and the Hit'tites and the Per'iz zites, the Hi'vites and the Jeb'u sites; 3 to a land flowing with milk and honey, for I you on the way."

And it occurred that everyone inquiring of Jehovah would ple has sinned with a great sin, in go out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp. themselves! 32 But now if you 8 And it occurred that as soon as Moses went out to the tent, all the people would rise, and they stationed themselves each one at the entrance of his own tent, and they gazed after Moses until he went into the tent. 9 It also occurred that as soon as Moses had gone into the tent, the pillar of cloud would come down, and it stood at the entrance of the tent and he spoke with Moses. 10 And all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, and all the people rose and bowed down each one at the entrance of his own tent. 11 And Jehovah spoke to Moses face to face, just as a man would speak to his fellow. When he returned to the camp, his minister Joshua, the son the land about which I swore to of Nun, as attendant, would not withdraw from the midst of the tent, of remedian avoidable briefs M

12 Now Moses said to Jehovah: "See, you are saving to me, 'Lead this people up,' but you yourself have not let me know whom you will send with me. Moreover, you vourself have said, 'I do know you shall not go up in the midst of by name and, besides, you have you, because you are a stiff-necked found favor in my eyes.' 13 And people, that I may not exterminate now, if, please, I have found favor in your eyes, make me know, please, 4 When the people got to hear your ways, that I may know you, this evil word, they began to in order that I may find favor in mourn; and none of them put his your eyes. > 31 And Moses proceeded to call them. So Aaron and all the chieftains among the assembly came back to him, and Moses began to speak to them. 32 First after that all the sons of Israel came near to him, and he began commanding them all that Jehovah had spoken with him on Mount Si'nai. 33 When Moses would finish speaking with them, he would put a veil over his face. 34 But when Moses would go in before Jehovah to speak with him, he would take away the veil until his going out. And he went out and spoke to the sons of Israel what he would be commanded. 35 And the sons of Israel saw Moses' face, that the skin of Moses' face emitted rays: and Moses put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with him.

Later Moses called the entire assembly of the sons of Israel together and said to them: "These are the words that Jehovah has commanded, to do them: 2 Six fruits of your soil you are to bring days may work be done, but on the to the house of Jehovah your God. seventh day it will become some-

2 And Moses proceeded to call Bez'al·el and O·ho'li·ab and every wise-hearted man into whose heart Jehovah had put wisdom, everyone whose heart impelled him to approach the work in order to do it. 3 Then they took from before Moses all the contribution that the sons of Israel had brought for the work of the holy service so as to do it, and, as for the latter, they still brought to him a voluntary offering morning after morning.

4 And all the wise ones who were doing all the holy work began to come, one man after another, from their work that they were doing, 5 and to say to Moses: "The people are bringing much more than what the service needs for the work that Jehovah has commanded to be done." 6 So Moses commanded that they should cause an announcement to pass through the camp, saying: "Men and women, do not produce any more stuff for the holy contribution." There was one measure for all the tent cloths, 10 Then he joined five tent cloths one to another, and the five other tent cloths he joined one to another. 11 After that he made loops of blue thread upon the edge of the one tent cloth at the junction end. He did the same on the edge of the outermost tent cloth at the other place of junction. 12 He made fifty loops on the one tent cloth, and he made fifty loops on the extremity of the tent cloth that was at the other place of junction, the loops being opposite one another. 13 Finally he made fifty hooks of gold and joined the tent cloths to one another by the hooks, so that it became one tabernacle.

14 And he went on to make tent cloths of goat's hair for the tent upon the tabernacle. Eleven tent cloths were what he made. 15 The length of each tent cloth was thirty cubits, and the width of each tent cloth four cubits. There was one measure for the eleven tent cloths. 16 Then he joined five tent cloths together by themselves and the six other tent cloths by themselves. 17 Next he made fifty loops upon the edge of the outermost tent cloth at the place of junction, and he made fifty loops upon the edge of the other tent cloth that joined with it. 18 After that he made fifty hooks of copper for joining the tent together to become one piece.

19 And he proceeded to make a covering for the tent out of ram skins dved red and a covering out of sealskins up on top.

20 Then he made the panel frames for the tabernacle out of work to be done, and more than acacia wood, standing on end. 21 Ten cubits was the length of a panel frame, and one cubit and a dyed reddish purple and coccus half the width of each panel scarlet material and fine twisted frame. 22 Each panel frame had linen. 17 Then he made the lampstand of pure gold. Of hammered work he made the lampstand. Its sides and its branches, its cups, its knobs and its blossoms proceeded out of it. 18 And six branches were running out from its sides, three branches of the lampstand out from its one side and three branches of the lampstand out from its other side, 19 Three cups shaped like flowers of almond were on the one set of branches. with knobs and blossoms alternating; and three cups shaped like flowers of almond were on the other set of branches, with knobs and blossoms alternating. That is the way it was for the six branches running out from the lampstand. 20 And on the lampstand there were four cups shaped like flowers of almond, with its knobs and its blossoms alternating. 21 And the knob under two branches was out of it, and the knob under two other branches was out of it, and the knob under two more branches was out of it, for the six branches running out from the lampstand. 22 Their knobs and their branches proceeded out from it. All of it was one piece of hammered work of pure gold. 23 Then he made its seven lamps and its snuffers and its fire holders out of pure gold. 24 Of a talent of pure gold he twisted linen, for a hundred cubits. made it and all its utensils.

25 He now made the altar of incense out of acacia wood. A cubit was its length and a cubit its width. it being foursquare, and two cubits was its height. Its horns proceeded out of it. 26 Then he overlaid it with pure gold, its top surface and its sides round about and its horns. and he made a border of gold round about for it. 27 And he made for it two rings of gold down below its border upon two of its sides, upon two opposite sides of it, as supports for the poles with which to carry it. 28 After that he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold. 29 He made additionally the holy anointing oil and the pure, perfumed incense, the work of an ointment maker. 38 And he went on to make the altar of burnt offering out of acacia wood. Five cubits was its length, and five cubits its width, it being foursquare, and three cubits was its height. 2 Then he made its horns upon its four corners. Its horns proceeded out of it. Next he overlaid it with copper. 3 After that he made all the utensils of the altar, the cans and the shovels and the bowls, the forks and the fire holders. All its utensils he made of copper. 4 He further made for the altar a grating, a network of copper, under its rim, down toward its center. 5 Then he cast four rings on the four extremities near the grating of copper, as supports for the poles. 6 After that he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with copper. 7 Then he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar for carrying it with them. He made it a hollow chest of planks.

8 Then he made the basin of copper and its stand of copper, by the use of the mirrors of the women servants who did organized service at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

Their pillars were ten and their socket pedestals ten. The pegs of the pillars and their joints were of silver. 13 And for the east side toward the sunrising there were fifty cubits. 14 The hangings were for fifteen cubits to the one wing. Their pillars were three and their socket pedestals three. 15 And for the other wing, on this as well as that side, of the gate of the courtyard, the hangings were for fifteen cubits. Their pillars were three and their socket pedestals three. 16 All the hangings of the courtvard round about were of fine twisted linen. 17 And the socket pedestals for the pillars were of copper. The pegs of the pillars and their joints were of silver and the overlaying of their tops was of silver, and there were silver joinings for all the pillars of the courtvard.

18 And the screen of the gate of the courtvard was the work of a weaver, of blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple and coccus scarlet material and fine twisted linen, and twenty cubits was the length, and the height throughout its extent was five cubits equally with the hangings of the courtvard. 19 And their four pillars and their four socket pedestals were of copper. Their pegs were of silver and the overlaying of their heads and their joints were of silver. 20 And all the tent pins for the tabernacle and for the courtyard round about were of copper.

27 And a hundred talents of silver went into the casting of the socket pedestals of the holy place and the socket pedestals of the curtain. A hundred socket pedestals equaled a hundred talents, a talent to a socket pedestal. 28 And out of the thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels he made pegs for the pillars and overlaid their tops and joined them together.

29 And the copper of the wave offering was seventy talents and two thousand four hundred shekels. 30 And with this he proceeded to make the socket pedestals of the entrance of the tent of meeting and the copper altar and the copper grating that belonged to it, and all the utensils of the altar, 31 and pedestals of the gate of the courtyard, and all the tent pins of the

They made the breastpiece, when doubled, a span of the hand in its length and a span in its width. 10 Then they filled it with four rows of stones. 22 Then he made the sleeveless coat of the eph'od, the workmanship of a loom worker, all of blue thread. 23 And the opening of the sleeveless coat was in the middle of it, like the opening of a coat of mail. Its opening had a border round about that it might not be torn. 24 Then they made upon the hem of the sleeveless coat pomegranates of blue thread and wool dyed reddish purple and cocwas the first row. 11 And the cus scarlet material, twisted together. 25 Further, they made bells of pure gold and put the bells was lesh'em stone, agate and ame- in between the pomegranates upon thyst. 13 And the fourth row was the hem of the sleeveless coat chrys'o-lite and onyx and jade. round about, in between the pome-They were set with settings of gold granates; 26 a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate | yard, its tent cords and its tent upon the hem of the sleeveless coat pins and all the utensils for the round about, for ministering, just service of the tabernacle, for the as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

30 Finally they made the shining plate, the holy sign of dedication, out of pure gold and inscribed upon it an inscription with the engravings of a seal: "Holiness belongs to Jehovah." 31 Then they put a string of blue thread to it in order to put it upon the turban up above, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

32 So the work for the tabernacle of the tent of meeting all came to its completion, in that the sons of Israel kept doing according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses. They did just so.

33 And they proceeded to bring the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its utensils, its hooks, its panel frames, its bars and its pillars and its socket pedestals. 34 and its covering of ram skins dyed red and its covering of sealskins and the curtain of the screen. 35 and the ark of the testimony and its poles and the cover. 36 the table, all its utensils and the showbread, 37 the lampstand of pure gold, its lamps, the row of lamps, and all its utensils and the oil of illumination, 38 and the altar of must sanctify it and all its utengold and the anointing oil and the perfumed incense and the screen for the entrance of the tent. 39 the altar of copper and the and all its utensils and sanctify grating of copper that belonged to it, its poles and all its utensils, the most holy altar. 11 And you must basin and its stand, 40 the hangings of the courtyard, its pillars sanctify it. and its socket pedestals and the 42 According to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, that was the way the sons of Israel did all the service. 43 And Moses got to see all the work, and, look! they had done it just as Jehovah had commanded. That was the way they had done. Consequently Moses blessed them.

40 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 2 "On the day of the first month, on the first of the month, you are to set up the tabernacle of the tent of meeting. 3 And you must place the ark of the testimony in it and shut off approach to the Ark with the curtain. 4 And you must bring the table in and set its arrangement in order, and you must bring in the lampstand and light up its lamps. 5 And you must put the golden altar for incense before the ark of the testimony and put the screen of the entrance for the tabernacle in place.

25 Then he took the fat and the fat tail and all the fat that was upon the intestines, and the anpendage of the liver and the two kidneys and their fat and the right leg. 26 And out of the basket of unfermented cakes that was before Jehovah he took one unfermented shaped cake of oiled bread and one wafer. 22 Then Aaron raised his hands toward the people and blessed them and came down from rendering the sin offering and the burnt offering and the communion sacrifices. 23 Finally Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting and came out and blessed the people.

Then Jehovah's glory appeared to all the people, 24 and fire came out from before Jehovah and began consuming the burnt offering and the fatty pieces upon the altar. When all the people got to see it, they broke out into shouting and went falling upon their faces.

Later on Aaron's sons Na'dab and A.bi'hu took up and brought each one his fire holder and put fire in them and placed incense upon it, and they began offering before Jehovah illegitimate fire, which he had not prescribed for them. 2 At this a fire came out from before Jehovah and consumed them, so that they died before Jehovah. 3 Then Moses said to Aaron: "This is what Jehovah has spoken, saying, 'Among those near to me let me be sanctified. and before the face of all the people let me be glorified." And Aaron kept silent.

4 So Moses called Mish'a el and El-za'phan, the sons of Uz'zi-el, Aaron's uncle, and said to them: "Come near, carry your brothers from in front of the holy place to outside the camp." 5 They accordingly came near and carried them in their robes to outside the camp, just as Moses had spoken.

6 Subsequently Moses said to Aaron and to E-le-a'zar and Ith'amar his [other] sons: "Do not let your heads go ungroomed, and you must not tear your garments, that you may not die and that he may not become indignant against all ly for the goat of the sin offering, the assembly; but your brothers of and, look! it had been burned up.

It is a statute to time indefinite for your generations. 10 both in order to make a distinction between the holy thing and the profane and between the unclean thing and the clean, 11 and in order to teach the sons of Israel all the regulations that Jehovah has spoken to them by means of Moses."

12 Then Moses spoke to Aaron and to E·le·a'zar and Ith'a·mar. his sons that were left: "Take the grain offering that was left over from Jehovah's offerings made by fire and eat it unfermented near the altar, because it is something most holy. 13 And you must eat it in a holy place, because it is your allowance and the allowance of your sons from Jehovah's offerings made by fire; for so I have been commanded, 14 And you will eat the breast of the wave offering and the leg of the sacred portion in a clean place, you and your sons and your daughters with you, because they have been given as your allowance and the allowance of your sons from the communion sacrifices of the sons of Israel. 15 They will bring the leg of the sacred portion and the breast of the wave offering along with the offerings made by fire, of the fatty pieces, in order to wave the wave offering to and fro before Jehovah: and it must serve as an allowance to time indefinite for you and your sons with you, just as Jehovah has commanded."

16 And Moses searched thorough-

Its blood has not been brought into the holy place within. You should have eaten it without fail in the holy place, just as I had been commanded." 19 At this Aaron spoke to Moses: "Look! Today they have presented their sin offering and their burnt offering before Jehovah. while such things as these began to befall me; and had I eaten the sin offering today, would it prove satisfactory in Jehovah's eyes?" 20 When Moses got to hear that, then it proved satisfactory in his eyes.

11 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses and Aaron, saying to them: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'This is the living creature that you may eat of all the beasts that are upon the earth: 3 Every creature that splits the hoof and forms a cleft in the hoofs and chews the cud among the beasts, that is what you may eat.

And Jehovah spoke further to Moses in Mount Si'nai, saving: 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you must say to them. That is the way they encamped in their [threetribel divisions, and that is the way they set out, each one in his families with regard to the house of his fathers.

3 Now these were the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day that Jehovah spoke with Moses in Mount Si'nai. 2 And these were the names of Aaron's sons: the first-born Na'dab and A·bi'hu, E·lea'zar and Ith'a mar. 3 These were the names of Aaron's sons, the anointed priests whose hands had been filled with power to act as priests. 4 However, Na'dab and A.bi'hu died before Jehovah when they offered illegitimate fire before Jehovah in the wilderness of Si'nai: and they did not come to have any sons. But E-le-a'zar and Ith'a-mar continued to act as priests along with Aaron their father.

5 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses, saying: 6 "Bring the tribe of Le'vi near, and you Levites according to the house of must stand them before Aaron the priest, and they must minister to him. 7 And they must keep their obligation to him and their obligation to all the assembly before the tent of meeting in discharging the service of the tabernacle. 8 And they must take care of all the utensils of the tent of meeting, even the obligation of the sons of Israel in discharging the service of the tabernacle. 9 And you must give They were encamped to the west. the Levites to Aaron and his sons. 24 And the chieftain of the pater-They are given ones, given to him | nal house for the Ger'shon-ites was

14 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses in the wilderness of Si'nai. saying: 15 "Register the sons of Le'vi according to the house of their fathers by their families. Every male from a month old upward you should register." 16 And Moses began to register them at the order of Jehovah, just as he had been commanded. 17 And these came to be the sons of Le'vi by their names: Ger'shon and Ko'hath and Me·rar'i.

18 Now these were the names of the sons of Ger'shon by their families: Lib'ni and Shim'e.i.

19 And the sons of Ko'hath by their families were Am'ram and Iz'har, He'bron and Uz'zi el.

20 And the sons of Me rar'i by their families were Mah'li and Mu'shi.

These were the families of the

These were the families of the Ko'hathites. 28 Among the number of all the males from a month old upward there were eight thousand six hundred, taking care of the obligation to the holy place. 29 The families of the sons of Ko'hath were encamped on the side of the tabernacle to the south. 30 And the chieftain of the paternal house for the families of the Ko'hath-ites was E·li·za'phan the son of Uz'ziel. 31 And their obligation was the Ark and the table and the lampstand and the altars and the utensils of the holy place with which they would minister and the screen, and all its service.

32 And the chieftain of the chieftains of the Levites was E-le-a'zar the son of Aaron the priest, who had the oversight of those taking care of the obligation to the holy 39 All the registered ones of the Levites whom Moses and Aaron registered at the order of Jehovah by their families, all the males from a month old upward, were twenty-two thousand.

40 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Register all the first-born males of the sons of Israel from a month old upward, and take the number of their names. 41 And you must take the Levites for me-I am Jehovah-in place of all the first-born among the sons of Israel, and the domestic animals of the Levites in place of all the first-born among the domestic animals of the sons of Israel," 42 And Moses pro-ceeded, just as Jehovah had commanded him, to register all the first-born among the sons of Israel. 43 And all the first-born males by the number of the names from a month old upward of their registered ones came to be twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventythree.

44 And Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 45 "Take the Levites in place of all the firstborn among the sons of Israel, and the domestic animals of the Levites in place of their domestic animals; and the Levites must become mine. hundred. 35 And the chieftain of I am Jehovah. 46 And as the the paternal house for the families ransom price of the two hundred of Me rar'i was Zu'ri el the son of and seventy-three from the firstborn of the sons of Israel, who are in excess of the Levites, 47 you the north. 36 And the oversight must take five shekels for each for which the sons of Me-rar'i were individual. Jehovah now spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: 2 "There will be a taking of the sum of the sons of Ko'hath from among the sons of Le'vi, according to their families in the house of their fathers, 3 from thirty years old upward to fifty years old, all those going into the service group to do the work in the tent of meeting.

4 "This is the service of the sons of Ko'hath in the tent of meeting. It is something most holy: 5 And Aaron and his sons must come in when the camp is departing, and they must take down the screening curtain and must cover the ark of the testimony with it. 6 And they must put a covering of sealskins over it and spread out an entire cloth of blue on top and put in its poles, sould made and

These things are the load of the sons of Ko'hath in the tent of meeting.

17 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses and Aaron, saying: 18 "Do not let the tribe of the families of the Ko'hath ites be cut off from among the Levites. 19 But do this for them that they may indeed keep alive and may not die for their approaching the most holy things. Aaron and his sons will come in. and they must assign them each one to his service and to his load. 20 And they must not come in to see the holy things for the least moment of time, and so they have to die."

You should send them outside the camp, that they may not contaminate the camps of those in the midst of whom I am tabernacling." 4 And the sons of Israel proceeded to do so, even to send them outside the camp. Just as Jehovah had spoken to Moses, so the sons of Israel did.

5 And Jehovah continued speaking to Moses, saying: 6 "Speak to the sons of Israel, 'As for a man or a woman, in case they do any of all the sins of mankind in committing an act of unfaithfulness against Jehovah, that soul has also become guilty. 7 And they must confess their sin that they have done, and he must return the amount of his guilt in its principal. also adding a fifth of it to it, and he must give it to the one against whom he did wrong. 8 But if the latter has no near relative to whom to return the amount of the guilt. the amount of the guilt that is being returned to Jehovah belongs to the priest, except the ram of atonement with which he will make atonement for him.

7 Now it came about on the day that Moses finished setting up the tabernacle that he proceeded to anoint it and to sanctify it and all its furnishings and the altar and all its utensils. Thus he anointed them and sanctified them. 2 Then the chieftains of Israel, the heads of the house of their fathers, made a presentation, they being the chieftains of the tribes and standing over the ones registered, 3 and they brought their offering before Jehovah, six covered wagons and twelve cattle, a wagon for two chieftains and a bull for each one; and they presented them before the tabernacle, 4 At this Jehovah said to Moses: 5 "Accept them from them, as they must serve for carrying on the service of the tent of meeting, and you must give them to the Levites, each one in proportion to his own service."

6 So Moses accepted the wagons and the cattle and gave them to the Levites. 7 Two wagons and four cattle he gave to the sons of Ger'shon in proportion to their service. 8 and four wagons and eight cattle he gave to the sons of Me rar'i in proportion to their service, under the hand of Ith'amar the son of Aaron the priest. 9 But to the sons of Ko'hath he gave none, because the service of the holy place was upon them. 15 Now on the day of setting up the tabernacle the cloud covered the tabernacle of the tent of the Testimony, but in the evening what appeared to be fire continued over the tabernacle until morning. 16 That is the way it went on constantly: The cloud would cover it by day, and the appearance of fire by night, 17 And whenever the cloud would go up from over the tent, the sons of Israel would pull away right afterward, and in the place where the cloud would reside. there is where the sons of Israel would encamp. 18 At the order of Jehovah the sons of Israel would pull away, and at the order of Jehovah they would encamp. All the days that the cloud would reside over the tabernacle, they would remain encamped. 19 And when the cloud prolonged its stay over the tabernacle many days, the sons of Israel also kept their obligation to Jehovah that they should not pull away. 20 And sometimes the cloud would continue a few days over the tabernacle. At the order of Jehovah they would remain encamped, and at the order of Jehovah they would pull away. 21 And sometimes the cloud would continue from evening to morning; and the cloud lifted itself in the morning, and they pulled away. 29 Then Moses said to Ho'bab the son of Reu'el the Mid'i an ite, the father-in-law of Moses: "We are pulling away for the place about which Jehovah said, 'I shall give it to you.' Do come with us, and we cause Jehovah has spoken good concerning Israel 30 But he said to him: "I shall not go along, but I shall go to my own country and to my relatives." 31 At this he said: "Please, do not leave us, because, for the reason that you well know where we may encamp occur that in case you should come with us, yes, it must occur that with what goodness Jehovah will do good with us, we, in turn, will do good to you."

33 So they went marching from the mountain of Jehovah for a journey of three days, and the ark of Jehovah's covenant was ney of three days to search out a resting place for them. 34 And Jehovah's cloud was over them by day at their marching out from the

35 And it would occur that when the Ark would set out. Moses would say: "Do arise, O Jehovah, and let your enemies be scattered; and let those who intensely hate you flee from before you." 36 And when it would rest, he would say: "Do return, O Jehovah, to the myriads of thousands of Israel."

Our eyes are on nothing at all except the manna."

7 Incidentally, the manna was like coriander seed, and its look was like the look of bdellium gum. 8 The people spread out and picked it up and ground it in hand mills or pounded it in a mortar, and they boiled it in cooking pots or made it into round cakes, and its taste proved to be like the taste of an oiled sweet cake. 9 And when the dew descended upon the camp by night, the manna would descend upon it.

10 And Moses got to hear the people weeping in their families, each man at the entrance of his tent. And Jehovah's anger began growing very hot, and in the eyes of Moses it was bad. 11 Then Moses said to Jehovah: "Why have you caused evil to your servant, and why have I not found favor in your eyes, in placing the load of all this people upon me? 12 Have I myself conceived all this people? Is it I who have given them birth, so that you should say to me. 'Carry them in your bosom, just as the male nurse carries the suckling,' to the soil about which you swore to their forefathers? 13 From where do I have meat to give to all this people? And Jehovah will certainly give you meat, and you will indeed eat. 19 You will eat, not one day nor two days nor five days nor ten days nor twenty days, 20 but up to a month of days, until it comes out of your nostrils and it has become a loathing to you, just because you rejected Jehovah, who is in your midst, and you went weeping before him, saying: "Why is it that we have come out of Egypt?"'"

21 Then Moses said: "The people in the midst of whom I am are six hundred thousand men on foot. and yet you-you have said, 'Meat I shall give them, and they will certainly eat for a month of days'! 22 Will flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, for it to be adequate for them? Or will all the fish of the sea be caught for them, for it to be adequate for them?"

23 At this Jehovah said to Moses: "The hand of Jehovah is cut short, is it? Now you will see whether what I say befalls you or not."

And the spirit began to settle down upon them, as they were among those written down, but they had not gone out to the tent. So they proceeded to act as prophets in the camp. 27 And a young man went running and reporting to Moses and saving: "El'dad and Me'dad are acting as prophets in the camp!" 28 Then Joshua the son of Nun. the minister of Moses from his the tent and called Aaron and young manhood on, responded and Mir'i-am. Is it not by us also that he has spoken?" And Jehovah was listening. 3 And the man Moses was by far the meekest of all the men who were upon the surface of the ground.

4 Then Jehovah suddenly said to Moses and Aaron and Mir'i am: "Go out, the three of you, to the tent of meeting." So the three of them went out. 5 After that Jehovah came down in the pillar of cloud and stood at the entrance of yours for Jehovah, it would be in a vision I would make myself known to him. In a dream I would speak to him. 7 Not so my servant Moses! He is being entrusted with all my house. 8 Mouth to 31 And a wind burst forth from mouth I speak to him, thus showing him, and not by riddles; and the appearance of Jehovah is what he beholds. 14 Then Jehovah said to Moses: her face, would she not be humiliated seven days? Let her be quarantined seven days outside the camp, and afterward let her be received in." 15 Accordingly Mir'iam was quarantined outside the camp seven days, and the people did not pull away until Mir'i-am was received in. 16 And afterward the people pulled away from Haze'roth and took up camping in the wilderness of Pa'ran.

13 Jehovah now spoke to Moses, saying: 2 "Send out for yourself men that they may spy out the land of Ca'naan, which I am giving to the sons of Israel. You will send out one man for each tribe of his fathers, each one a proceeded to say to them: "Go up here into the Neg'eb, and you must go up into the mountainous region. 18 And you must see what the land is and the people who are dwelling "Were her father to spit directly in on it, whether they are strong or weak, whether they are few or many; 19 and what the land is in which they are dwelling, whether it is good or bad, and what the cities are in which they are dwelling. whether it is in encampments or in fortifications: 20 and what the land is, whether it is fat or lean, whether there are trees in it or not. And you must show yourselves courageous and take some of the fruitage of the land." Now the days were the days of the first ripe fruits of the grapes.

3 So Moses sent them out from the wilderness of Pa'ran at the order of Jehovah. All the men were heads of the sons of Israel. 4 And these are their names: Of the tribe of Reu'ben. Sham mu'a the son of Zac'cur; 5 of the tribe of Sim'e on, Sha'phat the son of Ho'ri; 6 of the tribe of Judah. Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh; 7 of the tribe of Is'sa char, I'gal the son of Joseph; 8 of the tribe of E'phra·im, Ho·she'a the son of Nun: 9 of the tribe of Benjamin, Pal'ti the son of Ra'phu; 10 of the tribe of Zeb'u·lun, Gad'diel the son of So'di; 11 of the tribe of Joseph, for the tribe of Ma·nas'seh, Gad'di the son of Su'si: 12 of the tribe of Dan, Am'miel the son of Ge·mal'li; 13 of the tribe of Ash'er, Se'thur the son of Mi'cha·el; 14 of the tribe of Naph'ta·li, Nah'bi the son of Voph'si: 15 of the tribe of Gad, Geu'el the son of Ma'chi. 16 These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses continued to call Ho-she'a the son of Nun Je-hosh'u-a.

> 21 So they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin to Re'hob to the entering in of Ha'math. 22 When they went up into the Neg'eb, they then came to He'bron, Now A.hi'man, She'shai and Tal'mai, those born of A'nak, were there. Incidentally, He'bron had been built seven years before Zo'an of Egypt. 23 When they came to the torrent valley of Esh'col, they then proceeded to cut down from there a shoot with one cluster of grapes. And they went carrying it with a bar on two of the men, and also some of the pomegranates and some of the figs. 24 They called that place the torrent valley of Esh'col, on account of the cluster that the sons of Israel cut down from there.

25 Finally at the end of forty days they returned from spying out the land. 26 So they walked and came to Moses and Aaron and all the assembly of the sons of Israel in the wilderness of Pa'ran, at Ka'desh. And they came bringing back word to them and all the assembly and showing them the fruitage of the land. 27 And they went on to report to him and say: "We entered into the land to which you sent us out, and it is indeed flowing with milk and honey, and this is its fruitage. 28 Nevertheless, the 17 When Moses was sending them facts are that the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the for- | who spied out the land, ripped the Am'or ites are dwelling in the mountainous region, and the Ca'naan ites are dwelling by the sea and by the side of the Jordan."

30 Then Ca'leb tried to still the people toward Moses and went on to say: "Let us go up directly, and we are bound to take possession of it, because we can surely prevail over it." 31 But the men who went up with him said: "We are not able to go up against the people, because they are stronger than we are." 32 And they kept on bringing forth to the sons of Israel a bad report of the land that they had spied out, saying: "The land, which we passed through to spy it out, is a land that eats up its inhabitants; and all the people whom we saw in the midst of it are men of extraordinary size. 33 And there we saw the Neph'i·lim, the sons of A'nak, who are from the Neph'i·lim; so that we became in our own eyes like grasshoppers, and the same way we became in their eves."

Then all the assembly raised their voice, and the people continued giving vent to their voice and weeping all through that night. 2 And all the sons of Israel began to murmur against Moses and Aaron, and all the assembly began to say against them: "If only we had died in the land of Egypt, or if only we had died in this wilderness! 3 And why is Jehovah bringing us to this land to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become plunder. Is it not better for us to return to Egypt?" 4 They even went to saying to one another: "Let us appoint a head, and let us return to Egypt!"

5 At this Moses and Aaron fell upon their faces before all the con-

Their shelter has turned away from over them. and Jehovah is with us. Do not fear them."

> 10 However, all the assembly talked of pelting them with stones. And Jehovah's glory appeared on the tent of meeting to all the sons of Israel.

> 11 Finally Jehovah said to Moses: "How long will this people treat me without respect, and how long will they not put faith in me for all the signs that I performed in among them? 12 Let me strike them with pestilence and drive them away, and let me make you a nation greater and mightier than they are."

13 But Moses said to Jehovah: "Then the Egyptians will be bound to hear that you by your power have led this people up out of their midst. 14 And they will be bound to tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that you are Jehovah in among this people, who has appeared face to face. You are Jehovah, and your cloud is standing over them, and you are going before them in the pillar of cloud by day and in the pillar of fire by night. 15 Were you to put this people to death as one man, then the nations who have heard of your fame would certainly say this. 16 'Because of Jehovah's not being able to bring this people into the land about which he swore to them he proceeded to slaughter them in the wilderness.' 17 And now, gregation of the assembly of the please, let your power become sons of Israel. 6 And Joshua the great, O Jehovah, just as you have son of Nun and Ca'leb the son of spoken, saying, 18 'Jehovah, slow Je-phun'neh, who were of those to anger and abundant in lovingkindness, pardoning error and Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh and transgression, but by no means will Joshua the son of Nunhe give exemption from punishment, bringing punishment for the please, the error of this people ac-Egypt onward until now."

20 Then Jehovah said: "I do forgive according to your word. 21 And, on the other hand, as I live, all the earth will be filled with the glory of Jehovah. 22 But all land, forty days, a day for a year. the men who have been seeing my a day for a year, you will answer glory and my signs that I have for your errors forty years, as performed in Egypt and in the wilderness and yet kept testing me estranged means. these ten times, and have not lissee the land about which I swore to their fathers, yes, all those not see it. 24 As for my servant Ca'leb, because a different spirit Red Sea."

8 And Moses went on to say to Ko'rah: "Listen, please, you sons of Le'vi. 9 Is it such a little thing for you men that the God of Israel has separated you men from the assembly of Israel to present you to himself to carry on the service of Jehovah's tabernacle and to stand before the assembly to minister to them, 10 and that he should bring you and all your brothers the sons of Le'vi with you near? So must you men also try to secure the priesthood? 11 For that reason you and all your assembly who are gathering together are against Jehovah. As for Aaron. what is he that you men should murmur against him?"

12 Later Moses sent to call Da'than and A.bi'ram the sons of E·li'ab, but they said: "We are not going to come up! 13 Is it so little a thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to put us to death in the wilderness, that you should also try to play the prince over us to the limit? 14 As it is, you have not brought us into any land flowing with milk and honey, that you may give us an inheritance of field and vineyard. Is it the eyes of those men that you want to bore out? We are not going to come up!"

15 At this Moses became very angry and said to Jehovah: "Do not turn to look at their grain offering. Not one male ass have I harmed one of them."

16 Then Moses said to Ko'rah: "You and all your assembly, be present before Jehovah, you and mankind that punishment will be they and Aaron, tomorrow. 17 And brought upon them, then it is not

who belongs to him and who is holy | you men must put incense upon and who must come near to him, them and present each one his fire and whoever he may choose will holder before Jehovah, two hundred and fifty fire holders, and you and Aaron each his fire holder." 18 So they took each one his fire holder and put fire upon them and incense upon them before Jehovah placed incense upon them and tomorrow, and it must occur that stood at the entrance of the tent of meeting together with Moses and Aaron. 19 When Ko'rah got all the assembly together against them at the entrance of the tent of meeting, then Jehovah's glory appeared to all the assembly.

> 20 Jehovah now spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: 21 "Separate yourselves from the midst of this assembly, that I may exterminate them in an instant." 22 At this they fell upon their faces and said: "O God, the God of the spirits of every sort of flesh, will just one man sin and you become indignant against the entire as-

23 In turn Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 24 "Speak to the assembly, saying, 'Get away from around the tabernacles of Ko'rah, Da'than and A·bi'ram!'"

25 After that Moses got up and went to Da'than and A bi'ram, and the older men of Israel went with him. 26 Then he spoke to the assembly, saying: "Turn aside, please, from before the tents of these wicked men and do not touch anything that belongs to them, that you may not be swept away in all their sin." 27 Immediately they got away from before the tabernacle of Ko'rah, Da'than and A bi'ram, from every side, and Da'than and A.bi'ram came out, taking their stand at the entrance of their tents, together with their wives, and their sons and their little ones.

28 Then Moses said: "By this you will know that Jehovah has sent me to do all these deeds, that taken away from them, nor have I it is not of my own heart: 29 If it is according to the death of all mankind that these people will die and with the punishment of all Jehovah that has sent me. 30 But | before Jehovah, and no one might if it is something created that Jehovah will create, and the ground bly, just as Jehovah had spoken has to open its mouth and swallow up them and everything that belongs to them and they have to go down alive into She'ol, you will then know for certain that these men have treated Jehovah disrespectfully."

31 And it came about that as soon as he had finished speaking all these words, the ground that was under them began to be split apart. 32 And the earth proceeded to open its mouth and to swallow up them and their households and all humankind that belonged to Ko'rah and all the goods. 33 So down they went, and all who belonged to them, alive into She'ol. and the earth went covering them over, so that they perished from the midst of the congregation. 34 And all the Israelites who were round about them fled at the screaming fire holder and put fire from upon of them, for they began to say: "We are afraid that the earth may swallow us up!" 35 And a fire came out from Jehovah and proceeded to consume the two hundred and fifty men offering the incense.

36 Jehovah now spoke to Moses. saying: 37 "Say to E-le-a'zar the son of Aaron the priest that he should take up the fire holders from within the conflagration. 'And you scatter the fire over there: for they are holy, 38 even the fire holders of these men who sinned against their own souls. And they must make them into thin metal plates as an overlaying for the altar, because they presented them before Jehovah, so that they became holy; and they should serve as a sign to the sons of Israel." 39 Accordingly E-le-a'zar the priest took the copper fire holders, which those who had been burned up had presented, and they proceeded to of Israel and take from them one beat them out into an overlaying rod for each paternal house from for the altar, 40 as a memorial all their chieftains, by the house of for the sons of Israel, to the end their fathers, twelve rods. 41 And directly the next day the whole assembly of the sons of Israel began to murmur against Moses and Aaron, saving: "You men. you have put Jehovah's people to death." 42 And it came about that when the assembly had congregated themselves together against Moses and Aaron, they then turned toward the tent of meeting: and. look! the cloud covered it, and Jehovah's glory began to appear.

43 And Moses and Aaron proceeded to come before the tent of meeting. 44 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 45 "You men, rise up from the midst of this assembly, that I may exterminate them in an instant." At this they fell upon their faces. 46 After that Moses said to Aaron: "Take the the altar in it and put on incense and go to the assembly in a hurry and make atonement for them, because the indignation has gone out from the face of Jehovah. The plague has started!" 47 Aaron at once took it, just as Moses had spoken, and went running into the midst of the congregation; and, look! the plague had started among the people. So he put the incense on and began making atonement for the people. 48 And he kept standing between the dead and the living. Eventually the scourge was stopped. 49 And those dead from the scourge amounted to fourteen thousand seven hundred, aside from those dead on account of Ko'rah. 50 When at last Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the tent of meeting, the scourge had been stopped.

17 Jehovah now spoke to Moses, saying: 2 "Speak to the sons

14 Subsequently Moses sent mes-2 Now there proved to be no sengers from Ka'desh to the king of E'dom: "This is what your brother Israel has said, 'You yourself against Moses and Aaron. 3 And well know all the hardship that has overtaken us. 15 And our fathers proceeded to go down to Egypt, and we continued to dwell in Egypt pired before Jehovah! 4 And why many days; and the Egyptians have you men brought Jehovah's began doing harm to us and our fathers. 16 Finally we cried out to Jehovah and he heard our voice and sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt; and here we are in bring us into this evil place? It is Ka'desh, a city at the extremity of your territory. 17 Let us pass. please, through your land. We shall not pass through a field or a vineand Aaron came from before the yard, and we shall not drink the water of a well. On the king's road we shall march. 27 So Moses did just as Jehovah had commanded; and before the eyes of all the assembly they went climbing Mount Hor. 28 Then Moses stripped Aaron of his garments and clothed E-le-a'zar his son with them, after which Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. And Moses and E-le-a'zar came on down from the mountain, 29 And all the assembly got to see that Aaron had expired, and all the house of Israel continued weeping for Aaron thirty days.

21 Now the Camaan ite the king of A'rad, who dwelt in the Neg'eb, got to hear that Israel had come by the way of Ath'a rim, and he began to fight with Israel and carry away some of them as captives. 2 Consequently Israel made a vow to Jehovah and said: "If you will without fail give this people into my hand, I shall also certainly devote their cities to destruction." 3 So Jehovah listened to Israel's voice and gave the Ca'naan ites over: and they devoted them and their cities to destruction. Hence they called the name of the place Hor'mah.

4 While they continued trekking from Mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea to go around the land of E'dom, the soul of the people began tiring out because of the way. 5 And the people kept speaking against God and Moses: "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread and no water. and our soul has come to abhor the Hor by the border of the land of the people, and they kept biting the people, so that many people of Israel died.

> 7 Finally the people came to Moses and said: "We have sinned because we have spoken against Jehovah and against you. Intercede with Jehovah that he may remove the serpents from upon us." And Moses went interceding in behalf of the people. 8 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Make for yourself a fiery snake and place it upon a signal pole. And it must occur that when anyone has been bitten, he then has to look at it and so must keep alive." 9 Moses at once made a serpent of copper and placed it upon the signal pole; and it did occur that if a serpent had bitten a man and he gazed at the copper serpent, he then kept alive.

> 10 After that the sons of Israel pulled away and encamped in O'both. 11 Then they pulled away from O'both and encamped in I'ye-ab'a·rim, in the wilderness that is toward the front of Mo'ab. toward the rising of the sun. 12 From there they pulled away and took up camping by the torrent valley of Ze'red. 13 From there they pulled away and went camping in the region of the Ar'non, which is in the wilderness that extends from the border of the Am'or ites: for the Ar'non is the boundary of Mo'ab, between Mo'ab and the Am'or ites. 14 That is why it is said in the book of the Wars of Jehovah:

"Va'heb in Su'phah and the torrent valleys of Ar'non, 15 and the mouth of the torrent valleys. which has bent itself toward the seat of Ar and has leaned against the border of Mo'ab."

16 Next from there on to Be'er. This is the well about which Jehovah said to Moses: "Gather the people, and let me give them water."

17 At that time Israel proceeded to sing this song:

"Spring up, O well! Respond to it, you people!

18 A well, princes dug it. The nobles of the people excavated it.

With a commander's staff, with their own staffs."

Then from the wilderness on to Mat'ta nah. 19 And from Mat'tanah on to Na hal'i el, and from Na·hal'i·el on to Ba'moth. 20 And from Ba'moth on to the valley that is in the field of Mo'ab, at the head of Pis'gah, and it projects over toward the face of Jesh'i mon.

21 Israel now sent messengers to Si'hon the king of the Am'or·ites, saving: 22 "Let me pass through your land. We shall not turn off into a field or a vineyard. We shall drink water of no well. On the king's road we shall march until we pass through your territory." 23 And Si'hon did not allow Israel to pass through his territory, but Si'hon gathered all his people and went out to meet Israel in the wilderness, and came to Ja'haz and began fighting with Israel. 24 At that Israel struck him with the edge of the sword and took possession of his land from the Ar'non to the Jab'bok, near the sons of Am'mon: because Ja'zer is the border of the sons of Am'mon.

25 So Israel took all these cities, and Israel began dwelling in all the cities of the Am'or ites, in Hesh'bon and all its dependent towns. 26 For Hesh'bon was the city of Si'hon. He was the king of the Am'or ites, and it was he who fought with the king of Mo'ab formerly and went taking all his land out of his hand as far as the Ar'non. 27 That is why the sayers of mock verses would say:

"Come to Hesh'bon.

Let the city of Si'hon be built and be proved firmly set up.

28 For a fire has come out of Hesh'bon, a flame from the town of Si'hon.

It has consumed Ar of Mo'ab, the owners of the high places of the Ar'non.

29 Woe to you, Mo'ab! You will certainly perish, O people of Che'mosh!

He will certainly give his sons as escaped ones and his daughters in the captivity to the king of the Am'orites, Si'hon, 30 So let us shoot at them.

Kill Sihon, Og. Amorites dispossessed

Hesh'bon will certainly perish up to Di'bon,

And the women up to No'phah, the men up to Med'e ba.'

31 And Israel began to dwell in the land of the Am'or ites. 32 Then Moses sent some to spy on Ja'zer. So they captured its dependent towns and dispossessed the Am'or ites who were there. 33 After that they turned and went up by the way of Ba'shan. At this Og the king of Ba'shan came out to meet them, he and all his people, to the battle of Ed're·i. 34 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Do not be afraid of him, for into your hand I shall certainly give him and all his people and his land; and you must do to him just as you did to Si'hon, the king of the Am'or ites, who used to dwell in Hesh'bon." 35 So they went striking him and his sons and all his people, until there was no survivor remaining to him: and they went taking possession of his land.

Then the sons of Israel pulled away and encamped on the desert plains of Mo'ab across the Jordan from Jer'i-cho. 2 And Ba'lak the son of Zip'por got to see all that Israel had done to the Am'or ites. 3 And Mo'ab became very frightened at the people, because they were many; and Mo'ab began to feel a sickening dread of the sons of Israel. 4 And Mo'ab proceeded to say to the older men of Mid'i-an: "Now this congregation will lick up all our surroundings like the bull licking up the green growth of the field.'

And Ba'lak the son of Zip'por was king of Mo'ab at that particular time. 5 He now sent messengers to Ba'laam the son of Be'or at Pe'thor, which is by the River of the land of the sons of his people, to call him, saying: "Look! A people has come out of Egypt. Look! They have covered the earth as far to strike them and I may drive them out of the land; for I well know that the one whom you bless is a blessed one and the one whom you curse is cursed."

7 So the older men of Mo'ab and the older men of Mid'i an traveled with the payments for divination in their hands and went to Ba'laam | word that I shall speak to you is and spoke to him Ba'lak's words. 8 At that he said to them: "Lodge here tonight, and I shall certainly return you word just as Jehovah may speak to me." Accordingly the princes of Mo'ab stayed with Ba'laam.

9 Then God came to Ba'laam you?" 10 So Ba'laam said to the true] God: "Ba'lak the son of Zip'por, the king of Mo'ab, has sent to me, saying, 11 'Look! The people who are coming out of Egypt, and they go covering the earth as far as the eye can see. Now do come, do execrate them for me. Perhaps I may be able to fight against them and I shall actually drive them out." 12 But God said to Ba'laam: "You must not go with them. You must not curse the people, for they are blessed."

Perhaps I may be able Jehovah my God, so as to do something small or great. 19 And now you men also stay here, please, tonight that I may know what further Jehovah will speak with me."

> 20 Then God came to Ba'laam by night and said to him: "If it is to call you that the men have come, get up, go with them. But only the what you may speak." 21 After that Ba'laam got up in the morning and saddled his she-ass and went with the princes of Mo'ab.

22 And the anger of God began to blaze because he was going; and Jehovah's angel proceeded to station himself in the road to resist and said: "Who are these men with him. And he was riding upon his she-ass, and two attendants of his were with him. 23 And the ass got to see Jehovah's angel stationed in the road with his drawn sword in his hand; and the ass tried to turn aside from the road that she might go into the field, but Ba'laam began to strike the ass in order to turn her aside to the road. 24 And Jehovah's angel kept standing in the narrow way between the vineyards, with a stone wall on this side and a stone wall on that side. 25 And the she-ass kept seeing Jehovah's 13 After that Ba'laam got up in angel and began to squeeze herself against the wall and so to squeeze Ba'laam's foot against the wall: and he went beating her some more.

Have I ever that he might see from there the been used to do to you this way?" To which he said: "No!" 31 And Jehovah proceeded to uncover Ba'laam's eyes, so that he saw Jehovah's angel stationed in the road with his drawn sword in his hand. At once he bowed low and prostrated himself on his face.

32 Then Jehovah's angel said to him: "Why have you beaten your she-ass these three times? Look! I-I have come out to offer resistance, because your way has been headlong against my will. 33 And the she-ass got to see me and tried to turn aside before me these three times. Supposing she had not turned aside from before me! For by now even you I should have killed, but her I should have preserved alive." 34 At this Ba'laam said to Jehovah's angel: "I have sinned, because I did not know that it was you stationed in the road to meet me. And now, if it is bad in your eyes, let me go my way back." 35 But Jehovah's angel said to Ba'laam: "Go with the men; and nothing but the word that I shall speak to you is what you may speak." And Ba'laam continued going with the princes of Ba'lak.

36 When Ba'lak got to hear that Ba'laam had come, he at once went out to meet him at the city of Mo'ab, which is on the bank of the Ar'non, which is on the extremity of the territory. 37 Then Ba'lak said to Ba'laam: "Have I not for a fact sent to you to call you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not really and truly able to honor you?" 38 At this Ba'laam said to Ba'lak: "Here I have come to you now. Shall I be able at all to speak something? The word that God will place in my mouth is what I shall speak."

39 So Ba'laam went with Ba'lak and they came to Kir'i ath-hu'zoth. 40 And Ba'lak proceeded to sacrifice cattle and sheep and to send some to Ba'laam and the princes

After that Ba'lak and Ba'laam offered up a bull and a ram on each altar. 3 And Ba'laam went on to say to Ba'lak: "Station yourself by your burnt offering, and let me go. Perhaps Jehovah will get in touch and meet with me. In that case whatever he will show me, I shall certainly tell you." So he went to a bare hill.

> 4 When God got in touch with Ba'laam, he then said to Him: "I set the seven altars in rows, and I proceeded to offer up a bull and a ram on each altar." 5 Accordingly Jehovah put a word in the mouth of Ba'laam and said: "Return to Ba'lak, and this is what you will speak." 6 So he returned to him, and, look! he and all the princes of Mo'ab were stationed by his burnt offering. 7 Then he took up his proverbial utterance and

"From A'ram Ba'lak the king of Mo'ab tried to conduct me, From the mountains of the east:

11 At this Ba'lak said to Ba'laam: "What have you done to me? It was in order to execrate my enemies that I took you, and here you have blessed them to the limit." 12 In turn he answered and said: "Is it not whatever Jehovah may put in my mouth that I should take care to speak?"

13 Then Ba'lak said to him: "Do come, please, with me to another place from which you can see them. Only the extremity of them you will see, and you will not see all of them. And execrate them for me from there." 14 So he took him to the field of Zo'phim, to the top of Pis'gah, and proceeded to build seven altars and to offer up a bull and a ram on each altar. 15 After that he said to Ba'lak: "Station yourself here by your burnt offering, and, as for me, let me get in touch with him there." 16 Subsequently Jehovah got in touch with Ba'laam and put a word in his mouth and said: "Re- I shall do'?" turn to Ba'lak, and this is what you will speak." 17 So he came to him, and, look! he was stationed by his burnt offering, and the princes of Mo'ab with him. So there was not left of them a man except Ca'leb the son of Je phun'neh and Joshua the son of Nun.

O give us a possession in the midst of our father's brothers." 5 At that Moses presented their case before Jehovah.

midst of their father's brothers, and you must cause their father's inheritance to pass to them. 8 And to the sons of Israel you should speak, saying, 'In case any man should die without his having a son, you must then cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter. 9 And if he has no daughter, you must then give his inheritance to his brothers. 10 And if he has no brothers, you must then give his inheritance to his father's brothers. 11 And if his father has no brothers, you must then give his inheritance to his blood relation who is closest to him of his family, and he must take possession of it. And it must serve as a statute by judicial decision for the sons of Israel. just as Jehovah has commanded Moses."

12 Subsequently Jehovah said to Moses: "Go up into this mountain of Ab'a rim and see the land that I shall certainly give the sons of Israel. 13 When you have seen it. then you must be gathered to your people, yes, you, just as Aaron your brother was gathered, 14 inasmuch as you men rebelled against my order in the wilderness of Zin at the quarreling of the assembly. in relation to sanctifying me by the waters before their eyes. 15 Then Moses spoke to Jehovah. saying: 16 "Let Jehovah the God of the spirits of all sorts of flesh appoint over the assembly a man 17 who will go out before them and who will come in before them and who will bring them out and who will bring them in, that Jehovah's assembly may not become like sheep that have no shepherd." 18 So Jehovah said to Moses: "Take for yourself Joshua the son of Nun. a man in whom there is spirit, and you must lay your hand upon him: 19 and you must stand him before E·le·a'zar the priest and before all 6 Jehovah then said this to Mo- the assembly, and you must comses: 7 "The daughters of Ze-lo'- mission him before their eyes. phe had are speaking right. 39 "These you will render up to Jehovah at your seasonal festivals, besides your vow offerings and Your voluntary offerings as Your burnt offerings and your grain offerings and your drink offerings and your communion sacrifices." 40 And Moses proceeded to talk to the sons of Israel according to everything that Jehovah had commanded Moses.

30 Then Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the sons of Israel, saying: "This is the word that Jehovah has commanded: 2 In case a man makes a vow to Jehovah or swears an oath to bind a vow of abstinence upon his soul. he must not violate his word. According to all that has gone out of his mouth he should do.

3 "And in case a woman makes a vow to Jehovah or she does bind herself with a vow of abstinence in the house of her father in her youth. 4 and her father actually hears her vow or her abstinence vow that she has bound upon her soul and her father does keep silent toward her, all her vows must also stand, and every abstinence yow that she has bound upon her soul will stand. 5 But if her father has forbidden her on the day of his hearing all her vows or her abstinence vows that she has bound upon her soul, it will not stand. from the constant burnt offering, cause her father forbade her.

Her husband has annulled them, and Jehovah will forgive her. 13 Any vow or any oath of an abstinence vow to afflict the soul, her husband should establish it or her husband should annul it. 14 But if her husband absolutely keeps silent toward her from day to day, he has also established all her vows or all her abstinence vows that are upon her. He has established them because he kept silent toward her on the day of his hearing them. 15 And if he totally annuls them after his hearing them, he also actually bears her error.

16 "These are the regulations that Jehovah commanded Moses as between a husband and his wife. as between a father and his daughter in her youth in the house of her father."

31 Jehovah then spoke to Moses, saying: 2 "Take vengeance for the sons of Israel upon the Mid'i an ites. Afterward you will be gathered to your people.'

3 So Moses spoke to the people. saying: "Equip men from among you for the army, that they may serve against Mid'i an to execute Jehovah's vengeance upon Mid'i-an. 4 A thousand of each tribe of all the tribes of Israel you will send into the army." 5 Accordingly from the thousands of Israel a thousand were assigned of a tribe, upon her soul, and Jehovah will twelve thousand equipped for the army.

6 Then Moses sent them out, a thousand of each tribe, to the army, them and Phin'e has the son of E-le-a'zar the priest to the army, and the holy utensils and the trumpets for blowing calls were in his hand. 7 And they went waging war against Mid'i an, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, and they proceeded to kill every male. 8 And they killed the kings of Mid'i an along with the others slain, namely, E'vi and Re'kem and Zur and Hur and Re'ba, the five kings of Mid'i an: and they killed Ba'laam the son of Be'or with the sword. 9 But the sons of Israel carried off the women of Mid'i an and their little ones captive; and all their domestic animals and all their livestock and all their means of maintenance they plundered. 10 And all their cities in which they had settled and all their walled camps they burned with fire. 11 And they went taking all the spoil and all the booty in the way of humans and domestic animals. 12 And they came bringing to Moses and E-le-a'zar the priest and to the assembly of the sons of Israel the captives and the booty and the spoil, to the camp, to the desert plains of Mo'ab, which are by the Jordan at Jer'i.cho.

13 Then Moses and E-le-a'zar the priest and all the chieftains of the assembly went out to meet them outside the camp. 14 And Moses grew indignant at the appointed men of the combat forces.

And everything that is not processed with fire you should pass through the water, 24 And you must wash your garments on the seventh day and be clean, and afterward you may come into the camp.'"

25 And Jehovah proceeded to say this to Moses: 26 "Take the sum of the booty, the captives both of humankind and of domestic animals, you and E-le-a'zar the priest and the heads of the fathers of the assembly. 27 And you must divide tax for Jehovah you must take away from the men of war who went out on the expedition one soul out of five hundred, of humankind and of the flock. 29 From their as Jehovah's contribution. 30 And from the half of the sons of Israel you should take one out of fifty, of sort of domestic animal, and you must give them to the Levites, the vah's tabernacle."

31 And Moses and E-le-a'zar the priest went doing just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, 32 And the booty, the rest of the plunder that the people of the expedition had taken as plunder, amounted to six hundred and seventy-five thousand of the flock, 33 and seventytwo thousand of the herd, 34 and sixty-one thousand asses. 35 As for human souls from the women who had not known the act of lying with a male, all the souls were thirty-two thousand, 36 And the hundred of the flock. 37 And the tax for Jehovah from the flock amounted to six hundred and seventy-five. 38 And of the herd there were thirty-six thousand, and the tax on them for Jehovah was seventy-two. 39 And the asses were thirty thousand five hundred. and the tax on them for Jehovah was sixty-one. 40 And the human souls were sixteen thousand, and the tax on them for Jehovah was thirty-two souls. 41 Then Moses gave the tax as Jehovah's contribution to E·le·a'zar the priest, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

Jehovah's tabernacle, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

48 And the appointed men who were of the thousands of the army. the chiefs of the thousands and the chiefs of the hundreds, proceeded to approach Moses, 49 and to say to Moses: "Your servants have taken the sum of the men of war who are in our charge and not one has been reported missing from us. 50 So let us present each one what he has found as Jehovah's offering, articles of gold, ankle chainlets, and bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and female ornaments, in order to make atonement for our souls before Jehovah."

51 Accordingly Moses and E-lea'zar the priest accepted the gold from them, all the jewelry, 52 And all the gold of the contribution that they contributed to Jehovah amounted to sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels, from the chiefs of the thousands and the chiefs of the hundreds. 53 The men of the army had taken plunder each for himself. 54 So Moses and E·le·a'zar the priest accepted the gold from the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds and brought it into the tent of meeting as a memorial for the sons of Israel before Jehovah.

32 Now the sons of Reu'ben and the sons of Gad had come to have numerous livestock, very many, in fact, And they began to see the land of Ja'zer and the land of Gil'e-ad, and, look! the place was a place for livestock. 2 Hence the sons of Gad and the sons of Reu'ben came and said this to Moses and E·le·a'zar the priest and amounted to three hundred and 3 "At'a roth and Di'bon and Ja'zer Israel, is a land for livestock, and your servants have livestock." 5 And they went on to say: "If we have found favor in your eyes, let this land be given to your servants as a possession. Do not make us

6 Then Moses said to the sons of

Gad and the sons of Reu'ben: "Are your brothers to go to war while you yourselves keep dwelling here? 7 And why should you dishearten the sons of Israel from crossing into the land that Jehovah will certainly give them? 8 That is the way your fathers did when I sent them from Ka'desh-bar'ne a to see the land. 9 When they went up to the torrent valley of Esh'col and saw the land, then they disheartened the sons of Israel, so as not to go into the land that Jehovah was certain to give them. 10 Consequently Jehovah's anger blazed on that day so that he swore, saying. 11 'The men who came up out of Egypt from twenty years old upward will not see the soil of which I have sworn to Abraham. Isaac and Jacob, because they have not followed me wholly. 12 except Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh the Ken'iz zite and Joshua the son of Nun, because they have followed Jehovah wholly.' 13 So Jehovah's anger blazed against Israel and he made them wander about in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that was doing evil in the eyes of Jehovah came to their end. 14 And here you have risen in the place of your fathers as the brood of sinful men in order to add

20 At this Moses said to them: "If you will do this thing, if you will equip yourselves before Jehovah for the war, 21 and every equipped one of yours will actually pass over the Jordan before Jehovah, until he drives away his enemies from before him, 22 and the land is actually subdued before Jehovah, and afterward you return. you also will indeed prove yourselves free from guilt against Jehovah and against Israel; and this land must become yours as a possession before Jehovah. 23 But if you will not do this way, you will also certainly sin against Jehovah. In that case know that your sin will catch up with you. 24 Build for yourselves cities for your little ones and stone pens for your flocks, and what has gone forth from your mouth you should do."

25 Then the sons of Gad and the sons of Reu'ben said this to Moses: "Your servants will do just as my lord is commanding, 26 Our little ones, our wives, our livestock and all our domestic animals will stay there in the cities of Gil'e ad. 27 but your servants will pass over. everyone equipped for the army. before Jehovah for the war, just as my lord is speaking."

34 And the sons of Gad proceeded to build Di'bon and At'a roth and A.ro'er, 35 and Atrothsho'phan and Ja'zer and Jog'behah, 36 and Beth-nim'rah and Beth-ha'ran, cities with fortifications, and stone flock pens. 37 And the sons of Reu'ben built Hesh'bon and E-le-a'leh and Kir-i-a-tha'im. 38 and Ne'bo and Ba'al-me'ontheir names being changed-and Sib'mah; and they began to call by their own names the names of the cities that they built.

39 And the sons of Ma'chir the son of Ma-nas'seh proceeded to march to Gil'e ad and to capture it and to drive away the Am'or ites who were in it. 40 So Moses gave Gil'e-ad to Ma'chir the son of Manas'seh, and he took up dwelling in it. 41 And Ja'ir the son of Manas'seh marched and went capturing their tent villages, and he began to call them Hav'voth-ja'ir. son of Nun and to the heads of the | 42 And No'bah marched and went fathers of the tribes of the sons of capturing Ke'nath and its dependNo'bah by his own name.

13 So Moses commanded the sons of Israel, saying: "This is the land that you will apportion to yourselves as a possession by lot, just as Jehovah has commanded to give to the nine and a half tribes. 14 For the tribe of the sons of the Reu'ben ites by the house of their fathers and the tribe of the sons of the Gad'ites by the house of their fathers have already taken, and the already taken their inheritance. 15 The two and a half tribes have already taken their inheritance from the region of the Jordan by Jer'i cho eastward toward the sunrising."

16 And Jehovah spoke further to names of the men who will divide the land to you people for a possession, E-le-a'zar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun. 18 And you will take one chieftain out of each tribe to divide the land for a possession. 19 And these are the names of the men: Of the tribe of Judah, Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh: 20 and of the tribe of the sides them you will give forty-two sons of Sim'e.on. 35 And Jehovah went on to speak to Moses on the desert plains of Mo'ab by the Jordan at Jer'icho, saving: 2 "Give the sons of Israel the command that they must give the Levites cities to inhabit out of the inheritance of their possession, and they should give the Levites the pasture ground of the cities all around them. 3 And the cities must serve for them to inhabit, while their pasture grounds will serve for their domestic animals and their goods and for all half tribe of Ma nas'seh have their wild beasts. 4 And the pasture grounds of the cities, which you will give the Levites, will be from the wall of the city and out for a thousand cubits all around. 5 And you must measure outside the city on the east side two thousand cubits and on the south side Moses, saying: 17 "These are the two thousand cubits and on the west side two thousand cubits and on the north side two thousand cubits, with the city in the middle. 9 And Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 10 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and you must say to them, 'You are crossing the Jordan to the land of Ca'naan. 11 And you must choose cities convenient for yourselves. As cities of refuge they will serve for you, and the manslayer must flee there who fatally strikes a soul unintentionally. 12 And the cities must serve you as a refuge from the blood avenger, that the manslayer may not die until he stands before the assembly for judgment. 13 And the cities that you will give. the six cities of refuge, will be at Your service. 14 Three cities you will give on this side of the Jordan. and three cities you will give in the land of Ca'naan. As cities of refuge they will serve. 15 For the sons of Israel and for the alien resident and for the settler in the midst of them these six cities will serve as a refuge, for anyone to flee there that fatally strikes a soul unintentionally.

26 "'But if the manslayer without fail goes out of the boundary of his city of refuge to which he may flee, 27 and the avenger of blood does find him outside the boundary of his city of refuge, and the avenger of blood does slav the manslayer, he has no bloodguilt. 28 For he ought to dwell in his city of refuge until the high priest's death, and after the high priest's death the manslayer may return to the land of his possession. 29 And these must serve as a statute of judgment for you throughout your generations in all your dwelling places.

36 And the heads of the fathers of the family of the sons of Gil'e ad the son of Ma'chir the son of Ma·nas'seh of the families of the sons of Joseph proceeded to come near and speak before Moses and the chieftains, the heads of the fathers of the sons of Israel, 2 and say: "Jehovah commanded my lord to give the land in inheritance by lot to the sons of Israel; and my lord was commanded by Jehovah to give the inheritance of Ze·lo'phehad our brother to his daughters. 3 If any of the sons of the other tribes of the sons of Israel happened to get them as wives, the women's inheritance must also be withdrawn from the inheritance of our fathers and must be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they may come to belong, so that it would be withdrawn from the lot of our inheritance. 4 Now if the Jubilee takes place for the sons of Israel, the women's inheritance must also be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they may come to belong; so that their inheritance would be withdrawn from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers."

10 Just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, that is the way the daughters of Ze·lo'phe·had did. 11 Accordingly Mah'lah, Tir'zah and Hog'lah and Mil'cah and No'ah, the daughters of Ze·lo'phehad, became the wives of the sons of their father's brothers. 12 To some of the families of the sons of Ma·nas'seh the son of Joseph they became wives, that their inheritance might continue together with the tribe of the family of their father.

13 These are the commandments and the judicial decisions that Jehovah commanded by means of Moses to the sons of Israel on the desert plains of Mo'ab by the Jorsons of Israel at the order of Je- dan at Jer'i-cho.

22 "Further, at Tab'e rah and at Mas'sah and at Kib'rothhat ta'a vah you proved vourselves provokers of Jehovah to anger. 23 And when Jehovah sent you out of Ka'desh-bar'ne a, saying, 'Go up and take possession of the land that I shall certainly give you!' then you behaved rebelliously image.' 13 And Jehovah went on against the order of Jehovah Your

Do not be afraid or suffer a shock before them, because Jehovah your God is the one marching with you. He will neither desert you nor leave you entirely."

7 And Moses proceeded to call Joshua and say to him before the eyes of all Israel: "Be courageous and strong, because you-you will bring this people into the land that Jehovah swore to their forefathers to give to them, and you yourself will give it to them as an inheritance. 8 And Jehovah is the one sake them and conceal my face marching before you. He himself will continue with you. He will neither desert you nor leave you entirely. Do not be afraid or be terrified."

9 Then Moses wrote this law and gave it to the priests the sons of Le'vi, the carriers of the ark of Jehovah's covenant, and to all the older men of Israel. 10 And Moses went on to command them, saying: "At the end of every seven years, in the appointed time of the year of the release, in the festival of in the place that he will choose. you will read this law in front of all Israel in their hearing. 12 Conthe women and the little ones and your alien resident who is within your gates, in order that they may YOUR God and take care to carry respect and break my covenant. out all the words of this law. 21 And it must occur that when 13 And their sons who have not many calamities and distresses will known should listen, and they must come upon them, this song must learn to fear Jehovah your God all the days that you are living upon the soil to which you are crossing the Jordan to take possession of it."

15 Then Jehovah appeared at the tent in the pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud began to stand by the entrance of the tent.

16 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Look! You are lying down with your forefathers; and this people will certainly get up and have immoral intercourse with foreign gods of the land to which they are going, in their very midst, and they will certainly forsake me and break my covenant that I have concluded with them. 17 At that my anger will indeed blaze against them in that day, and I shall certainly forfrom them, and they must become something to be consumed: and many calamities and distresses must come upon them, and they will be bound to say in that day, 'Is it not because our God is not in our midst that these calamities have come upon us?' 18 As for me, I shall absolutely conceal my face in that day because of all the badness that they have done, because they have turned to other gods.

19 "And now write for yourselves this song and teach it to the booths, 11 when all Israel comes sons of Israel. Place it in their to see the face of Jehovah your God mouths in order that this song may serve as my witness against the sons of Israel. 20 For I shall bring them to the ground that I have gregate the people, the men and sworn about to their forefathers. which flows with milk and honey. and they will certainly eat and be satisfied and grow fat and turn to listen and in order that they may other gods, and they will indeed learn, as they must fear Jehovah serve them and treat me with disalso answer before them as a witness, because it should not be forgotten out of the mouth of their offspring, for I well know their inclination that they are developing today before I bring them into the land about which I have sworn."

22 So Moses wrote this song in

23 And he proceeded to commission Joshua the son of Nun and to say: "Be courageous and strong, because you-you will bring the sons of Israel into the land about which I have sworn to them. and I myself shall continue with

24 And it came about that as soon as Moses had finished writing the words of this law in a book until their completion, 25 Moses began to command the Levites, the carriers of the ark of Jehovah's covenant, saying: 26 "Taking this book of the law, you must place it at the side of the ark of the covenant of Jehovah your God, and it must serve as a witness there against you. 27 For I—I well know your rebelliousness and your stiff neck. If while I am yet alive with you today, you have proved rebellious in behavior toward Jehovah, then how much more so after my death! 28 Congregate to me all the older men of Your tribes and your officers, and let me speak in their hearing these words, and let me take the heavens and the earth as witnesses against them. 29 For I well know that after my death you will without fail act ruinously, and you will certainly turn aside from the way about which I have commanded you: and calamity will be bound to befall you at the close of the days, because you will do what is bad in the eyes of Jehovah so as to offend him by the works of your hands."

30 And Moses proceeded to speak in the hearing of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song until their completion:

"Give ear, O heavens, and let me speak:

And let the earth hear the savings of my mouth.

6 Is it to Jehovah that you keep doing this way.

O people stupid and not wise? Is he not your Father who has produced you.

He who made you and proceeded to give you stability?

7 Remember the days of old. CONSIDER the years back from generation to generation;

Ask your father, and he can tell you;

Your old men, and they can say it to you.

When he parted the sons of Adam from one another, He proceeded to fix the bound-

Jacob is the allotment that he inherits.

10 He came to find him in a wilderness land.

And in an empty, howling desert.

He began to encircle him, to take care of him.

To safeguard him as the pupil of his eve.

And the blood of the grape you kept drinking as wine. 15 When Jesh'u run began to grow fat, then he kicked.

You have grown fat, you have become thick, you have become gorged. So he forsook God, who made him. And despised the Rock of his salvation.

16 They began inciting him to jealousy with strange gods; With detestable things they kept offending him.

17 They went sacrificing to demons, not to God.

Gods whom they had not known.

New ones who recently came in. With whom your forefathers were not acquainted.

18 The Rock who fathered you, you proceeded to forget,

And you began to leave God out of memory, the One bringing you forth with childbirth pains.

19 When Jehovah saw it, then he came to disrespect them, Because of the vexation his sons and his daughters gave. 20 So he said. 'Let me conceal my face from them. Let me see what their end will be afterward. For they are a generation of perverseness,

Sons in whom there is no faithfulness.

21 They, for their part, have incited me to jealousy with what is no god;

They have vexed me with their vain idols;

And I, for my part, shall incite them to jealousy with what is no people;

With a stupid nation I shall offend them.

22 For a fire has been ignited in my anger And it will burn down to

She'ol, the lowest place. And it will consume the earth and its produce And will set ablaze the foundations of mountains. 23 I shall increase calamities upon them:

My arrows I shall spend upon them.

24 Exhausted from hunger they will be and eaten up by burning fever

And bitter destruction. And the teeth of beasts I shall send upon them.

With the venom of reptiles of the dust.

25 Outdoors a sword will bereave them. And indoors fright.

Of both young man and virgin, Suckling together with grayhaired man.

26 I should have said: "I shall disperse them,

I will make the mention of them cease from mortal men."

27 Were it not that I was afraid of vexation from the enemy. That their adversaries might misconstrue it.

That they might say: "Our hand has proved superior, And it was not Jehovah who worked all this out." 28 For they are a nation on whom counsel perishes. And among them there is no understanding. 29 O that they were wise! Then they would ponder over this.

They would consider their end afterward.

30 How could one pursue a thousand.

43 Be glad, you nations, with his people,

And he will pay back vengeance to his adversaries

And will indeed make atonement for the ground of his people."

44 Thus Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he and Ho-she'a the son of Nun. 45 After Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel, 46 he went on to say to them: "Apply your hearts to all the words that I am speaking in warning to you today, that you may command your sons to take care to do all the words of this law. 47 For it is no valueless word for you, but it means your life, and by this word you may lengthen your days upon the soil to which you are crossing the Jordan to take possession of it."

48 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Moses on this same day. saying: 49 "Go up into this mountain of Ab'a rim, Mount Ne'bo, which is in the land of Mo'ab, which fronts toward Jer'i-cho, and see the land of Ca'naan, which I am giving to the sons of Israel as a possession. 50 Then die on the mountain into which you are going up, and be gathered to your people, just as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor and got to be gathered to his people; 51 for the reason that you men acted undutifully toward me in the middle of the sons of Israel at the waters of 251 Jehovah king, Moses blesses tribes DEUTERONOMY 32: 52-33: 16

99 Now this is the blessing with 33 which Moses the man of the [true] God blessed the sons of Israel before his death. 2 And he proceeded to say:

Then Joshua the son of Nun sent two men out secretly from Shit'tim as spies, saying: "Go, take a look at the land and Jer'icho." 8 As for these, before they could lie down, she herself came up to them on the roof. 9 And she went on to say to the men: "I do know that Jehovah will certainly 16 Accordingly they answered give you the land, and that the Joshua, saying: "All that you have fright of you has fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the wherever you may send us we shall land have become disheartened because of you. 10 For we have heard how Jehovah dried up the waters of the Red Sea from before prove to be with you just as he you when you came out of Egypt. proved to be with Moses. 18 Any and what you did to the two kings man that behaves rebelliously of the Am'or ites who were on the other side of the Jordan, namely, Si'hon and Og, whom you devoted may command us will be put to to destruction. 11 When we got to death. 14 At that the men said to her:

you people! If you will not tell | him all the things that had hapus the land, we also shall certainly exercise loving-kindness and trustworthiness toward you." 15 After that she had them descend by a rope through the window, for her house was on a side of the wall, and it was on the wall that she was dwelling. 16 And she proceeded to say to them: "Go to the mountainous region, that those in pursuit may not come in contact with you; and you must keep hid there three days, until those in pursuit have come back, and afterward you may go in your own direction."

17 In turn the men said to her: "We are free from guilt respecting this oath of yours that you have made us swear. 18 Look! We are coming into the land. This cord of scarlet thread you should tie in the window by which you have had us descend, and your father and your mother and your brothers and all the household of your father you should gather to yourself into the house. 19 And it must occur that anyone who goes out of the doors of your house into the open, his blood will be upon his own head and we shall be free from guilt: and everyone who continues with you in the house, his blood will be on our heads if a hand should come upon him. 20 And if you should report this matter of ours. we shall also have become free from guilt respecting this oath of yours that you have made us swear," 21 To this she said: "According to your words so let it be.'

With that she sent them off, and they went their way. After that she tied the scarlet cord in the window. 22 So they went and came to the mountainous region and kept dwelling there three days, until the pursuers had come back. Now the pursuers were looking for them on every road, and they did not find them. 23 And the two men proceeded to descend again from the mountainous region and to cross over and come to Joshua the son and listen to the words of Jehovah

2 So it came about at the end of the three days that the officers proceeded to pass through the midst of the camp 3 and to command the people, saving: "As soon as you see the ark of the covenant of Jehovah your God, and the priests, the Levites, carrying it. then you yourselves will pull away from your place, and you must follow it, 4 -only let there prove to be a distance between you and it of about two thousand cubits by measure; do not get near to it-in order that you may know the way by which you should go, for you have not passed over on that way before."

5 Joshua now said to the people: "Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow Jehovah will do wonderful things in your midst."

6 Then Joshua said to the priests: "Take up the ark of the covenant and pass before the people." So they took up the ark of the covenant and went before the people.

7 And Jehovah proceeded to sav to Joshua: "This day I shall start to make you great in the eyes of all Israel, that they may know that just as I proved to be with Moses I shall prove to be with you. 8 And you-you should command the priests carrying the ark of the covenant, saying, 'As soon as you have come as far as the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you should stand still in the Jordan '"

9 And Joshua went on to say to the sons of Israel: "Approach here of Nun, and they began to relate to your God." 10 After that Joshua

The ark of the covenant of the Lord of the whole earth is passing before you into the Jordan. 12 And now take tribe: 5 and Joshua went on to for yourselves twelve men from the say to them: "Pass ahead of the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe. 13 And it must occur that at the instant that the soles of the for yourselves each one a stone feet of the priests carrying the ark of Jehovah, the Lord of the whole earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan will be cut off, the waters descending from above, and they will stand still as one dam."

14 And it came about that when the people pulled away from their tents just before passing over the Jordan, with the priests carrying the ark of the covenant before the people, 15 and at the instant that the carriers of the Ark came as far as the Jordan and the feet of the priests carrying the Ark were dipped in the edge of the waters (now the Jordan overflows all its banks all the days of harvest), 16 then the waters descending from above began to stand still. They rose up as one dam very far away at A'dam, the city at the side of Zar'e-than, while those descending toward the sea of the Ar'a bah, the Salt Sea, were exhausted. They were cut off, and the people passed over in front of Jer'i-cho. 17 Meanwhile the priests carrying the ark of Jehovah's covenant kept standing immovable on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan as all Israel were passing over on dry ground, until the whole nation had completed passing over the Jordan.

4 And it came about that as soon as the whole nation had completed passing over the Jordan, Jehovah proceeded to say to Joshua: 2 "Take for yourselves twelve men from the people, one man from each tribe, 3 and command came about that as soon as all the them, saying, "Take up for your- people had completed passing over.

said: "By this you will know that | selves from the very middle of the them over with you and deposit them in the lodging place in which you will lodge tonight."

4 So Joshua called twelve men whom he had appointed from the sons of Israel, one man from each ark of Jehovah your God to the middle of the Jordan, and lift up upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel, 6 in order that this may serve as a sign in your midst. In case your sons should ask in time to come, saying, 'Why do you have these stones?' 7 you must also say to them. 'Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off from before the ark of Jehovah's covenant. When it passed through the Jordan the waters of the Jordan were cut off, and these stones must serve as a memorial to the sons of Israel to time indefinite."

8 Accordingly the sons of Israel did so, just as Joshua had commanded, and they took up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, just as Jehovah had stated to Joshua, to correspond with the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel; and they went taking them over with them to the lodging place and depositing them there. 9 There were also twelve stones that Joshua set up in the middle of the Jordan on the standing place of the feet of the priests carrying the ark of the covenant, and they continue there until this dav.

10 And the priests carrying the Ark were standing in the middle of the Jordan until the whole matter had been completed that Jehovah had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. All the while the people hurried up and passed over. 11 And it then the ark of Jehovah passed the earth may know Jehovah's over, and the priests, before the hand, that it is strong; in order people. 12 And the sons of Reu'- that you may indeed fear Jehovah ben and the sons of Gad and the your God always." half tribe of Ma·nas'seh proceeded to pass over in battle formation in 5 as all the kings of the Amore the sight of the sons of Israel, just as Moses had stated to them. 13 About forty thousand equipped for the army passed over before Jehovah for the war onto the desert plains of Jer'i-cho.

14 On that day Jehovah made Joshua great in the eyes of all Israel, and they began to fear him just as they had feared Moses all the days of his life.

15 Then Jehovah said to Joshua: 16 "Command the priests vah said to Joshua: "Make for carrying the ark of the testimony that they go up out of the Jor-the sons of Israel again, the second dan." 17 So Joshua commanded time." 3 Accordingly Joshua the priests, saying: "Go up out of made flint knives for himself and the Jordan." 18 And it came about that when the priests carrying the ark of the covenant of Jehovah came up out of the middle did the circumcising: all the people of the Jordan and the soles of the feet of the priests were drawn out onto the dry ground, then the waters of the Jordan began returning to their place and went overflowing all its banks as formerly.

19 And the people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth of the first month and took up camping at Gil'gal on the eastern border of Jer'i cho.

20 As for the twelve stones that they had taken out of the Jordan, Joshua set these up at Gil'gal. 21 And he went on to say to the sons of Israel: "When your sons ask their fathers in time to come. saving, 'What do these stones mean?' 22 you must then let your sons know, saying, 'On the dry land it was that Israel passed over this Jordan, 23 when Jehovah YOUR God dried up the waters of the Jordan from before them until they had passed over, just as Jehovah your God had done to the they had completed circumcising Red Sea when he dried it up from all the nation, they kept sitting in before us until we had passed over; their place in the camp until they 24 in order that all the peoples of revived.

as all the kings of the Am'orites, who were on the side of the Jordan to the west, and all the kings of the Ca'naan-ites, who were by the sea, heard that Jehovah had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the sons of Israel until they had passed over, then their hearts began to melt. and there proved to be no spiritedness in them any more because of the sons of Israel.

2 At that particular time Jehoyourself flint knives and circumcise circumcised the sons of Israel at Gib'e-ath-ha-ar'a-loth. 4 And this was the reason why Joshua that came out of Egypt, the males. all the men of war, had died in the wilderness on the road when they were coming out of Egypt. 5 For all the people who came out proved to be circumcised, but all the people born in the wilderness on the road when they were coming out of Egypt they had not circumcised. 6 For the sons of Israel had walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation of the men of war who came out of Egypt that did not listen to the voice of Jehovah had come to its finish, to whom Jehovah swore that he would never let them see the land that Jehovah had sworn to their forefathers to give to us, a land flowing with milk and honey. 7 And their sons he raised up instead of them. These Joshua circumcised, because they proved to be uncircumcised. for they had not circumcised them on the road.

8 And it came about that when

With that Joshua fell on his face to the earth and prostrated himself and said to him: "What is my lord saving to his servant?" 15 In turn the prince of the army of Jehovah said to Joshua: "Draw your sandals from off your feet, because the place on which you are standing is holy." At once Joshua did so.

6 Now Jer'i-cho was tightly shut no one going out and no one carrying the ark of Jehovah, entering.

Joshua: "See, I have given Jer'i cho hovah were walking, continually and its king, the valiant mighty blowing the horns, and the warmen, into your hand, 3 And all equipped force was walking ahead you men of war must march round of them, while the rear guard was the city, going round the city once. following the ark of Jehovah with That is the way you should do for a continual blowing on the horns. six days. 4 And seven priests 14 And they went marching round should carry seven rams' horns, be- the city on the second day once, fore the Ark, and on the seventh after which they returned to the 6 Accordingly Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them: "Take up the ark of the on this same day. 12 Then the covenant, and seven priests should manna ceased on the following day carry seven rams' horns before the not occur any more for the sons of and march round the city, and the Israel, and they began to eat some war-equipped force should pass on ahead of the ark of Jehovah." 8 So it came about just as Joshua 13 And it came about when said to the people; and seven priests Joshua happened to be by Jer'i cho carrying seven rams' horns before that he proceeded to raise his eyes Jehovah passed on and blew the and look, and there there was a horns, and the ark of the covenant man standing in front of him with of Jehovah was following them. his drawn sword in his hand. Then you must shout." 11 And he had the ark of Jehovah go marching round the city, going round once, after which they went to the camp and stayed overnight in the camp.

20 Then the people shouted, when they proceeded to blow the horns. And it came about that as soon as the people heard the sound of the horn and the people began to shout a great war cry, then the wall began to fall down flat. At this Jehovah's anger grew hot against the sons of Israel.

2 Then Joshua sent men out from Jer'i cho to A'i, which is close by Beth-a'ven, to the east of Beth'el, and said to them: "Go up and spy on the land." Accordingly the men went up and spied on A'i. 3 After that they returned to Joshua and 22 And to the two men who had said to him: "Let not all the people

6 At this Joshua ripped his mantles and fell upon his face to the earth before the ark of Jehovah until the evening, he and the older men of Israel, and they kept putting dust upon their heads. 7 And Joshua went on to say: "Alas, Lord Jehovah, why did you bring this people all the way across the Jordan, just to give us into the hand of the Am'or ites for them to destroy us? And if only we had taken it upon ourselves and continued dwelling on the other side of the Jordan! 8 Excuse me. O Jehovah, but what can I say after his enemies? 9 And the Ca'naanland will hear of it, and they will name off from the earth; and what will you do for your great name?"

10 In turn Jehovah said to Joshua: "Get up, you! Why is it that you are falling upon your face?

11 Israel has sinned, and they have also overstepped my covenant that I laid as a command upon them; and they have also taken some of the thing devoted to destruction and have also stolen and also kept it secret and have also put it among their own articles. 12 And the sons of Israel will not be able to rise up against their enemies. The back is what they will turn before their enemies, because they have become a thing devoted to destruction. 16 Then Joshua rose early in the morning and had Israel come near. tribe by tribe of it, and the tribe Israel has turned his back before of Judah got to be picked. 17 Next he had the families of Judah come ites and all the inhabitants of the near and picked the family of the Ze'rah-ites, after which he had the certainly surround us and cut our family of the Ze'rah ites come near, able-bodied man by able-bodied man, and Zab'di got to be picked. 18 Finally he had his household come near, able-bodied man by able-bodied man, and A'chan the son of Car'mi, the son of Zab'di, the son of Ze'rah, of the tribe of Judah, got to be picked. 19 Then Joshua said to A'chan: "My son, render, please, glory to Jehovah the God of Israel and make confession to him, and tell me, please, What have you done? Do not hide it from me."

20 At this A'chan answered Joshua and said: "For a fact I-I have sinned against Jehovah the God of Israel, and this way and that of Israel has said: "A thing devoted and, look! they are hidden in the earth in the midst of my tent with | yourselves in readiness. 5 As for the money underneath it."

22 At once Joshua sent messengers, and they went running to the city. And it must occur that, in tent, and, look! it was hidden in case they should come out to meet his tent with the money underneath us just as at the first, we must then it. 23 So they took them from the midst of the tent and brought come out after us until we have them to Joshua and all the sons of drawn them away from the city, Israel and poured them out before for they will say. Jehovah will bring ostracism upon you on this day." With that all Israel went pelting him with stones, after which they burned them with fire. Thus they stoned them with stones. 26 And they proceeded to raise up over him a big pile of stones, down to this day. At this Jehovah turned away from his hot anger. That is why the name of that place has been called Low Plain of A'chor, down to this day,

Then Jehovah said to Joshua: "Do not be afraid or be terrified. Take with you all the people of war and get up, go up to A'i. See, I have given into your hand the king of A'i and his people and his city and his land. 2 And you must do to A'i and to its king just as you did to Jer'i-cho and its king. Only you people may plunder its spoil and its domestic animals for vourselves. Set an ambush of yours against the city at its rear."

3 Accordingly Joshua and all the people of war rose to go up to A'i, and Joshua proceeded to choose thirty thousand men, valiant mighty ones, and to send them off by night. 4 And he went on to command them, saying: "See, you are lying in ambush against the city to the rear of the city. Do not go very far away from the his people, at the appointed time, me and all the people who are with me, we shall go close to the flee before them. 6 And they must we must flee before them. 7 Then your hands. 8 And it must occur the city, you should set the city on fire. According to Jehovah's word you should do. See, I have commanded you."

9 After that Joshua sent them out and they marched to the place of ambush and took up quarters between Beth'el and A'i to the west of A'i, while Joshua kept lodging on that night in the midst of the people.

10 Then Joshua rose up early in the morning and reviewed the people and went up, he and the older men of Israel, before the people to A'i. 11 And all the people of war who were with him went up, that they might approach and get in front of the city, and they proceeded to camp to the north of A'i, with the valley between them and A'i. 12 In the meantime he took about five thousand men and set them as an ambush between Beth'el and A'i, to the west of the city. 13 So the people set the main camp that was to the north of the city and the extreme rear of it that was to the west of the city, and Joshua proceeded to go during that night into the middle of the low plain.

14 And it came about that, as soon as the king of A'i saw it. then the men of the city got in a hurry and rose up early and went out to meet Israel in battle, he and all city, and you must all of you hold before the desert plain. As for him. he did not know that there was an the sword until they came to their ambush against him to the rear of end. After that all Israel returned the city. 15 When Joshua and all to A't and struck it with the edge Israel suffered a blow before them, of the sword, 25 And all those then they took to flight by the way who fell on that day, from man to of the wilderness. 16 At that all woman, amounted to twelve thouthe people who were in the city were called out to chase after them. Joshua did not draw back his hand and they went chasing after Joshua with which he stretched out the and got to be drawn away from the city. 17 And there was not a the inhabitants of A'i to destrucman remaining in A'i and Beth'el tion. 27 Only the domestic animals that did not go out after Israel, and the spoil of that city Israel so that they left the city wide open and went chasing after Israel.

3 And the inhabitants of Gib'e on heard what Joshua had done to Jer'i-cho and A'i. 4 So they, even of their own accord, acted with shrewdness and went and stocked themselves with provisions and took worn-out sacks for their asses, and wine skin-bottles worn out and burst and tied up, 5 and of the assembly swore to them. worn-out and patched sandals on their feet, and worn-out garments upon themselves, and all the bread of their provisions proved to be dry and crumby. 6 Then they went to Joshua at the camp at Gil'gal and said to him and the men of Israel: "It is from a distant land that we have come. And now conclude a covenant with us." 7 At this the men of Israel said to the Hi'vites: "Perhaps it is in our vicinity that you are dwelling. So how could we conclude a covenant with you?" 8 In turn they said to Joshua: "We are your servants."

It was only all humankind that they struck with the edge of the sword until they had annihilated them. They did not let anyone that breathed remain. 15 Just as Jehovah had commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did. He did not remove a word from all that Jehovah had commanded Moses.

33 And to the tribe of the Levites Moses did not give an inheritance. Jehovah the God of Israel is their inheritance, just as he has promised them.

Now this is what the sons of Israel took as a hereditary possession in the land of Ca'naan, which E-le-a'zar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel caused them to inherit. 2 Their inheritance was by lot, just as Jehovah had commanded by means of Moses for the nine tribes and the half tribe. 3 For Moses had given the inheritance of the two other tribes and the other half tribe on the other side of the Jordan; and to the Levites he did not give an inheritance in their midst. 4 For the sons of Joseph had become two tribes, Ma·nas'seh and E'phra·im; and they had not given a share in the land to the Levites, except cities to dwell in and their pasture grounds for their livestock and their property. 5 Just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did: and they proceeded to apportion the land.

As my power was then, so my power is now for the war, both to go out and to come in. 12 And now do give me this mountainous region that Jehovah promised on that day, for you yourself heard on that day that there were An'a-kim there and great fortified cities. 13 At that Joshua blessed him and gave He'bron to Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh as an inheritance. 14 That is why He'bron has come to belong to Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh the Ken'iz-zite as an inheritance down to this day, for the reason that he followed Jehovah the God of Israel fully. 15 The name of He'bron before that was Kir'i ath-ar'ba (said Ar'ba was the great man among the An'a kim). 24 And Joshua proceeded to assemble all the tribes of Israel together at She'chem and to call the older men of Israel and its heads and its judges and its officers, and they went taking their stand before the [true] God. 2 And Joshua went on to say to all the people: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'It was on the other side of the River that your forefathers dwelt a long time ago, Te'rah the father of Abraham and the father of Na'hor, and they used to serve other gods.

Later to E'sau I gave Mount Se'ir to take possession of it; and Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt. 5 Later on I sent Moses and Aaron, and I went plaguing Egypt with what I did in its midst; and afterward I brought you out. 6 When I was bringing your fathers out of Egypt and you came to the sea, then the Egyptians went chasing after your fathers with war chariots and cavalrymen to the Red Sea. 7 And they began to cry out to Jehovah. So he placed a darkness between you and the Egyptians and brought the sea upon them and covered them, and your eyes got to see what I did in Egypt; part, to leave Jehovah so as to serve and you took up dwelling in the other gods. 17 For it is Jehovah wilderness many days, our God who brought us and our 11 "Then you went crossing the Jordan and came to Jer'i-cho. And the landowners of Jer'i-cho, the Am'or ites and the Per'iz-zites and the Ca'naan ites and the Hit'tites and the Gir'ga shites, the Hi'vites and the Jeb'u sites began fighting against you; but I gave them into Your hand. 12 So I sent the feeling of dejection ahead of you, and it gradually drove them out before you-two kings of the Am'or ites -not with your sword and not with your bow. 13 Thus I gave you a land for which you had not toiled and cities that you had not built, and you took up dwelling in them. And the land had no further disturbance for forty years.

Then the sons of Israel began to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah. So Jehovah gave them into the hand of Mid'i an for seven years. 2 And the hand of Mid'i an came to prevail over Israel. Due to Mid'i an the sons of Israel made for themselves the underground store places that were in the mountains, and the caves and the places difficult to approach. 3 And it occurred that, if Israel sowed seed. Mid'i an and Am'a lek and the Easterners came up, ves, they came up against them. 4 And they would camp against them and would ruin the yield of the earth all the way to Ga'za, and they would not let any sustenance or sheep or bull or ass remain in Israel. 5 For they and their livestock would come up with their tents. They would come as numerous as the locusts, and they and their camels were without number: and they would come into the land to ruin it. 6 And Israel became greatly impoverished due to Mid'i an; and the sons of Israel began to call to Jehovah for aid.

11 Later Jehovah's angel came and sat under the big tree that was the sun goes forth in its in Oph'rah, which belonged to Jo'ash the A'bi-ez'rite, while Gid'eon his son was beating out wheat in the wine press so as to get it quickly out of the sight of Mid'i an. 12 Then Jehovah's angel appeared to him and said to him: "Jehovah is with you, you valiant, mighty one." 13 At this Gid'e on said to him: "Excuse me, my lord, but if Jehovah is with us, then why has all this come upon us, and where are all his wonderful acts that our fathers related to us, saying, 'Was it not out of Egypt that Jehovah brought us up?' And now Jehovah has deserted us, and he gives us into the palm of Mid'i-an." 14 Upon that Jehovah faced him and said: "Go in this power of yours, and you will certainly save Israel out of Mid'i an's palm. Do I not send you?" 15 In turn he said to him: "Excuse me, Jehovah. With what shall I save Israel? Look! My thousand is the least in Ma nas'seh. and I am the smallest in my father's house." 16 But Jehovah said to him: "Because I shall prove to be with you, and you will certainly strike down Mid'i an as if one man."

At once Gid'e on said: "Alas. Lord Jehovah, for the reason that I have seen Jehovah's angel face him: "Peace be yours. Do not fear. You will not die." 24 So Gid'e on built an altar there to Jehovah, and it continues to be called Jehovah-sha'lom down to this day. It is yet in Oph'rah of the A'biez'rites.

25 And it came about during that night that Jehovah went on to say to him: "Take the young bull, the bull that belongs to your father, that is, the second young bull of seven years, and you must tear down the altar of Ba'al that is your father's, and the sacred pole that is by it you should cut down. 26 And you must build an altar to Jehovah your God at the head of this stronghold, with the row of stones, and you must take the second young bull and offer it up as a burnt offering on the pieces of wood of the sacred pole that you li, ar will cut down." 27 Accordingly him. If he is God, let him make a legal defense for himself, because someone has pulled down his altar." 32 And he began to call him Jer·ub·ba'al on that day, saying: "Let Ba'al make a legal defense in his own behalf, because someone has pulled down his altar."

Gid'e on said to the [true] God: "Do not let your anger blaze against me, but let me speak just once more. Let me, please, make a test only once more with the fleece. Let, please, dryness occur to the fleece alone, and upon all the earth let there come to be dew." 40 So God did that way on that night; and dryness came to be on the fleece alone, and upon all the earth dew occurred.

Then Jer·ub·ba'al, that is to say. Gid'e on, and all the people who were with him, rose early and took up camping at the well to be down below him in the low of Ha'rod; and the camp of Mid'i an happened to be on the north of him, at the hill of Mo'reh, in the low plain. 2 Jehovah now said to Gid'e-on: "The people who are with you are too many for me to give Mid'i an into their hand, Perhaps Israel would brag about itself against me, saying, 'My hand it was that saved me.' 3 And now call out, please, in the hearing of the people, saying, 'Who is there afraid and trembling? Let him retire.' " So Gid'e on put them to the proof. With that, twenty-two thousand of the people retired, and there were ten thousand that remained.

4 Still Jehovah said to Gid'e on: "There are yet too many people. Have them go down to the water for you there. And it must occur that of whomever I say to you, 'This one will go with you,' he is one that will go with you, but every one will not go along with you.' he that I have dreamed. And, look!

Then Jehovah said to Gid'e on: "Every one that laps up some of the water with his tongue just as a dog laps, you will set him by down upon his knees to drink." turned out to be three hundred men. As for all the rest of the people, they bent down upon their knees to drink water.

7 Jehovah now said to Gid'e on: "By the three hundred men who did the lapping I shall save you people, and I will give Mid'i an into your hand. As for all the other people, let them go each one to his place." 8 So they took the provisions of the people in their hand, and their horns, and all the men of Israel he sent away each one to his home; and he kept hold of the three hundred men. As for the camp of Mid'i an, it happened plain.

9 And it came about during that night that Jehovah proceeded to say to him: "Rise up, descend upon the camp, for I have given it into your hand, 10 But if you are afraid to descend, descend, you with Pu'rah your attendant, to the camp. 11 And you must listen to what they will speak, and afterward your hands will certainly grow strong, and you will be certain to descend upon the camp." At that he and Pu'rah his attendant made their descent to the edge of those in battle formation who were in the camp.

12 Now Mid'i an and Am'a lek and all the Easterners were plumped in the low plain as numerous as locusts; and their camels were that I may put them to the proof without number, as numerous as the grains of sand that are on the seashore. 13 Gid'e on now came, and, look! there was a man relating a dream to his companion, and he one of whom I say to you, "This went on to say: "Here is a dream bread turning over and over into ued to blow the horns, and Jehovah the camp of Mid'i-an. The [true] God camp into his hand."

15 And it came about that as soon as Gid'e-on heard the relating of the dream and its explanation. he began to worship. After that he returned to the camp of Israel and said: "Get up, for Jehovah has given the camp of Mid'i-an into YOUR hand." 16 Then he divided the three hundred men up into large jars. 17 And he went on to O'reb and Ze'eb; and they proceedsay to them: "You should learn ed to kill O'reb on the rock of from watching me, and that is how you should do. 19 In time Gid'e-on came with him to the edge of the camp at the start of the middle night watch. They had just got through posting the sentries. And they proceeded to blow the horns, and there was a dashing to pieces of the large water jars that were in their hands. 20 At that the three bands blew the horns and shattered the large jars and took fresh hold on the torches with their left hand and with their right hand on the horns to blow them, and they began calling out: "Jehovah's sword and Gid'e on's!" 21 All the while they kept standing each one in his place all around the camp, and the whole camp got on the run and broke

Then the men of E'phra·im said to him: "What sort of thing is this that you have done to us in not calling us when you went to fight against Mid'i-an?" It was then that their spirit calmed down toward him when he spoke this word.

4 Eventually Gid'e on came to the Jordan, crossing it, he and the three hundred men that were with him, tired but keeping up the pursuit. 5 Later he said to the men of Suc'coth: "Please give round out into shouting and went fleeing, loaves of bread to the people that are following my steps, for they ready in your hand so that bread are tired and I am chasing after has to be given to your tired-out Ze'bah and Zal·mun'na, the kings men?" 16 Then he took the older of Mid'i an." 6 But the princes men of the city and thorns of the of Suc'coth said: "Are the palms of Ze'bah and of Zal·mun'na already in your hand so that bread through an experience, 17 And has to be given to your army?" 7 At this Gid'e on said: "That is why when Jehovah gives Ze'bah men of the city, and Zal·mun'na into my hand. I shall certainly give your flesh a threshing with the thorns of the wilderness and the briers." 8 And he continued on his way up from there to Pe nu'el and went speaking to them in this same manner, but the men of Pe·nu'el answered him just as the men of Suc'coth had answered. 9 Hence he said also to the men of Pe-nu'el: "When I return in peace, I shall pull down Je'ther his first-born: "Get up, kill this tower."

10 Now Ze'bah and Zal·mun'na were in Kar'kor, and their camps with them, about fifteen thousand being all who were left over out of the entire camp of the Easterners; and those already fallen were a hundred and twenty thousand men who used to draw the sword. 11 And Gid'e-on continued on up by the way of those residing in tents to the east of No'bah and Jog'be hah and began to strike the camp while the camp happened to be off guard. 12 When Ze'bah and Zal·mun'na took to flight, he at once went in pursuit of them and got to capture Mid'i an's two kings, Ze'bah and Zal·mun'na; and he drove all the camp into trembling.

Jo'ash began his return from the war by the pass that goes up to He'res. 14 En route he captured a young man of the men of Suc'coth and made inquiries of him. So he wrote out for him the names of the princes of Suc'coth and its older spread out a mantle and went men, seventy-seven men. 15 With throwing each one the nose ring that he went to the men of Suc'coth and said: "Here are Ze'bah and Zal·mun'na respecting whom you taunted me, saying, 'Are the palms to one thousand seven hundred of Ze'bah and of Zal·mun'na al- gold shekels, besides the moon-

And the young man did not draw his sword, because he was afraid, for he was yet a young man. 21 So Ze'bah and Zal·mun'na said: "Get up yourself and assault us, for as a man is, so is his mightiness," Accordingly Gid'e on got up and killed Ze'bah and Zal-mun'na and took the moon-shaped ornaments that were on the necks of their camels, and do not an early and and con-

33 And it came about that as soon as Gid'e on had died the sons of Israel again took up having immoral intercourse with the Ba'als. so that they appointed Ba'al-be'-rith as their god. 34 And the sons of Israel did not remember Jehovah their God, who had delivered them out of the hand of all their enemies round about; 35 and they did not exercise loving-kindness toward the household of Jer·ub·ba'al, Gid'e·on, in return for all the goodness that he had exercised toward Israel.

So they said to the olive tree, 'Do be king over us.' 9 But the olive tree said to them, 'Must I give up my fatness with which they glorify God and men, and must I go to wave over the other trees?' 10 Then the trees said to the fig tree, 'You come, be queen over us. 11 But the fig tree said to them. 21 Then Jo'tham took to flight and went running off and made his way to Be'er, and he took up dwelling there because of A.bim'e·lech his brother.

30 And Ze'bul the prince of the city got to hear the words of Ga'al the son of E'bed. Then his anger blazed. 31 So he sent messengers by subterfuge to A.bim'e-lech, saving: "Look! Ga'al the son of E'bed and his brothers are now come to She'chem, and here they are massing the city against you. 32 And now rise up by night, you and the people that are with you, and lie in wait in the field. 33 And it make a dash against the city; and with him are going out against you, you must also do to him just 41 And A.bim'e-lech continued to dwell in A·ru'mah, and Ze'bul proceeded to drive Ga'al and his brothers out from dwelling in She'chem. 42 And it came about on the next day that the people began to go out into the field. So they told A.bim'e-lech. 43 Hence he took the people and divided them up into three bands and began to lie in wait in the field. Then he looked, and there the people were up against them and struck them down. 44 And A.bim'e-lech and the bands that were with him made went striking them down. 45 And that he died.

46 When all the landowners of the tower of She'chem heard of it. they immediately went to the vault of the house of El-be'rith. 47 Then that all the landowners of the tower of She'chem had collected together. 48 At that A.bim'e-lech went up Mount Zal'mon, he and all the people that were with him. 37 Later Ga'al spoke once more A.bim'e-lech now took an ax in his and said: "Look! People coming hand and cut down a branch of down out of the center of the land, the trees and lifted it up and put and one band is coming by the way it on his shoulder and said to the people that were with him: "What 38 At this Ze'bul said to him: you have seen me do-hurry up, do like me!" 49 So all the people cut down also each one a branch for himself and went following Is not this the people whom you A.bim'e-lech. 50 And A.bim'e-lech proceeded to go to The'bez and to camp against The'bez and capture it. 51 As a strong tower happened to be in the middle of the city, there was where all the men and women and all the landowners of the city went fleeing, after which they shut it behind them and climbed onto the roof of the tower. 52 And A.bim'e.lech made his way to the tower and began fighting against it, and he went on up close to the entrance of the tower to burn it with fire. 53 Then a certain woman pitched an upper millstone upon A.bim'e-lech's head and going out of the city. He now rose broke his skull in pieces. 54 So he quickly called the attendant bearing his weapons and said to him: "Draw your sword and put a dash that they might stand at me to death, for fear they should the entrance of the city gate, while say about me, 'It was a woman two bands made a dash against all that killed him." Immediately his who were in the field, and they attendant ran him through, so

55 When the men of Israel got | 10 And the sons of Israel began to to see that A.bim'e.lech had died. they now went each one to his place. 56 Thus God made the cause we have left our God and evil of A.bim'e-lech that he had done to his father by killing his seventy brothers come back. 57 And all the evil of the men of She'chem God made come back upon their own heads, that the malediction of Jo'tham the son of Jer·ub·ba'al might come upon them.

10 Now after A-bim'e-lech there rose up to save Israel To'la the son of Pu'ah, the son of Do'do. a man of Is'sa char, and he was dwelling in Sha'mir in the mountainous region of E'phra·im. 2 And he continued to judge Israel for twenty-three years, after which he died and was buried in Sha'mir.

3 Then after him Ja'ir the Gil'e-ad-ite rose up, and he continued to judge Israel for twenty-two years. 4 And he came to have thirty sons who rode on thirty full-grown asses, and they had thirty cities. These they continue to call Hav'voth-ja'ir down to this day: they are in the land of Gil'e-ad. 5 After that Ja'ir died and was buried in Ka'mon.

6 And the sons of Israel again proceeded to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah, and they began to serve the Ba'als and the Ash'toreth images and the gods of Syria and the gods of Si'don and the gods of Mo'ab and the gods of the sons of Am'mon and the gods of the Phi-lis'tines. So they left Jehovah and did not serve him. 7 At this Jehovah's anger blazed against Israel, so that he sold them into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines and into the hand of the sons of Am'mon. 8 Hence they shattered and heavily oppressed the sons of Israel in that year—for eighteen years all the sons of Israel that were on the side of the Jordan in the land of the Am'or ites that was in Gil'e-ad. 9 And the sons of Am'mon would cross the Jordan to fight even against Judah and Benjamin you are the son of another woman." and the house of E'phra·im; and 3 So Jeph'thah ran away because

11 Then Jehovah said to the sons of Israel: "Was it not from Egypt and from the Am'or ites and from the sons of Am'mon and from the Phi-lis'tines 12 and the Si-do'ni ans and Am'a lek and Mid'i an, when they oppressed you and you went crying out to me, that I proceeded to save you out of their hand? 13 As for you, you abandoned me and took up serving other gods. That is why I shall not save you again. 14 Go and call for aid to the gods whom you have chosen. Let them be the ones to save you in the time of your distress." 15 But the sons of Israel said to Jehovah: "We have sinned. You yourself do to us according to anything that is good in your eyes. Only deliver us, please, this day." 16 And they began to remove the foreign gods from their midst and to serve Jehovah, so that his soul became impatient because of the trouble of Israel.

17 In time the sons of Am'mon were called together and pitched camp in Gil'e ad. So the sons of Israel gathered themselves together and pitched camp in Miz'pah. 18 And the people and the princes of Gil'e ad began to say to one another: "Who is the man that will take the lead in fighting against. the sons of Am'mon? Let him become the head of all the inhabitants of Gil'e-ad."

Now Jeph'thah the Gil'e-ad-ite had become a mighty, valiant man, and he was the son of a prostitute woman, and Gil'e-ad came to be the father of Jeph'thah. 2 And Gil'e-ad's wife kept bearing sons to him. When the sons of the wife got big, they proceeded to drive Jeph'thah out and to say to him: "You must have no inheritance in the household of our father, for Israel was greatly distressed, of his brothers and took up dwellmen kept bringing themselves to- now do return it peacefully." gether to Jeph'than, and they would 14 But Jeph'than sent once more go out with him.

while that the sons of Am'mon began to fight against Israel. 'Israel did not take the land of 5 And it came about that when Mo'ab and the land of the sons of the sons of Am'mon did fight against Israel, the older men of Gil'e ad immediately went to take Jeph'thah out of the land of Tob. 6 Then they said to Jeph'thah: "Do come and serve as our commander, and let us fight against the sons of Am'mon." 7 But Jeph'thah said to the older men of Gil'e-ad: "Was it not you that hated me so that you drove me out of my father's house? And why is it that you have come to me now just when you are in distress?" 8 At this the older men of Gil'e ad said to Jeph'thah: "That is why now we have returned to you, and you must go with us and fight against the sons of Am'mon, and you must become for us the head of all the inhabitants of Gil'e-ad." 9 So Jeph'thah said to the older men of Gil'e ad: "If you are bringing me back to fight against the sons of Am'mon, and Jehovah does abandon them to me, I, for my part, shall become your head!" 10 In turn the older men of Gil'e ad said to Jeph'thah: "Let Jehovah prove to be the listener between us if the way we shall do is not according to your word." 11 Consequently Jeph'thah went with the older men of Gil'e-ad and the people set him over them as head and commander. And Jeph'thah proceeded to speak all his words before Jehovah in Miz'pah, 12 Then Jeph'thah sent messengers to the king of the sons of Am'mon, saying: "What do I have to do with you, seeing that you have come against me to fight in my land?" 13 So the king of the sons of Am'mon said to the messengers of Jeph'thah: "It is because Israel took my land when they came up out of Egypt, from

"This is what Jeph'thah has said, Am'mon. 16 For when they came up out of Egypt Israel went walking through the wilderness as far as the Red Sea and got to come to Ka'desh. 17 Then Israel sent messengers to the king of E'dom, saying: "Let me pass, please, through your land," and the king of E'dom did not listen. And also to the king of Mo'ab they sent, and he did not consent, And Israel kept dwelling in Ka'desh. 18 When they walked on through the wilderness, they went their way around the land of E'dom and the land of Mo'ab, so that they went toward the rising of the sun as respects the land of Mo'ab and took up camping in the region of the Ar'non; and they did not come within the boundary of Mo'ab, because Ar'non was the boundary of Moab.

19 "'After that Israel sent messengers to Si'hon the king of the Am'or · ites, the king of Hesh'bon. and Israel said to him: "Let us pass, please, through your land to my own place." 20 And Si'hon did not feel sure about Israel's crossing through his territory, and Si'hon went gathering all his people together and camping in Ja'haz and fighting against Israel. 21 At this Jehovah the God of Israel gave Si'hon and all his people into Israel's hand, so that they struck them and Israel took possession of all the land of the Am'or ites inhabiting that land. 22 Thus they took possession of all the territory of the Am'or ites from the Ar'non as far as the Jab'bok and from the wilderness as far as the Jordan.

23 "'And now Jehovah the God of Israel it was that dispossessed the Am'or ites from before his people Israel, and you, for your part, would dispossess them. 24 Is the Ar'non as far as the Jab'bok it not whomever Che'mosh your god

I have not sinned against you, but you are dealing wrong with me by fighting against me. Let Jehovah the Judge judge today between the sons of Israel and the sons of Am'mon."

28 And the king of the sons of Am'mon did not listen to the words for two months, and let me go, of Jeph'thah that he had sent to and I will descend upon the mounupon Jeph'thah, and he proceeded to pass through Gil'e ad and Manas'seh and to pass through Miz'peh of Gil'e ad, and from Miz'peh and she kept going, she with her of Gil'e ad he passed along to the girl companions, and weeping over sons of Am'mon.

30 Then Jeph'thah made a vow to Jehovah and said: "If you without fail give the sons of Am'mon into my hand, 31 it must also occur that the one coming out. who comes out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return And it came to be a regulation in in peace from the sons of Am'mon. must also become Jehovah's, and I must offer that one up as a burnt offering."

32 So Jeph'thah passed along to the sons of Am'mon to fight against them, and Jehovah proceeded to give them into his hand, 33 And he went striking them from A·ro'er all the way to Min'nithtwenty cities-and as far as A'belker'a mim with a very great slaughter. Thus the sons of Am'mon were subdued before the sons of Israel.

So he sent her away for two months: her virginity upon the mountains. 39 And it came about at the end of two months that she made her return to her father, after which he carried out his vow that he had made toward her. As for her, she never had relations with a man. Israel: 40 From year to year the daughters of Israel would go to give commendation to the daughter of Jeph'thah the Gil'e-ad-ite, four days in the year.

12 Then the men of E'phra im were called together and crossed over northward and said to Jeph'thah: "Why is it that you crossed over to fight against the sons of Am'mon, and to us you did not issue a call to go with you? Your very house we shall burn over you with fire." 2 But Jeph'thah said to them: "I became a special

At that Jehovah gave them into my hand. So why have you come up against me this day to fight against me?"

4 Immediately Jeph'thah collected all the men of Gil'e-ad together and fought E'phra.im: and the men of Gil'e-ad went striking E'phra im down, for they had said: "Men escaped from E'phra im is what you are, O Gil'e-ad, inside of E'phra·im, inside of Ma·nas'seh." 5 And Gil'e ad got to capture the fords of the Jordan ahead of E'phra·im; and it occurred that when the escaping men of E'phraim would say: "Let me pass over," then the men of Gil'e ad would say to each one: "Are you an E'phra·im·ite?" When he would say: "No!" 6 then they would say to him: "Please say Shib'bo leth." And he would say: "Sib'bo-leth," as he was unable to say the word correctly. And they would lay hold of him and slay him at the fords of the Jordan. So there fell at that time forty-two thousand out of 13 And the sons of Israel engaged again in doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, so that Jehovah gave them into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines for forty years.

2 Meanwhile there happened to be a certain man of Zo'rah of the family of the Dan'ites, and his name was Ma·no'ah. And his wife was barren and had borne no child. 3 In time Jehovah's angel appeared to the woman and said to her: "Look, now, you are barren and have borne no child. And you will certainly become pregnant and give birth to a son. 4 And now watch yourself, please, and do not drink wine or intoxicating liquor, and do not eat anything unclean. 5 For, look! you will be pregnant. and you will certainly give birth to a son, and no razor should come upon his head, because a Naz'i rite of God is what the child will become on leaving the belly; and he it is who will take the lead in saving Israel out of the hand of the Phi·lis'tines."

6 Then the woman went and said to her husband: "There was a man of the [true] God that came to me, and his appearance was like the appearance of the angel of the [true] God, very fear-inspiring. And I did not ask him from just where he was, neither did he tell me his name. 7 But he said to me, 'Look! You will be pregnant. and you will certainly give birth to a son. The man of the [true] God that you just sent, let him, please, come again to us and instruct us as to what we ought to do to the child that will be born." 9 Accordingly the [true] God listened to the voice of Ma.no'ah, and the angel of the [true] God came again to the woman while she was sitting in the field, and Ma-no'ah her husband was not with her. 10 Immediately the woman hurried and ran and told her husband and said to him: "Look! The man that came the other day to me has appeared to me." To among the

11 At that Ma no'ah got up and accompanied his wife and came to the man and said to him: "Are you the man that spoke to the woman?" to which he said: "I am." 12 Then Ma-no'ah said: "Now let your words come true. What will become the child's mode of life and his work?" 13 So Jehovah's angel said to Ma·no'ah: "From everything that I mentioned to the woman she should keep herself. 14 Nothing at all that comes forth from the wine vine should she eat. and no wine or intoxicating liquor let her drink, and no unclean thing of any sort let her eat. Everything that I have commanded her let her keep."

15 Ma·no'ah now said to Jehovah's angel: "Let us, please, detain you and fix up a kid of the goats before you." 16 But Jehovah's angel said to Ma no'ah: "If you detain me, I shall not feed myself on your bread; but if you will render up a burnt offering to Jehovah. you may offer it up." For Ma·no'ah did not know that he was Jehovah's angel. 17 Then Ma·no'ah said to Jehovah's angel: "What is your name, that when your word comes true we shall certainly do you honor?" 18 However, Jehovah's angel said to him: "Just why should you ask about my name, when it is a wonderful one?"

19 And Ma no'ah proceeded to doing something in a wonderful way while Ma no'ah and his wife were looking on. 20 So it came about that, as the flame ascended from off the altar heavenward, then Jehovah's angel ascended in the flame of the altar while Ma-no'ah and his wife were looking on. At once they fell upon their faces to the earth, 21 And Jehovah's angel did not repeat appearing to Mano'ah and his wife any more. Then it was that Ma no'ah knew that he had been Jehovah's angel. 22 Consequently Ma no ah said to his wife: "We shall positively die, because it is God that we have seen." 23 But his wife said to him: "If Jehovah had been delighted only to put us to death, he would not have accepted a burnt offering and grain offering from our hand, and he would not have shown us all these things, and he would not as now have let us hear anything like this."

24 Later the woman gave birth to a son and called his name Samson: and the boy kept getting bigger, and Jehovah continued to bless him. 25 In time Jehovah's spirit started to impel him in Ma'ha neh-dan between Zo'rah and Esh'ta·ol.

Then Samson went down to Tim'nah and saw a woman in Tim'nah of the daughters of the Phi-lis'tines. 2 So he went up and told his father and his mother and said: "There is a woman that I have seen in Tim'nah of the daughters of the Phi-lis'tines, and now get her for me as a wife." 3 But his father and his mother said to him: "Is there not among the daughters of your brothers and among all my people a woman, so that you are going to take a wife from the uncircumcised Phi-lis'tines?" Still Samson said to his father: "Get just her for me, because she is the one just right in my eyes." 4 As for his father and his mother, they did not know that that was from Jehovah, that he was looking take the kid of the goats and the for an opportunity against the Phigrain offering and to offer it upon lis'tines, as at that particular time the Phi·lis'tines were ruling over Israel.

10 And his father continued on his way down to the woman, and Samson proceeded to hold a banquet there; for that was the way the young fellows used to do. 11 And it came about that, on their seeing him, they immediately took thirty groomsmen, that these should keep with him. 12 Then Samson said to them: "Let me, please, propound a riddle to you. If you will without fail tell it to me during the seven days of the banquet and you do solve it. In turn he said to them:

"If you had not plowed with my young cow.

4 And Samson went his way and proceeded to catch three hundred into the fields of standing grain of the Phi-lis'tines. Thus he set on fire everything from sheaf to standing grain and the vineyards and the olive groves.

6 And the Phi-lis'tines began to say: "Who did this?" Then they said: "It was Samson the son-inlaw of the Tim'nite, because he took his wife and then gave her to his groomsman." At that the Phi·lis'tines went up and burned her and her father with fire. 7 In turn Samson said to them: "If you do like this, there is nothing but for me to avenge myself upon you, he went smiting them, piling legs upon thighs with a great slaughter, began to dwell in a cleft of the crag E'tam.

9 Later the Phi·lis'tines came up and camped in Judah and went tramping about in Le'hi. 10 Then the men of Judah said: "Why have you come up against us?" to which they said: "It is to tie Samson that we have come up, to do to him just as he has done to us." 11 So three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the crag E'tam and said to Samson: "Do you not know that the Philis'tines are ruling over us? So what does this mean that you have done Israel in the days of the Phi-lis'to us?" Then he said to them: tines twenty years.

Accordingly they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up foxes and to take torches and turn out of the crag. 14 He, for his tail to tail and put one torch part, came as far as Le'hi, and the between two tails, right in the Phi-lis'tines, for their part, shouted middle. 5 With that he set fire exultantly at meeting him. And to the torches and sent them out Jehovah's spirit became operative upon him, and the ropes that were upon his arms came to be like linen threads that have been scorched with fire, so that his fetters melted off his hands. 15 He now found a moist jawbone of a male ass and thrust his hand out and took it and went striking down a thousand men with it. 16 Then Samson said:

> "With the jawbone of a male ass -one heap, two heaps! With the jawbone of a male ass I have struck down a thousand men."

17 And it came about that when and afterward I shall quit." 8 And he finished speaking, he immediately threw the jawbone out of his hand and called that place after which he went down and Ra'math-le'hi. 18 Now he became very thirsty, and he began to call on Jehovah and say: "It was you that gave this great salvation into the hand of your servant, and now shall I die of thirst and must I fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?" 19 So God split open a mortar-shaped hollow that was in Le'hi, and water began to come out of it, and he proceeded to drink, after which his spirit returned and he revived. That is why he called its name En-hak-kor'e, which is in Le'hi down to this day.

Once Samson went to Ga'za and saw a prostitute woman there and came in to her. 2 And report was made to the Ga'zites. saving: "Samson has come in here." So they surrounded him and lay in wait for him all night long in the city gate. And they kept quiet the whole night, saying: "As soon as the morning gets light, we must also kill him."

3 However, Samson kept lying till midnight and then rose at midnight and grabbed hold of the doors of the city gate and the two in the interior room. At that he side posts and pulled them out along with the bar and put them upon his shoulders and went carrying them up to the top of the mountain that is in front of He'bron, and regard and hars of

4 And it came about after that that he fell in love with a woman in the torrent valley of So'rek, and her name was De·li'lah, 5 And the axis lords of the Phi-lis'tines proceeded to come up to her and to say to her: "Fool him and see in what his great power is and with what we can prevail over him and pulled out the loom pin and the with what we are certain to tie him so as to master him; and we, for our part, shall give you each one thousand one hundred silver nieces"

6 Later De·li'lah said to Samson: "Do tell me, please, In what is your great power and with what Phi-lis'tines brought up to her seven still-moist sinews that had not been dried out. Later she tied him with them. 9 Now the ambush was sitting in the interior room of hers, and she began to say to him: "The Phi·lis'tines are upon he had disclosed to her all his you, Samson!" At that he tore the heart, she immediately sent and sinews in two, just as a twisted thread of tow is torn in two when it smells fire. 10 Subsequently De·li'lah said to Samson: "Look! You have trifled with me that you might speak lies to me. Now tell me, do please, with what you can be tied." 11 So he said to her: "If they tie me tight with new ropes with which no work has been done, I must also grow weak and become like an ordinary man." 12 So De·li'lah took new ropes and tied him with them and said to him: "The Phi-lis'tines are upon you, Samson!" All the while the ambush was sitting tore them in two from off his arms like a thread.

13 After that De·li'lah said to Samson: "Up till now you have trifled with me that you might speak lies to me. Do tell me with what you can be tied." Then he said to her: "If you will weave the seven braids of my head with the warp thread." 14 Accordingly she fixed them with the pin, after which she said to him: "The Philis'tines are upon you, Samson!" So he awoke from his sleep and warp thread.

15 She now said to him: "How dare you say, 'I do love you,' when your heart is not with me? These three times you have trifled with me and have not told me in what your great power is." 16 And it came about that because she prescan you be tied for one to master sured him with her words all the you?" 7 Then Samson said to time and kept urging him, his soul her: "If they tie me with seven got to be impatient to the point still-moist sinews that have not of dying. 17 Finally he disclosed been dried out. Then she called the man and had him shave off the seven braids of his head. after which she started to show the mastery of him, and his power kept departing from upon him. 20 Now she said: "The Phi-lis'-tines are upon you, Samson!" At that he woke up from his sleep and said: "I shall go out as at other times and shake myself free." And he himself did not know that it was Jehovah that had departed from him. 21 So the Phi-lis'tines grabbed hold of him and bored his eyes out and brought him down to Ga'za and bound him with two fetters of copper; and he came to be a grinder in the prison house. 22 Meanwhile the hair of his head started to grow luxuriantly as soon as he had been shaved.

23 As for the Phi-lis'tine axis lords, they gathered together to sacrifice a great sacrifice to Da'gon their god and for rejoicing, and they kept saying: "Our god has given into our hand Samson our enemy!" 24 When the people got to see him, they at once gave way to praising their god, "because," said they, "our god has given into our hand our enemy and the devastator of our land and the one who multiplied our slain."

25 And it came about that because their heart was merry, they began to say: "Call Samson that he may offer us some amusement." So they called Samson out of the prison house that he might make sport before them: and they proceeded to stand him between the pillars. 26 Then Samson said to the boy that was holding him by his hand: "Do permit me to feel the pillars upon which the house is firmly established and let me lean against them." 27 (Incidentally, the house was full of men and women and all the Phi-lis'tine axis lords were there; and upon the roof there were about three

Then he bent himself with power, and the house went falling upon the axis lords and

It was I who took it." At that his mother said: "Blessed may my son be of Jehovah." 3 Accordingly he gave back the thousand one hundred pieces of silver to his mother: and his mother went on to say: "I must without fail sanctify the silver to Jehovah from my hand for my son, so as to make a carved image and a molten statue; and now I shall give it back to you."

So the old man said: "Where are you going, and where do you come from?' 18 In turn he said to him: "We are passing along from Beth'lehem in Judah to the remotest parts of the mountainous region of E'phra·im. That is where I am from, but I went to Beth'le hem in Judah; and it is to my own house that I am going, and there is nobody taking me on into the house. 19 And there are both straw and fodder for our he-asses. and there are both bread and wine for me and your slave girl and for the attendant with your servant. Only do not stay overnight in the public square." 21 With that he brought him into his house and threw mash to the he-asses. Then they washed their feet and began to eat and drink.

22 While they were making their hearts feel good, look! the men of the city, mere good-for-nothing men, surrounded the house, shoving one another against the door; and they kept saying to the old man, the owner of the house: "Bring out the man that came into your house, that we may have intercourse with him." 23 At that the owner of the house went on out to them and said to them: "No, my brothers, do not do anything wrong, please, since this man has come into my house. Do not commit this disgraceful folly. 24 Here are my virgin daughter and his concubine. Let me bring them out, please, and you rape them and do to them what is good

25 And the men did not want to listen to him. Hence the man took hold of his concubine and brought her forth to them outside; and they began to have intercourse with her. and kept on abusing her all night long until the morning, after which they sent her off at the ascending of the dawn. 26 Then the woman came as it was turning to morning, and fell down at the entrance of the man's house where her master was,-until daylight. 27 Later her master rose up in the morning and opened the doors of the house and went out to get on his way. and, look! the woman, his concubine, fallen at the entrance of the house with her hands upon the threshold! 28 So he said to her: "Rise up, and let us go." But there was no one answering. At that the man took her upon the ass and rose up and went to his place.

29 Then he entered his house and took the slaughtering knife and laid hold of his concubine and cut her up according to her bones into twelve pieces and sent her into every territory of Israel. 30 And it occurred that everybody seeing it said: "Such a thing as this has never been brought about or been seen from the day that the sons of Israel went up out of the land of Egypt down to this day. Set your hearts upon it, take counsel and speak."

Consequently all the sons of Israel went out and the assembly congregated themselves as one man, from Dan down to Be'ershe'ba along with the land of Gil'e-ad, to Jehovah at Miz'pah. 2 So the key men of all the people and all the tribes of Israel took their station in the congregation of the people of the [true] God, four hundred thousand men on foot who drew the sword.

3 And the sons of Benjamin got to hear that the sons of Israel had gone up to Miz'pah.

> 17 And the men of Israel were mustered apart from Benjamin, four hundred thousand men drawing sword. Every one of these was a man of war. 18 And they proceeded to rise up and go on up to Beth'el and to inquire of God. Then the sons of Israel said: "Who of us should go up in the lead to the battle against the sons of Benjamin?" To this Jehovah said: "Judah in the lead."

19 After that the sons of Israel rose up in the morning and camped against Gib'e ah.

20 The men of Israel now went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel proceeded to draw up in battle formation against them at Gib'e ah. 21 So the sons of Benjamin came on out from Gib'e ah and brought twentytwo thousand men in Israel down to ruin to the earth on that day. 22 However, the people, the men of Israel, showed themselves courageous and again went drawing up in battle formation in the place where they had drawn up in formation on the first day. 23 Then the sons of Israel went up and wept before Jehovah until the evening and inquired of Jehovah, saying: "Shall I again approach for battle against the sons of Benjamin my brother?" To this Jehovah said: "Go up against him."

24 Accordingly the sons of Israel drew near to the sons of Benjamin on the second day. 25 In turn Benjamin came on out from Gib'-14 Then the sons of Benjamin e ah to meet them on the second went gathering together out of the day and brought a further eighteen cities to Gibe ah to go out to thousand men among the sons of of these drawing sword, 26 At | 35 And Jehovah proceeded to dethat all the sons of Israel, even feat Benjamin before Israel, so all the people, went on up and that the sons of Israel on that day came to Beth'el and wept and sat there before Jehovah and fasted on that day until the evening and offered up burnt offerings and communion offerings before Jehovah. 27 After that the sons of Israel inquired of Jehovah, as it was there that the ark of the covenant of the [true] God was in those days. 28 Now Phin'e has the son of E lea'zar, the son of Aaron, was standing before it in those days, saying: "Shall I go out yet again to battle against the sons of Benjamin my brother or shall I cease to?" To this Jehovah said: "Go up, because tomorrow I shall give him into your hand." 29 Then Israel set men in ambush against Gib'e-ah all around.

30 And the sons of Israel proceeded to go up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day, and to draw up in formation against Gib'e ah the same as at the other times. 31 When the sons of Benjamin went on out to meet the people, they were drawn away from the city. Then, the same as at the other times, they started to strike down some of the people mortally wounded on the highways, one of which goes up to Beth'el and the other to Gib'e-ah, in the field, about thirty men in Israel. 32 So the sons of Benjamin began to say: "They are suffering defeat before us the same as at the first." As for the sons of Israel, they said: "Let us flee, and we shall certainly draw them away from the city onto the highways." 33 And all the men of Israel rose up from their places and went drawing up in formation at Ba'alta'mar, while those of Israel in ambush were making a charge out of their places in the vicinity of Gib'e-ah. 34 Thus ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel came in front of Gib'e-ah, and the fighting was heavy; and the Ben'ia mites did not know that calamity was impending over them.

brought down to ruin in Benjamin twenty-five thousand one hundred men, all of these drawing sword.

36 However, the sons of Benjamin imagined that the men of Israel faced defeat when they kept giving ground to Benjamin because they trusted in the ambush that they had set against Gib'e-ah. 37 As for the ambush, they acted quickly and went dashing toward Gib'e ah. Then the ambush spread out and struck all the city with the edge of the sword.

38 Now the men of Israel had come to the arrangement with the ambush for them to make a smoke signal go up from the city.

39 When the sons of Israel turned around in the battle, Benjamin started to strike down about thirty men mortally wounded among the men of Israel, for they said: "They are unquestionably suffering nothing but defeat before us just as in the first battle." 40 And the signal started to go up from the city as a pillar of smoke. So when Benjamin turned his face back, look! the whole city went up heavenward. 41 And the men of Israel made an about-face, and the men of Benjamin were disturbed. for they saw that calamity had reached them. 42 Hence they turned before the men of Israel in the direction of the wilderness. and the battle followed them up closely, while the men from out of the cities were bringing them down to ruin in their midst. 43 They surrounded Benjamin. They pursued him without a place to rest. They trampled him down directly in front of Gib'e ah toward the rising of the sun. 44 Finally there fell eighteen thousand men of Benjamin, all of these being valiant men, 45 Thus they turned and went fleeing to the wilderness to the crag of Rim'mon. And they made a gleaning of five thousand men of them on the highways, and they kept following closely after them as far as Gi'dom and so struck 8 And they went on to say: down two thousand more men of "Which one out of the tribes of them. 46 And all those of Ben- Israel is it that has not come up jamin that fell on that day to Jehovah at Miz'pah?" And, look! amounted at last to twenty-five no one had come into the camp thousand men drawing sword, all from Ja'besh-gil'e-ad to the conthese being valiant men. 47 But gregation. 9 When the people six hundred men turned and went were counted, well, look! there fleeing to the wilderness to the was not a man there from the crag of Rim'mon, and they continued to dwell on the crag of Rim'mon four months.

48 And the men of Israel came back against the sons of Benjamin and went striking with the edge of the sword those of the city, [from] men to domestic animal up to all that were found. Also, all the cities that were found they consigned to the fire.

21 Now the men of Israel had sworn in Miz'pah, saying: "Not a man of us will give his daughter to Benjamin as a wife." 2 Consequently the people came to Beth'el and kept sitting there before the [true] God until the evening and continued to raise their voice and indulge in a great deal of weeping. 3 And they would say: "Why, O Jehovah the God of Israel, has this occurred in Israel, for one tribe to be missing today from Israel?" 4 And it came about the next day that the people proceeded to get up early and to build an altar there and to offer up burnt offerings and communion offerings.

5 Then the sons of Israel said: "Who is there out of all the tribes of Israel that has not come up in the congregation to Jehovah, for there is a great oath that has taken place respecting the one that has not come up to Jehovah at Miz'pah, saying, 'Let him be put to death without fail.'" 6 And the sons of Israel began to feel regret over Benjamin their brother. So they said: "Today one tribe has been chopped off from Israel. 7 What shall we do to those who are left over as to wives, now that we ourselves have sworn by Jehodaughters as wives?" that gives a wife to Benjamin."

inhabitants of Jabesh-gile-ad. 10 Hence the assembly proceeded to send twelve thousand of the most valiant men there and to command them, saying: "Go, and you must strike the inhabitants of Ja'besh-gil'e-ad with the edge of the sword, even the women and the little ones, 11 And this is the thing that you should do: Every male and every woman that has experienced lying with a male you should devote to destruction." 12 However, they found out of the inhabitants of Ja'besh-gil'e ad four hundred girls, virgins, that had not had intercourse with a man by lying with a male. So they brought them to the camp at Shi'loh, which is in the land of Ca'naan.

13 And all the assembly now sent and spoke to the sons of Benjamin that were on the crag of Rim'mon and offered them peace. 14 Accordingly Benjamin came back at that time. Then they gave them the women that they had preserved alive from the women of Ja'besh-gil'e-ad; but they did not find enough for them. 15 And the people felt regret over Benjamin because Jehovah had made a rupture between the tribes of Israel. 16 Consequently the older men of the assembly said: "What shall we do to the men that are left over as to wives, for womankind has been annihilated out of Benjamin?" 17 Then they said: "There should be a possession for those who have escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe might not be wiped out of Israel. 18 As for us, we are not allowed to give them wives from our daughters, because the sons of Israel have vah not to give them any of our sworn, saying, 'Cursed is the one

19 Finally they said: "Look! have not taken for each one his There is a festival of Jehovah from wife by war, for it was not you year to year in Shi'loh, which is that did the giving to them at a to the north of Beth'el, toward the time when you would become east of the highway that goes up guilty." from Beth'el to She'chem and toward the south of Le-bo'nah." 20 So they commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying: "Go, and you must lie in wait in the vineyards. 21 And you must look, and, there now, when the daughters of Shi'loh come on out to dance in circle and built the cities and took up dances, you must also come out from the vineyards and carry off for yourselves by force each one to disperse from there at that time, his wife from the daughters of each one to his own tribe and Shi'loh, and you must go to the his own family; and they went land of Benjamin. 22 And it must their way out from there, each occur that should their fathers or one to his own inheritance. their brothers come to conduct a 25 In those days there was no legal case against us, we also shall king in Israel. Why should you go with me? Do I still have sons in my inward parts, and will they have to become your husbands? 12 Return, my daughters, go, for I have grown too old to get to belong to a husband. If I had said I had hope also that I should certainly become a husband's tonight and also should certainly bear sons, 13 would you keep waiting for them until they could grow up? Would you keep yourselves secluded for them so as not to become a husband's? No, my daughters, for it is very bitter to me because of you, that the hand of Jehovah has gone out against me."

14 At that they raised their voices and wept some more, after which Or'pah kissed her motherin-law. As for Ruth, she stuck with her. 15 So she said: "Look! Your widowed sister-in-law has returned to her people and her gods. Return with your widowed sister-in-law."

16 And Ruth proceeded to say: "Do not plead with me to abandon you, to turn back from accompanying you: for where you go I shall go, and where you spend the night I shall spend the night. Your people will be my people, and your God my God. 17 Where you die I shall die, and there is where I shall be buried. May Jehovah do so to me and add to it if anything but death should make a separation between me and you."

18 When she got to see that she was persistent about going with her, then she left off speaking to on their way until they came to Beth'le hem. And it came about that as soon as they came to Beth'le·hem, all the city became stirred up over them, and the women kept saying: "Is this Na'o·mi?" 20 And little while." she would say to the women: "Do handed that Jehovah has made me return. Why should you call me Na'o mi, when it is Jehovah that has humiliated me and the Almighty that has caused me calamity?"

22 Thus Na'o·mi made her return, Ruth the Mo'ab-ite woman. her daughter-in-law, being with her when returning from the fields of Mo'ab; and they came to Beth'le hem at the commencement of barley harvest.

Now Na'o mi had a kinsman of her husband, a man mighty in wealth, of the family of E-lim'elech, and his name was Bo'az.

2 In time Ruth the Mo'ab ite woman said to Na'o·mi: "Let me go, please, to the field and glean among the ears of grain following after whoever it is in whose eyes I may find favor." So she said to her: "Go, my daughter." 3 At that she went off and entered and began to glean in the field behind the harvesters. Thus by chance she lighted on the tract of the field belonging to Bo'az, who was of the family of E·lim'e·lech. 4 And, look! Bo'az came from Beth'le-hem and proceeded to say to the harvesters: "Jehovah be with you." In turn they would say to him: "Jehovah bless you."

5 Subsequently Bo'az said to the young man who was set over the harvesters: "To whom does this young woman belong?" 6 So the young man set over the harvesters answered and said: "The young woman is a Mo'ab·i·tess, who returned with Na'o·mi from the field of Mo'ab. 7 Then she said. 'Let me glean, please, and I shall cerher. 19 And they both continued tainly gather among the cut-off ears of grain behind the harvesters.' So she entered and kept on her feet from that time in the morning until her sitting down just now in the house a

Do not go away to glean | leave them behind that she may in another field, and you must also not cross over from this place, and in that way you should keep close by my young women. 9 Let your eyes be on the field that they will harvest, and you must go with them. Have I not commanded the young men not to touch you? When you are thirsty, you must also go to the vessels and drink from what the young men will draw."

10 At that she fell upon her face and bowed down to the earth and said to him: "How is it I have found favor in your eyes so that I to her: "Where did you glean toam taken notice of, when I am a foreigner?" 11 Then Bo'az answered and said to her: "The report was fully made to me of all that you have done to your motherin-law after the death of your husband, and how you proceeded to leave your father and your mother and the land of your relatives and to go to a people whom you had not known formerly. 12 May Jehovah reward the way you act, and may there come to be a perfect wage for you from He is one of our repurchasers." Jehovah the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to seek refuge." 13 To this she said: "Let me find favor in your eyes, my lord. because you have comforted me and because you have spoken reassuringly to your maidservant, although I myself may not happen to be like one of your maidservants."

14 And Bo'az proceeded to say to her at mealtime: "Approach here, and you must eat some of the bread and dip your piece in the vinegar." So she sat down beside the harvesters, and he would hold out roasted grain to her and she would eat, so that she was satisfied and yet had something left over. 15 Then she got up to glean. Bo'az now commanded his young men, saying: "Let her glean also among the cut-off ears of grain, and you must not molest her. 16 And you should also be sure to pull out some from the bun- Look! After that she took out what food she had left over when she had satisfied herself and gave it to her.

19 Her mother-in-law now said day, and where did you work? May the one who took notice of you become blessed." So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked; and she went on to say: "The name of the man with whom I worked today is Bo'az." 20 At that Na'o mi said to her daughterin-law: "Blessed be he of Jehovah, who has not left his loving-kindness toward the living and the dead." And Na'o mi went on to say to her: "The man is related to us. 21 Then Ruth the Mo'ab · i · tess said: "He also said to me, 'Close by the young people that are mine is where you should keep until they have finished the entire harvest that I have." 22 So Na'o·mi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law: "It is better, my daughter, that you should go out with his young women, that they may not annoy you in another field."

23 And she continued to keep close by the young women of Bo'az to glean until the harvest of the barley and the harvest of the wheat came to an end. And she kept on dwelling with her motherin-law.

Na'o·mi her mother-in-law now said to her: "My daughter, ought I not to look for a resting place for you, that it may go well with you? 2 And now, is not Bo'az, with whose young women you have continued, our kinsman?

3 He now said to the repurchaser: "The tract of the field that belonged to our brother E·lim'e·lech. 21 In time the man El·ka'nah went up with all his household to sacrifice to Jehovah the yearly sacrifice and his vow offering. 22 As for Han'nah, she did not go up, for she had said to her husband: "As soon as the boy is weaned. I must bring him, and he must appear before Jehovah and dwell there to time indefinite." 23 At this El·ka'nah her husband said to her: "Do what is good in your eyes. Stay at home until you wean him. Only may Jehovah carry out his word." So the woman staved at home and kept nursing her son until she weaned him.

24 Accordingly just as soon as she had weaned him, she brought him up with her, along with a three-year-old bull and one e'phah of flour and a large jar of wine, and she proceeded to enter the house of Jehovah in Shi'loh. And the boy was with her. 25 Then they slaughtered the bull and brought the boy to E'li. 26 With that she said: "Excuse me, my lord! And he proceeded to bow down there to Jehovah.

6 Jehovah is a Killer and a Preserver of life.

A Bringer down to She'ol, and He brings up.

7 Jehovah is an Impoverisher and an Enricher,

An Abaser, also an Exalter, 8 A Raiser of a lowly one from the dust:

From the ashpit he lifts up a poor one.

To make them sit with nobles: and a throne of glory he gives to them as a possession. For to Jehovah belong earth's supports, And he places upon them the productive land.

9 The feet of his loval ones he guards;

As for the wicked ones, they are silenced in darkness, For not by power does a man prove superior.

10 As for Jehovah, those contending against him will be terrified; Against them he will thunder in the heavens.

Jehovah himself will judge the ends of the earth.

11 Then El·ka'nah went to Ra'mah to his house; and as for the boy, he became a minister of Jehovah before E'li the priest.

12 Now the sons of E'li were good-for-nothing men; they did not acknowledge Jehovah. 13 As for the due right of the priests from the people, whenever any man was offering a sacrifice, an attendant of the priest came with the three-pronged fork in his hand, just when the meat was boiling. 14 and made a thrust into the basin I am hearing, that the people of or the two-handled cooking pot or the caldron or the one-handled cooking pot. Anything that the fork might bring up the priest would take for himself. That is the way they would do in Shi'loh to all the Israelites coming there. 15 Also, before ever they could make the fat smoke, an attendant of the priest came and said to the man sacrificing: "Do give meat to roast for the priest so that he may receive from you, not boiled meat, but raw." 16 When the man would say to him: "Let them be sure to make the fat smoke first of all. Then take for yourself just whatever your soul may crave," he actually said: "No, but you should give it now; and, if not, I shall have to take it by force!" 17 And the sin of the attendants came to be very great before Jehovah; for the men treated the offering of Jehovah with disrespect.

18 And Samuel was ministering before Jehovah, as a boy, having a linen eph'od girded on. 19 Also, a little sleeveless coat his mother would make for him, and she brought it up to him from year to year when she came up with her husband to sacrifice the yearly sacrifice. 20 And E'li blessed Elka'nah and his wife and said: "May Jehovah appoint to you an offspring from this wife in place of the thing lent, that was lent to Jehovah." And they went to their place. 21 Accordingly Jehovah turned his attention to Han'nah.

That he may exalt the horn | gave birth to three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel continued growing up with Jehovah.

22 And E'li was very old, and he had heard of all that his sons kept doing to all Israel and how they would lie down with the women that were serving at the entrance of the tent of meeting. 23 And he used to say to them: "Why do you keep doing things like these? For the things I am hearing about you from all the people are bad. 24 No, my sons, because the report is not good that Jehovah are causing to circulate. 25 If a man should sin against a man, God will arbitrate for him; but if it is against Jehovah that a man should sin, who is there to pray for him?" But they would not listen to the voice of their father, because Jehovah was now pleased to put them to death. 26 All the while Samuel was growing bigger and more likable both from Jehovah's standpoint and from that of men.

27 And a man of God proceeded to come to E'li and say to him: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'Did I not for a fact reveal myself to the house of your forefather while they happened to be in Egypt as slaves to the house of Phar'aoh? 28 And there was a choosing of him out of all the tribes of Israel for me, to act as priest and go up upon my altar to make sacrificial smoke billow up, to bear an eph'od before me, that I might give to the house of your forefather all the offerings made by fire of the sons of Israel. 29 Why do you men keep kicking at my sacrifice and at my offering that I have commanded [in my] dwelling, and you keep honoring your sons more than me by fattening yourselves from the best of every offering of Israel my people?

All the while the boy Samuel was ministering to Jehovah before E'li, and word from Jehovah had become rare in those days; there was no vision being spread abroad.

2 Now it came about on that day that E'li was lying in his place, and his eyes had begun to grow dim; he was not able to see. 3 And the lamp of God was not yet extinguished, and Samuel was lying in the temple of Jehovah, where the ark of God was. 4 And Jehovah proceeded to call Samuel, At E'li called Samuel and said: "Samthis he said: "Here I am." 5 And uel, my son!" At this he said:

And E'li began to discern that it was Jehovah that was calling the for your servant is listening." So

10 Then Jehovah came and took other times: "Samuel, Samuel!" At "Look! I am doing something in Israel which if anyone hears about, that day I shall carry out toward E'li all that I have said respecting his house, from beginning to end. 13 And you must tell him that I am judging his house to time indefinite for the error that he has known, because his sons are calling down evil upon God, and he has not rebuked them. 14 And that is why I have sworn to the house of E'li that the error of the house of E'li will not be brought to exemption from punishment by sacrifice or by offering to time indefinite."

15 And Samuel continued lying down until the morning. Then he opened the doors of Jehovah's house. And Samuel was afraid to tell E'li of the appearing. 16 But

"Here I am." 17 And he went on of Jehovah came into the camp, all to say: "What is the word that he the Israelites broke out into loud has spoken to you? Do not, please, shouting, so that the earth was in hide it from me. May God do so a stir. 6 The Phi-lis'tines also got to you and so may he add to it if to hear the sound of the shouting you should hide from me a word and began saving: "What does the of all the word that he has spoken sound of this loud shouting in the to you." 18 So Samuel told him all the words, and he did not hide anything from him. At that he said: "It is Jehovah, What is good in his eyes let him do."

19 And Samuel continued growing up, and Jehovah himself proved to be with him and did not cause any of all his words to fall to the earth. 20 And all Israel from Dan to Be'er-she'ba became aware that Samuel was one accredited for the position of prophet to Jehovah. 21 And Jehovah proceeded to appear again in Shi'loh, because Jehovah revealed himself to Samuel in Shi'loh by the word of Jehovah.

4 And the word of Samuel continued to come to all Israel. Then Israel went out to meet the Phi-lis'tines in battle; and they took up camping alongside Eb-ene'zer, and the Phi-lis'tines themselves encamped in A'phek. 2 And the Phi·lis'tines proceeded to draw up in formation to meet Israel, and the battle went badly, so that Israel was defeated before the Phi·lis'tines, who went striking down about four thousand men in closed battle line in the field. 3 When the people came to the camp the older men of Israel began to say: "Why did Jehovah defeat us today before the Phi·lis'tines? Let us take to ourselves from Shi'loh the ark of Jehovah's covenant, that it may come into our midst and may save us from the palm of our enemies." 4 So the people sent to Shi'loh and carried from there the ark of the covenant of Jehovah of armies. who is sitting upon the cherubs. So they said: "Woe to us. for such a thing as this never occurred before! 8 Woe to us! Who will save us from the hand of this majestic God? This is the God that was the smiter of Egypt with every sort of slaughter in the wilderness. 9 Show yourselves courageous and prove vourselves men, you Phi·lis'tines, that you may not serve the Hebrews just as they have served you; and you must prove vourselves men and fight!" 10 Accordingly the Philis'tines fought and Israel was defeated, and they went fleeing each one to his tent; and the slaughter came to be very great, so that out of Israel there fell thirty thousand men on foot. 11 And the ark of God itself was captured, and the two sons of E'li, Hoph'ni and Phin'e has, died.

12 And a man of Benjamin went running from the battle line so that he arrived at Shi'loh on that day with his garments ripped apart and dirt on his head. 13 When he arrived, there was E'li sitting on the seat by the roadside, watching, because his heart had become atremble over the ark of the [true] God. And the man himself went in to report in the city, and the whole city began crying out. 14 And E'li got to hear the sound of the outcry. So he said: "What does the sound of this turmoil mean?" And the man himself hurried that he might go in and report to E'li. 15 (Now E'li was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes had set so that he was unable to see.) 16 And the man 5 And it came about that as proceeded to say to E'li: "I am

9 And it came about that after they had brought it around to there, the hand of Jehovah came to be upon the city with a very great confusion, and he began striking the men of the city, from small to great, and piles began breaking out on them. 10 Hence they sent the ark of the [true] God to Ek'ron. And it came about that as soon as the ark of the 5 As for the Phi-lis'tines, they [true] God came to Ek'ron, the took the ark of the [true] God Ek'ron ites began to cry out, saying: "They have brought the ark of the God of Israel around to me to put

And the ark of Jehovah proved to be in the field of the Philis'tines seven months. 2 And the Phi·lis'tines proceeded to call the priests and the diviners, saying: "What shall we do with the ark of Jehovah? Let us know with what we should send it away to its place." 3 To this they said: "If you are sending the ark of the God of Israel away, do not send it away without an offering, for you should by all means return to him a guilt offering. Then it is that you will be healed, and it must become mesh. On the one highway they known to you why his hand would not turn away from you." 4 At this they said: "What is the guilt or to the left. 10 And the men proceeded to do accordingly. So they took two cows that were giving suck and hitched them to the wagon, and their young ones they shut up at home. 11 Then they put the ark of Jehovah upon the wagon, and also the box and the golden jerboas and the images of their piles. 12 And the cows began to go straight ahead on the road to Beth-she'went, lowing as they went, and they did not turn aside to the right offering that we ought to return to axis lords of the Phi-lis'tines were walking after them as far as the boundary of Beth-she'mesh. the Phi-lis'tines, five golden piles 13 And people of Beth-she'mesh were reaping the wheat harvest in their eyes and saw the Ark, they gave way to rejoicing at seeing it. 14 And the wagon itself came into the field of Joshua the Beth-she'mite and kept standing there, where there was a large stone. And they went splitting up the wood of the wagon, and the cows they offered up as a burnt offering to Jehovah.

> 15 And the Levites themselves took the ark of Jehovah down and the box that was with it, in which the golden articles were, and they proceeded to put it upon the large stone. And the men of Beth-she'mesh, for their part, offered up burnt offerings, and they continued rendering up sacrifices on that day to Jehovah.

16 And the five axis lords of the Phi·lis'tines themselves saw it and went their way back to Ek'ron on that day. 17 Now these are the golden piles that the Phi-lis'tines Ga'za one, for Ash'ke lon one, for Israel together at Miz'pah, that I Gath one, for Ek'ron one. 18 And may pray in your behalf to Jehothe golden jerboas were to the vah." 6 So they were collected number of all the cities of the together at Miz'pah, and they went Phi-lis'tines belonging to the five drawing water and pouring it out axis lords, from the fortified city to before Jehovah and kept a fast on the village of the open country.

And the great stone upon which they rested the ark of Jehovah is a witness down to this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-she'mite. 19 And he went striking down the men of Beth-she'mesh, because hear that the sons of Israel had they had looked upon the ark of collected themselves together at Jehovah. Come down. Take it up to yourselves."

7 Accordingly the men of Kir'i.ath-je'a.rim came and brought the ark of Jehovah up and took it into the house of A.bin'a.dab on the hill, and E-le-a'zar his son was the one whom they sanctified to guard the ark of Jehovah.

2 And it came about that from the day of the Ark's dwelling in Kir'i ath-je'a rim the days kept multiplying, so that they amounted to twenty years, and all the house of Israel went lamenting after Jehovah. 3 And Samuel proceeded to say to all the house of Israel: "If it is with all your heart you are returning to Jehovah, put away the foreign gods from Your midst and also the Ash'to reth images, and direct your heart unswervingly to Jehovah and serve him alone, and he will deliver you from the hand of the Phi-lis'tines." 4 At that the sons of Israel put away the Ba'als and the Ash'to reth images and began serving Jehovah alone. And the cities that

And Jehovah now caused it to thunder with a loud noise on that day against the Phi-lis'tines, that he might throw them into confusion; and they got defeated before Israel. 11 At that the men of Israel sallied forth from Miz'pah and went in pursuit of the Phi-lis'tines and kept striking them down as far as south of Beth-car. 12 Then Samuel took a stone and set it between Miz'pah and Jesh'a nah and began to call its name Eb en e'zer. Accordingly he said: "Till now Jehovah has helped us." 13 Thus the Phi-lis'tines were subdued, and they did not come any more into the territory of Israel; and the hand of Jehovah continued to be against the Phi-lis'tines all the days of the Phi-lis'tines had taken from their voice. Only this, that you Israel kept coming back to Israel from Ek'ron to Gath, and the territory of them Israel delivered from the hand of the Philis'tines.

And there came to be peace between Israel and the Am'or ites.

15 And Samuel kept on judging Israel all the days of his life. 16 And he traveled from year to year and made the circuit of Beth'el and Gil'gal and Miz'pah and judged his return was to Ra'mah, because there was where his house was, and there he judged Israel, And he proceeded to build an altar there to Jehovah.

8 And it came about that as soon as Samuel had grown old he made appointments of his sons as judges for Israel. 2 Now the name of his first-born son happened to be Joel, and the name of his second A.bi'jah; they were judging in Be'er-she'ba. 3 And his sons did not walk in his ways, but they were inclined to follow unjust profit and would accept a bribe and pervert judgment.

4 In time all the older men of Israel collected themselves together and came to Samuel at Ra'mah 5 and said to him: "Look! You yourself have grown old, but your own sons have not walked in your ways. Now do appoint for us a king to judge us like all the nations.' 6 But the thing was bad in the eyes of Samuel inasmuch as they had said: "Do give us a king to judge us," and Samuel began to pray to Jehovah. 7 Then Jehovah said to Samuel: "Listen to the voice of the people as respects all that they say to you: for it is not you whom they have rejected, but it is I whom they have rejected from being king over them. 8 In accord with all their doings that they have done from the day of my bringing them up out of Egypt until this day in that they kept leaving me and serving other gods. that is the way they are doing should solemnly warn them, and you must tell them the rightful due of the king who will reign over them."

10 So Samuel said all the words of Jehovah to the people who were asking a king of him. 11 And he proceeded to say: "This will become the rightful due of the king that will reign over you: Your sons he will take and put them as his in his chariots and among Israel at all these places. 17 But his horsemen, and some will have to run before his chariots: 12 and to appoint for himself chiefs over thousands and chiefs over fifties. and [some] to do his plowing and to reap his harvest and to make his war instruments and his chariot instruments. 13 And your daughters he will take for ointment mixers and cooks and bakers. 14 And your fields and your vineyards and your olive groves, the best ones, he will take and actually give to his servants. 15 And of YOUR fields of seed and of YOUR vineyards he will take the tenth, and he will certainly give [them] to his court officials and his servants. 16 And your menservants and your maidservants and your best herds, and your asses he will take, and he will have to use them for his work. 17 Of your flocks he will take the tenth, and you yourselves will become his as servants. 18 And you will certainly cry out in that day by reason of your king. whom you have chosen for yourselves, but Jehovah will not answer you in that day."

19 However, the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel and said: "No. but a king is what will come to be over us. 20 And we must become, we also, like all the nations, and our king must judge us and go out before us and fight our battles." 21 And Samuel gave a hearing to all the words of the people; then he spoke them in the ears of Jehovah. 22 And Jehovah proceeded to say to Samuel: "Listen to their voice, and vou also to you. 9 And now listen to must cause a king to reign for them." Accordingly Samuel said to to the man of the [true] God, and the men of Israel: "Go each one to he will have to tell us our way." his city."

Now there happened to be a man of Benjamin, and his name was Kish, the son of A.bi'el, the son of Ze'ror, the son of Be-co'rath, the son of A.phi'ah, a Ben'iamin-ite, a man mighty in wealth. 2 And he happened to have a son whose name was Saul, young and handsome, and there was no man of the sons of Israel that was handsomer than he; from his shoulders upward he was taller than all the people.

3 And the she-asses belonging to Kish the father of Saul got lost. So Kish said to Saul his son: "Take, please, with you one of the attendants and get up, go, look for the she-asses." 4 And he went passing through the mountainous region of E'phra·im and passing on through the land of Shal'i-shah. and they did not find them. And they went passing on through the land of Sha'a-lim, but they were not [there]. And he went passing on through the land of the Ben'ia min ites, and they did not find [them]. 5 They themselves came into the land of Zuph; and Saul, for his part, said to his attendant that was with him: "Do come, and let us return, that my father may not guit attending to the she-asses and actually become anxious about us." 6 But he said to him: "Look, please! There is a man of God in this city, and the man is held in honor. All that he says comes true without fail. Let us go there now. Perhaps he can tell us our way that we must go." 7 At this Saul said to his attendant: "And if we should go, what shall we bring to the man? because the bread itself has disappeared from our receptacles. and, as a gift, there is nothing to bring to the man of the [true] God. What is there with us?" 8 So the attendant answered Saul once more and said: "Look! There is a quarter of a shekel of silver found in my

9 (In former times in Israel this was the way the man would have talked on his going to seek God: "Come, and let us go to the seer." For the prophet of today used to be called a seer in former times.) 10 Then Saul said to his attendant: "Your word is good. Do come. let us go." And they went their way to the city where the man of the [true] God was.

11 While they were going up on the ascent to the city, they themselves found girls going out to draw water. So they said to them: "Is the seer in this place?" 12 Then they answered them and said: "He is, Look! He is ahead of you, Hurry now, because today he has come to the city, for there is a sacrifice today for the people on the high place. 13 As soon as you men come into the city, you will directly find him before he goes up to the high place to eat: because the people may not eat until his coming, for he is the one that blesses the sacrifice. First after that those who are invited may eat. And now go up, because him—just now you will find him." 14 Accordingly they went on up to the city. As they were coming into the middle of the city, why, there was Samuel coming out to meet them to go up to the high place.

15 As for Jehovah, he had uncovered the ear of Samuel the day before Saul came, saying: 16 "Tomorrow about this time I shall send to you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you must anoint him as leader over my people Israel: and he must save my people from the hand of the Phi-lis'tines, because I have seen Ithe affliction of my people, for their outcry has come to me." 17 And Samuel himself saw Saul, and Jehovah, for his part, answered him: "Here is the man of whom I said to you, 'This is the one that will keep my people within bounds."

18 Then Saul approached Samuhand, and I shall have to give it el in the middle of the gate and said: "Do tell me, please, Just | where is the house of the seer?" 19 And Samuel proceeded to answer Saul and say: "I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, and you men must eat with me today, and I must send you away in the morning, and all that is in your heart I shall tell you. 20 As regards the she-asses that were lost to you three days ago, do not set your heart on them, for they have been found. And to whom does all that is desirable of Israel belong? Is it not to you and to the whole house of your father?" 21 At this Saul answered and said: "Am I not a Ben'ja min ite of the smallest of the tribes of Israel, and my family the most insignificant of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? So why have you spoken to me a thing like this?"

his attendant and brought them to the dining hall and gave them a place at the head of those invited: and they were about thirty men. 23 Later Samuel said to the cook: "Do give the portion that I have given to you, of which I said to you, 'Put it away by you,' " 24 At what was on it, and put it before Saul. And he went on to say: "Here is what has been reserved. Put it before yourself. Eat, because to the appointed time they have reserved it for you that you may eat with those invited." So Saul ate with Samuel on that day. 25 Subsequently they went down from the high place to the city, and he continued speaking with Saul on the housetop. 26 Then they rose early, and it came about that as soon as the dawn ascended Samuel proceeded to call to Saul on the housetop, saying: "Do get up, that I may send you away." That is why it has become a proverbial saying: "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

13 At length he finished speaking as a prophet and came to the high place. 14 Later the brother of Saul's father said to him and to his attendant: "Where did you go?" Upon that he said: "To look for the she-asses, and we kept on there]. So we came to Samuel." 15 At this Saul's uncle said: "Do hovah. > 22 In turn Samuel said: "Does Jehovah have as much delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of Jehovah? Look! To obey is better than a sacrifice, to pay attention than the fat of rams; 23 for rebelliousness is the same as the sin of divination, and pushing ahead presumptuously the same as [using] uncanny power and teraphim. Since you have rejected the word of Jehovah, he accordingly rejects you from being king."

24 Then Saul said to Samuel: "I have sinned: for I have overstepped the order of Jehovah and your words, because I feared the people and so obeyed their voice, 25 And now, please, pardon my sin and return with me that I may prostrate myself to Jehovah." 26 But Samuel said to Saul: "I Jehovah your God; but what was shall not return with you, for you

30 At this he said: "I have sinned. Now honor me, please, in front of the older men of my people and in front of Israel and return with me, and I shall certainly why I have come. Sanctify yourprostrate myself to Jehovah your God," 31 So Samuel returned behind Saul, and Saul proceeded to fied Jes'se and his sons, after which prostrate himself to Jehovah, he called them to the sacrifice. 32 After that Samuel said: "BRING 6 And it came about that, as they A'gag the king of Am'a lek near to came in and he caught sight of me." Then A'gag went to him reluctantly, and A'gag began to say to himself: "Truly the bitter experience of death has departed." 33 However, Samuel said: "Just as your sword has bereaved women of children, in that way your mother will be most bereaved of children among women." With that Samuel went hacking A'gag to pieces before Jehovah, he sees what the heart Jehovah in Gil'gal.

34 Samuel now went his way to Ra'mah, and Saul, for his part, went up to his own house at Gib'e-ah of Saul. 35 And Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death, because Samuel had gone into mourning for Saul. As for Jehovah, he regretted that he had made Saul king over Israel.

Eventually Jehovah said to Samuel: "For how long will you be mourning for Saul, while I, on the other hand, have rejected him from ruling as king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go, I shall send you to Jes'se the Beth'le hem ite, because I have provided among his sons a king

And Jehovah went on to say: "A young cow of the herd you should take with you, and you must say, 'To sacrifice to Jehovah is why said to him: "Jehovah has ripped Jes'se to the sacrifice; and I. for my part, shall make known to you what you should do, and you must give it to a fellow man of yours anoint for me the one whom I designate to you."

> 4 And Samuel proceeded to do what Jehovah spoke. When he came to Beth'le hem the older men of the city began to tremble at meeting him, and so they said: "Does your coming mean peace?" 5 To this he said: "It means peace. To sacrifice to Jehovah is selves, and you must come with me to the sacrifice." Then he sancti-E·li'ab, he at once said: "Surely his anointed one is before Jehovah." 7 But Jehovah said to Samuel: "Do not look at his appearance and at the height of his stature, for I have rejected him. For not the way man sees [is the way God sees], because mere man sees what appears to the eyes; but as for is." 8 Then Jes'se called A.bin'a dab and had him pass before Samuel, but he said: "Neither has Jehovah chosen this one." 9 Next Jes'se had Sham'mah pass by, but he said: "Neither has Jehovah chosen this one." 10 So Jes'se had seven of his sons pass before Samuel; still Samuel said to Jes'se: "Jehovah has not chosen these."

11 Finally Samuel said to Jes'se: "Are these all the boys?" To this he said: "The youngest one has till now been left out, and, look! he is pasturing the sheep." At that Samuel said to Jes'se: "Do send and fetch him, because we shall not sit down to meal until his coming here." 12 Accordingly he sent for myself." 2 But Samuel said: and had him come. Now he was ruddy, a young man with beautiful him, and the bad spirit departed eves and handsome in appearance, from upon him. Then Jehovah said: "Get up, anoint him, for this is he!" 13 Accordingly Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers. And the spirit of Jehovah began to be operative upon David from that day forward. Later Samuel rose and went his way to Ra'mah.

14 And the very spirit of Jehovah departed from Saul, and a bad spirit from Jehovah terrorized him. 15 And the servants of Saul began to say to him: "Here, now, God's bad spirit is terrorizing you. 16 Let our lord, please, command your servants before you that they should look for a skilled man playing upon the harp. And it must occur that, when God's bad spirit comes to be upon you, he will have to play with his hand, and it will certainly be well with you." 17 So Saul said to his servants: "Provide me, please, a man doing well at playing, and you must bring him to me.'

18 And one of the attendants proceeded to answer and say: "Look! I have seen how a son of Jes'se the Beth'le hem ite is skilled at playing, and he is a valiant, mighty man and a man of war and an intelligent speaker and a wellformed man, and Jehovah is with him." 19 Then Saul sent messengers to Jes'se and said: "Do send to me David your son, who is with the flock." 20 So Jes'se took an ass, bread and a skin bottle of wine and a kid of the goats and sent them by the hand of David his son to Saul. 21 Thus David came to Saul and attended upon him: and he got to loving him very much, and he came to be his armorbearer. 22 Consequently Saul sent to Jes'se, saying: "Let David, please, keep attending upon me, for he has found favor in my eyes." 23 And it occurred that, when God's spirit came to be upon Saul, David took the harp and played with his hand: and there was relief for Saul and it was well with and let us fight together!"

And the Phi-lis'tines went collecting their camps together for war. When they were collected together at So'coh, which belongs to Judah, then they took up camping between So'coh and A.ze'kah. in E'phes dam'mim. 2 As for Saul and the men of Israel, they collected themselves together and took up camping in the low plain of E'lah, and they went drawing up in battle formation to meet the Phi·lis'tines. 3 And the Phi-lis'tines were standing on the mountain on this side, and the Israelites were standing on the mountain on that side, with the valley between them.

4 And a champion began to go out from the camps of the Phi-lis'tines, his name being Go·li'ath, from Gath, his height being six cubits and a span. 5 And there was a helmet of copper on his head, and he was clad with a coat of mail, of overlapping scales, and the weight of the coat of mail was five thousand shekels of copper. 6 And there were greaves of copper above his feet and a javelin of copper between his shoulders. 7 And the wooden shaft of his spear was like the beam of loom workers, and the blade of his spear was six hundred shekels of iron; and the bearer of the large shield was marching ahead of him. 8 Then he stood still and began to call to the battle lines of Israel and say to them: "Why do you come out to draw up in battle formation? Am I not the Phi-lis'tine and you servants belonging to Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. 9 If he is able to fight with me and he does strike me down, we must then become servants to you. But if I myself am a match for him and I do strike him down, you must also become servants to us, and you must serve us." 10 And the Phi·lis'tine went on to say: "I myself do taunt the battle lines of Israel this day. 15 And David was going and returning from Saul to tend the sheep of his father at Beth'le hem. 16 And the Phi·lis'tine kept coming forward at early morning and at evening and taking his position for forty days.

17 Then Jes'se said to David his son: "Take, please, to your brothers the man that strikes down that this e'phah of roasted grain and Phi·lis'tine over there and actually these ten loaves of bread, and carry them quickly to the camp Israel? For who is this uncircumto your brothers. 18 And these ten portions of milk you should bring to the chief of the thousand; also, you should look after your own brothers as regards their welfare, and a token from them you should take." 19 Meantime, Saul and they and all the other men of Israel were in the low plain of spoke to the men, and E-li'ab's E'lah, fighting against the Philis'tines.

20 Accordingly David got up early in the morning and left the sheep to the keeper's charge and picked up and went just as Jes'se had commanded him. When he came to the camp enclosure, the military forces were going out to the battle line, and they raised a shout for the battle. 21 And Israel and the Phi·lis'tines began drawing up battle line to meet battle line. 22 Immediately David left the baggage from off him to the care of the keeper of the baggage and and, in turn, the people gave him

And it must occur that, the man who strikes him down, the king will enrich him with great riches, and his own daughter he will give him, and the house of his father he will set free in Israel."

26 And David began to say to the men that were standing close by him: "What will be done to turns away reproach from upon cised Phi-lis'tine that he has to taunt the battle lines of the living God?" 27 Then the people said to him the same words as before, saying: "This is the way it will be done to the man that strikes him down." 28 And E·li'ab his oldest brother got to hear as he anger grew hot against David, so that he said: "Why is it that you have come down? And in whose charge did you leave those few sheep behind in the wilderness? I myself well know your presumptuousness and the badness of your heart, because you have come down for the purpose of seeing the battle." 29 To this David said: "What have I done now? Your servant himself will go and actually fight with this Phi-lis'tine." 33 But Saul said to David: "You are not able to go against this Phi-lis'tine to fight with him, for you are but a boy, and he is a man of war from his boyhood." 34 And David went on to say to Saul: "Your servant became a shepherd of his father among the flock, and there came a lion, and also a bear, and [each] carried off a sheep from the drove. 35 And I went out after it and struck it down and made the rescue from its mouth. When it began rising against me. I grabbed hold of its beard and struck it down lion and the bear your servant struck down; and this uncircumcised Phi·lis'tine must become like one of them, for he has taunted the battle lines of the living God." 37 Then David added: "Jehovah, who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, he it is who will deliver me from the hand of this Phi-lis'tine." At this Saul said to David: "Go. and may Jehovah himself prove to be with you."

So David removed them off Phi-lis'tine. 49 Then David thrust him. 40 And he proceeded to take his hand into his bag and took a his staff in his hand and to choose stone from there and slung it, so for himself the five smoothest stones from the torrent valley and to place them in his shepherds' bag into his forehead, and he went that served him as a receptacle, falling upon his face to the earth.

41 And the Phi-lis'tine began to come, coming nearer and nearer to David, and the man carrying the large shield was ahead of him. 42 Now when the Phi·lis'tine looked and saw David, he began despising him because he proved to be a boy and ruddy, of beautiful appearance. 43 So the Phi-lis'tine said to David: "Am I a dog, so that you are coming to me with staves?" With that the Phi-lis'tine called down evil upon David by his gods. 44 And the Phi-lis'tine went on to say to David: "Just come to me, and I will give your flesh to the fowls of the heavens and to the beasts of the field."

45 In turn David said to the Phi·lis'tine: "You are coming to me with a sword and with a spear and put it to death. 36 Both the and with a javelin, but I am coming to you with the name of Jehovah of armies, the God of the battle lines of Israel, whom you have taunted. 46 This day Jehovah will surrender you into my hand, and I shall certainly strike you down and remove your head off you; and I shall certainly give the carcasses of the camp of the Phi·lis'tines this day to the fowls of the heavens and to the wild beasts of the earth; and people of all the earth will know that there exists a God belonging to Israel. 47 And all this congregation will know that neither with sword nor with spear does Jehovah save, because to Jehovah belongs the battle. and he must give you men into our

To this Ab'ner said: "By the life of your soul, O king, I do not know at all!" 56 So the king said: "You inquire whose son the lad is." 57 Accordingly, as soon as David returned from striking the Phi-lis'tine down, Ab'ner proceeded to take him and bring him before Saul with the head of the Phi·lis'tine in his hand. 58 Saul now said to him: "Whose son are you, boy?" to which David said: "The son of your servant Jes'se the Beth'le hem ite."

10 And it came about the next day that God's bad spirit became operative upon Saul, so that he behaved like a prophet within the house, while David was playing music with his hand, as in former days; and the spear was in Saul's hand, 11 And Saul proceeded to hurl the spear and say: "I will pin David even to the wall!" but David turned aside from before ing to Saul, Jon'a-than's very soul him, twice. 12 And Saul grew became bound up with the soul of afraid of David because Jehovah David, and Jon'a than began to proved to be with him, but from love him as his own soul, 2 Then Saul he had departed, 13 Con-Saul took him on that day, and sequently Saul removed him from he did not allow him to return to his company and appointed him his father's house. 3 And Jon'a- as chief of a thousand for him:

David is in Nai'oth in Ra'got to see the elderly ones of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing in his position over them, the spirit of God came to be upon Saul's messengers, and they began behaving like prophets, they also.

What is my error, and what sin have I committed before your father, for he is seeking for my soul?" 2 At this he said to him: "It is unthinkable! You will not die. Look! 4 And Jon'a than went on to say to David: "Whatever your soul may say I shall do for you." 5 At this David said to Jon'a than: "Look! Tomorrow is new moon, and I myself ought, without fail, to be sitting with the king to eat; and you must send me away, and I must conceal myself in the field until the evening on the third day, 6 If your father should miss me at all. then you must say, 'David earnestly asked leave of absence of me to run to Beth'le hem his city, because there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.' 7 If the way he should say is, 'It is all right!' it means peace to your servant. But if he should at all become angry, know that what is bad has been determined upon by him. 8 And you must render loving-kindness toward your servant, for it is into a covenant of Jehovah that you have brought your servant with you. So both of them went out into the field 12 And Jon'a than went on to say to David: "Jehovah the God of Israel [be a witness] that I shall should my father conceal this sound out my father about this time tomorrow, or the third day. and if he is well-disposed toward David, shall I not then send to must surely know that I have you and certainly disclose it to your ear? 13 So may Jehovah do to Jon'a than and so may he add to it, if, in case it should seem good hurt.' So Saul came in to ease nature, while David and his men were in the parts of the cave farthest back, sitting down. 4 And David's men began to say to him: "Here is the day on which Jehovah does say to you, 'Look! And Saul began to raise his own voice and weep. 17 And he went on to say to David: "You are more righteous than I am, for it is you who have rendered me good, and it is I who have rendered you evil. 18 And you-you have told today what good you have done in connection with me in that Jehovah surrendered me into your hand and you did not kill me. 19 Now 8 Ask your own young men, and

14 And David began to call out to the people and to Ab'ner the son of Ner. saving: "Will you not answer, Ab'ner?" And Ab'ner began to answer and say: "Who are you that have called out to the king?" 15 And David went on to say to Ab'ner: "Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? Why. then, did you not watch over your lord the king? For one of the people came in to bring the king your lord to ruin. 16 This thing that you have done is not good. As Jehovah is living, you men deserve to die, because you have not watched over your lord, over the anointed of Jehovah. And now see where the king's spear and the water jug are that were at his head."

17 And Saul began to recognize the voice of David and to say: "Is this your voice, my son David?" To this David said: "It is my voice, my lord the king." 18 And he added: "Why is this that my lord is chasing after his servant, for what have I done, and what badness is there in my hand? 19 And now let my lord the king, please, listen to the words of his servant: If it is Jehovah that has incited you against me, let him smell a grain offering. But if it is the sons of man, they are cursed before Jehovah, because they have driven me out today from feeling myself attached to the inheritance of Jeblood fall to the earth before the us get on our way." 12 Accord- Israel has gone out to look for a

I have acted foolishly and am very much mistaken." 22 Then David answered and said: let one of the young men come on faithfulness, in that Jehovah today unwilling to thrust my hand out inhabiting the land that [extended] against the anointed of Jehovah. 24 And, look! just as your soul may my soul be great in the eyes of Jehovah, that he may deliver me out of all distress." 25 At this you be, my son David. Not only will you without fail work but you will also without fail come off the winner." And David proceeded to go on his way; and as for Saul, he returned to his place.

3 Now Samuel himself had died. and all Israel had proceeded to bewail him and bury him in Ra'mah his own city. As for Saul, he had removed the spirit mediums and the professional foretellers of events from the land.

4 Subsequently the Phi-lis'tines collected together and came and pitched camp in Shu'nem. So Saul collected all Israel together and they pitched camp in Gil·bo'a. 5 When Saul got to see the camp of the Phi-lis'tines he became afraid, and his heart began to tremble very much. 6 Although Saul would inquire of Jehovah, Jehovah never answered him, either by dreams or by the U'rim or by the prophets. 7 Finally Saul said to his servants: "Seek for me a woman who is a mistress of spirit mediumship, and I will go to her and consult her." Then his servants said to him: "Look! There is a woman who is a mistress of spirit parted from you and proves to be mediumship in En-dor."

8 So Saul disguised himself and clothed himself with other garments and went, he and two men with him; and they came to the woman by night. He now said: "Employ divination, please, for me by spirit mediumship and bring up for me the one whom I shall designate to you." 9 However, the woman said to him: "Here you yourself well know what Saul did. how he cut off the spirit mediums and the professional foretellers of events from the land. And the woman went on to say to Saul: "A god I saw coming up out of the earth." 14 At once he said to her: "What is his form?" to which she said: "It is an old man coming up, and he has himself covered with a sleeveless coat." At that Saul recognized that it was "Samuel," and he proceeded to bow low with his face to the earth and to prostrate himself.

15 And "Samuel" began to say to Saul: "Why have you disturbed me by having me brought up?" To this Saul said: "I am in very sore straits, as the Phi-lis'tines are fighting against me, and God himself has departed from me and has answered me no more, either by means of the prophets or by dreams; so that I am calling you to let me know what I shall do."

16 And "Samuel" went on to say: "Why, then, do you inquire of me, when Jehovah himself has deyour adversary? 17 And Jehovah will do for himself just as he spoke by means of me, and Jehovah will rip the kingdom away from your hand and give it to your fellow man David. 18 As you did not obey the voice of Jehovah, and you did not execute his burning anger against Am'a·lek, that is why this is the thing that Jehovah will certainly do to you this day. 19 And Jehovah will also give Israel with you into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines, and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. Even the camp of Israel Jehovah will give into the hand of the Phi-lis'tines."

Also, there this the woman said: "Whom shall happened to be no power in him, I bring up for you?" However, his servants and also the woman kept urging him. Finally he obeyed their voice and rose up from the earth and sat on had a fattened calf in the house. So she quickly sacrificed it and took flour and kneaded dough and baked it into unfermented cakes. 25 Then she served them to Saul and his servants, and they ate. After that they rose up and went away during that night.

6 Consequently A'chish called David and said to him: "As Jehovah is living, you are upright, and your going out and your coming in badness in you from the day of your coming to me until this day. So David took to strengthening himself by Jehovah his God.

7 Hence David said to A.bi'athar the priest, the son of A.him'e·lech: "Do, please, bring the eph'od near to me." And A.bi'a.thar came bringing the eph'od near to David. 8 And David began to inquire of Jehovah, saying: "Shall I chase after this marauder band? Shall I overtake them?" At this he said to him: "Go in chase, for you will without fail overtake them. and you will without fail make a deliverance."

9 Promptly David got on his way, he and the six hundred men that were with him, and they went on as far as the torrent valley of Be'sor, and the men that were to be left behind stood still. 10 And David kept up the chase, he and four hundred men, but two hundred men that were too tired to pass over the torrent valley of Be'sor stood still.

11 And they got to find a man, an Egyptian, in the field. So they took him to David and gave him bread that he might eat and gave him water to drink. 12 Further, they gave him a slice of a cake of pressed figs and two cakes of raisins. Then he ate and his spirit returned to him; for he had not eaten bread or drunk water for three days and three nights. 13 David now said to him: "To whom do you belong, and where are you from?" to which he said: "I am an Egyptian attendant, a slave of an A.mal'ek.ite man, but "For the reason that they did not

16 Accordingly he led him down. and there they were spread disorderly over the surface of all the land eating and drinking and having a feast on account of all the great spoil that they had taken from the land of the Phi-lis'tines and the land of Judah. 17 And David went striking them down from the morning darkness until the evening, that he might devote them to destruction; and not a man of them escaped except four hundred young men that rode upon camels and took to flight. 18 And David got to deliver all that the A·mal'ek·ites had taken, and his two wives David delivered. 19 And there was nothing of theirs lacking, from the smallest to the greatest and to sons and daughters and from the spoil, even to anything that they had taken for themselves. Everything David recovered. 20 So David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drove before that [other] livestock. Then they said: "This is David's spoil."

21 At length David came to the two hundred men who had been too tired to go along with David. and whom they had kept sitting by the torrent valley of Be'sor; and they came out to meet David and to meet the people that were with him. When David came near to the people he began to ask them how they were. 22 However, every bad and good-for-nothing man out of the men that had gone with David answered and kept saying:

Saul's son, and proceeded to bring him across to Ma.ha.na'im, 9 and to make him king over Gil'e-ad and the Ash'ur-ites and Jez're-el and over E'phra·im and Benjamin and over Israel, all of it. 10 Forty years old Ish-bo'sheth, Saul's son, was when he became king over Israel, and for two years he ruled as king. Only the house of Judah proved themselves followers of David. 11 And the number of the days that David proved to be king in He'bron over the house of Judah came to be seven years and six Ab'ner himself was continually strengthening his position in the house of Saul. 7 Now Saul had had a concubine whose name was Riz'pah, the daughter of A'iah. Later Ish-bo'sheth said to Ab'ner: "Why was it that you had relations with the concubine of my father?" 8 And Ab'ner got very angry at the words of Ish-bo'sheth and went on to say: "Am I a dog's head that the hand of the Phi-lis'tines and belongs to Judah? 12 Accordingly Ab'ner sent messengers to David on the spot, saying: "To whom does the land belong?" adding: "Do conclude your covenant with me, and, look!

Pal'ti-el the son of La'ish. 16 But her husband kept walking with her, weeping as he walked after her as far as Ba·hu'rim. Then Ab'ner said to him: "Go. return!" At that he returned.

17 Meanwhile there had come to be communication by Ab'ner with the older men of Israel, saving: "Both yesterday and previously you proved yourselves seeking David as king over you. 18 And now act. for Jehovah himself said to David. 'By the hand of David my servant I shall save my people Israel from mies." 19 Then Ab'ner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin, after yourself in the hand of David; and that was good in the eves of Israel of Benjamin.

20 When Ab'ner came to David at He'bron, and with him twenty men, David proceeded to make a not the way that I shall do to him, feast for Ab'ner and for the men that were with him. 21 Then Ab'ner said to David: "Let me rise up and go and collect all Israel together to my lord the king, that they may conclude a covenant with you, and you will certainly become to Ab'ner because of being afraid king over all that your soul craves." So David sent Ab'ner off, and he got on his way in peace.

Look! Ab'ner has come to you. Why was it that you sent him off so that he successfully went away? 25 You well know Ab'ner the son of Ner, that it was to fool you that he came and to him again, get to know your going out and your coming in and to get to know everything that you are doing."

At that all the people wept over

35 Later all the people came to give David bread for consolation while it was yet that day, but David swore, saying: "So may God do to me and so may he add to it, if before the sun sets I shall taste him return from the cistern of bread or anything at all!" 36 And Si'rah; and David himself did not all the people themselves took know of it. 27 When Ab'ner re- notice, and it was good in their turned to He'bron, Jo'ab now led eyes. So she came in to him and he lay down with her, while she was sanctifying herself from her uncleanness.

Consequently she sent and told David and said: "I am pregnant." 6 At this David sent to Jo'ab, saying: "Send to me U-ri'ah the Hit'tite." So Jo'ab sent U·ri'ah to David. 7 When U·ri'ah came how the war was getting along. 8 Finally David said to U.ri'ah: he might report to David all the "Go down to your house and bathe matters of the war. 19 And he your feet." Accordingly U-ri'ah went on to command the messenwent out from the king's house, and ger, saving: "As soon as you finish the king's courtesy gift went out speaking to the king about all the following him. 9 However, U-ri'ah matters of the war, 20 then it lay down at the entrance of the must occur that if the rage of the king's house with all the other king comes up and he does say to servants of his lord, and he did not you, 'Why did you have to go so go down to his own house. 10 So near to the city to fight? Was it not a woman that not gone down to your own house?" 11 At this U·ri'ah said to David: "The Ark and Israel and Judah are dwelling in booths, and my lord men have to go so close to the Jo'ab and the servants of my lord wall?' you must also say, 'Your are camping on the face of the field, and I-shall I go into my own too." house to eat and drink and to lie down with my wife? As you are living and as your soul is living. I shall not do this thing!"

12 Then David said to U·ri'ah: "Dwell here also today, and tomorrow I shall send you away." Therefore U·ri'ah kept dwelling in Jerusalem on that day and the day following, 13 Further, David called him that he might eat before him and drink. So he got him drunk. Nevertheless, he went out in the evening to lie down on his bed with the servants of his lord, and to his own house he did not go down. 14 And it came about in the morning that David proceeded to write a letter to Jo'ab and send it by the hand of U·ri'ah. 15 So he wrote in the letter, saving: "Pur U-ri'ah in front of the heaviest battle charges, and you men must retreat from behind him. and he must be struck down and die."

16 And it came about that while Jo'ab was keeping guard over the city he kept U·ri'ah put in the place where he knew that there were valiant men. 17 When the men of the city came on out and went fighting against Jo'ab, then some of the people, the servants of David, fell and U-ri'ah the Hit'tite

'Do not let this matter appear bad in your eyes, for the sword eats up one as well as another. Intensify your battle against the city and throw it down.' And encourage him."

26 And the wife of U-ri'ah got to hear that U-ri'ah her husband had died, and she began to wail over her owner. 27 When the mourning period was past. David immediately sent and took her home to his house, and she came to be his wife. In time she bore to him a son, but the thing that David had done appeared bad in the eyes of Jehovah.

So they themselves went off, as they had to tell King David; for they were not able to appear entering the city, 18 However, a young man got to see them and told Ab'sa·lom. So the two of them went off speedily and came to the house of a man in Ba·hu'rim, who had a well in his courtyard; and they went down into it. 19 After that the woman took and spread out a screen over the face of the barley and flour and roasted grain well and heaped up cracked grain and broad beans and lentils and upon it; and not a thing became known of it. 20 The servants of Ab'sa lom now came to the woman they brought forward for David and at her house and said: "Where the people that were with him to are A.him'a.az and Jon'a.than?" At this the woman said to them: "They passed on from here to the waters." Then they kept on searching, and they did not find them and so returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it came about after their going away that then they came up out of the well and went on and told King David and said to David: "You people, rise up and speedily pass over the waters; for this is the ru'iah, Jo'ab's brother, and one way that A.hith'o.phel counseled against you." 22 Immediately David rose up and also all the people: "I myself also shall withpeople that were with him, and they kept crossing the Jordan until the morning became light, until not a one was lacking that had not they would not set heart upon us; passed over the Jordan.

And he kept coming, steadily getting nearer. 26 The watchman now saw another man running. The watchman therefore called to the gatekeeper and said: "Look! Another man running by himself!" at which the king said: "This one also is a news bearer." 27 And the watchman went on to say: "I am seeing that the running style of the first is like the running style of A.him'a.az the son of Za'dok.' at which the king said: "This is a good man, and with good news he should come." 28 Eventually A.him'a.az called and said to the king: "It is well!" With that he bowed to the king with his face to the earth. And he went on to say: "Blessed be Jehovah your God, who has surrendered the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the 29 However, the king said: "Is it well with the young man Ab'salom?" To this A.him'a.az said: "I saw the great commotion at the time Jo'ab sent the king's servant and your servant, and I did not know what it was." 30 So the king said: "Step aside, take your position here." At that he stepped aside and kept standing still.

31 And here was the Cush'ite coming in. and the Cush'ite began to say: "Let my lord the king accept news, for Jehovah has judged a man will lodge with you tonight; you today [to free you] from the and this will certainly be worse for hand of all those rising up against man Ab'sa · lom?" To this the Cush'ite said: "May the enemies of my lord the king and all those who rose up against you for evil become as the young man."

33 Then the king became disturbed and went up to the roof gate by the wall. At length he sa·lom, my son, my son Ab'sa·lom! raised his eyes and saw and, look! O that I might have died, I myself, instead of you, Ab'sa lom my son, my son!"

19 Later it was reported to Jo'ab: "Look! The king is weeping, and he carries on mourning over Ab'sa lom." 2 So the salvation on that day came to be an occasion of mourning on the part of all the people, because the people heard say on that day: "The king has felt hurt over his son." 3 And the people began to steal away on that day to come into the city, just as the people would steal away when they felt disgraced because they fled in the battle. 4 And the king himself covered up his face, and the king continued crying out with a loud voice: "My son Ab'sa·lom! Ab'sa·lom my son, my son!"

5 Finally Jo'ab came in to the king at the house and said: "You have today put to shame the face of all your servants, the ones providing escape for your soul today and for the soul of your sons and your daughters and the soul of your wives and the soul of your concubines. 6 by loving those hating you and by hating those loving you; for you have reported today that princes and servants are nothing to you, because I well know today that if only Ab'sa·lom were alive and all of us others were today dead, why, in that case it would be right in your eyes. 7 And now rise up, go out and speak straight to the heart of your servants, because, by Jehovah, I do swear that, in case you are not going out, not you than all the injury that has you." 32 But the king said to the come upon you from your youth Cush'ite: "Is it well with the young until now." 8 Accordingly the king rose up and seated himself in the gate, and to all the people they made the report, saying: "There is the king sitting in the gate." And all the people began to come before the king.

As for Israel, they had fled each chamber over the gateway and gave one to his home. 9 And all the way to weeping; and this is what people came to be involved in dis-

So now why are You doing nothing to bring the king house of Joseph to go down to meet back?"

11 As for King David, he sent to Za'dok and A.bi'a.thar the priests, saying: "Speak to the older men of Judah, saying, 'Why should you become the last ones to bring the word of all Israel itself has come to the king at his house? 12 My brothers you are: my bone and my become the last ones to bring the king back?' 13 And to A.ma'sa you should say, 'Are you not my bone and my flesh? So may God if you will not become the army chief before me always instead of Jo'ab.' "

14 And he proceeded to bend the heart of all the men of Judah as one man, so that they sent word to the king: "Come back, you and all your servants."

15 And the king began to go back and got to come as far as the Jordan. As for Judah, they came to Gil'gal to go and meet the king. So why should you of me? Will anyone today be put to death in Israel? For do I not well know that today I am king over Israel?" 23 Then the king said to Shim'e.i: "You will not do to me and so may he add to it die." And the king went on to swear to him.

24 As for Me-phib'o-sheth the grandson of Saul, he came down to meet the king; and he had not attended to his feet nor had he attended to his mustache nor had he washed his garments from the day that the king went away until the day that he came in peace. 25 And it came about that, when he came to Jerusalem to meet the king, then the king said to him: to conduct the king across the "Why did you not go with me, Me phib'o sheth?" 26 To this he said: "My lord the king, it was my servant that tricked me. For your servant had said, 'Let me saddle the female ass for me that I may ride upon it and go with the king." for your servant is lame. 27 So he slandered your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king is as an angel of the [true] God, and so do what is good in your eyes. 28 For all the household of my father would have become nothing but doomed to death to my lord the king, and yet you placed your he fell down before the king when servant among those eating at your further to the king?"

(Incidentally, the Gib'e on ites were not of the fowls of the heavens to rest upon sons of Israel, but of the remainder of the Am'or ites; and the sons of Israel themselves had sworn to them, but Saul sought to strike them down in his feeling jealous for the sons of Israel and Judah.) 3 And David went on to say to the Gib'e on ites: "What shall I do to you, and with what shall I make atonement, that you may certainly bless the inheritance of Jehovah?" 4 So the Gib'e on ites said to him: "It is not a matter of silver or gold for us in connection with Saul and his household, neither is it ours to put a man to death in Israel." At that he said: "Whatever you are saying I shall do for you." 5 At this they said to the king: "The man that exterminated us and that schemed to annihilate us from subsisting in any of the territory of Israel. 6 let there be given to us seven men of his sons; and we must expose them to Jehovah in Gib'e-ah of Saul, the chosen one of Jehovah." At that time the men of David swore to him, saying: "You must not go out with us to the battle any more, that you may not extinguish the lamp of Israel!"

18 And it came about after this that war arose once more with the Phi·lis'tines at Gob. Then it was that Sib'be cai the Hu'shath ite struck down Saph, who was among those born of the Reph'a.im.

8 These are the names of the mighty men that belonged to David: Jo'sheb-bas-she'beth a Tahche'mo nite, the head of the three. He was brandishing his spear over eight hundred slain at one time. 9 Next to him E·le·a'zar the son of Do'do the son of A.ho'hi was among the three mighty men with David when they taunted the Philis'tines. They had gathered themselves there for the battle, and so the men of Israel retreated. 10 He it was that rose up and kept striking down the Phi-lis'tines until his hand wearied and his hand kept cleaving to the sword, so that Jehovah performed a great salvation

11 And next to him was Sham'mah the son of A'gee the Har'a rite. And the Phi-lis'tines proceeded to gather themselves to Le'hi, where there then happened to be a tract of the field full of lentils; and the people themselves fled because of the Phi·lis'tines. 12 But he took his stand in the middle of the tract and delivered it and kept striking down the Phi·lis'tines, so that Jehovah performed a great salvation.

13 And three of the thirty head ones proceeded to go down and come at [the] harvest, to David at the cave of A.dul'lam; and a tent village of the Phi-lis'tines was encamped in the low plain of the Reph'a·im. 14 And David was then in the place hard to approach: and an outpost of the Phi-lis'tines was then in Beth'le hem. 15 After a while David expressed his craving and said: "O that I might have a drink of the water from the cistern of Beth'le hem that is at the gate!" 16 At that the three mighty men forced their way into the camp of the Phi-lis'tines and drew water from the cistern of Beth'le hem that is at the gate and came carrying and bringing it to David; and he did not consent to drink it, but poured it out to Jehovah. 17 And he went on to say: "It is unthinkable on my part, O Jehovah, that I should do this! 10 Then David lay down with his forefathers and was buried in the city of David, 11 And the days that David had reigned over Israel were forty years. In He'bron he had reigned seven years, and in Jerusalem he had reigned thirtythree years.

12 As for Sol'o mon, he sat down upon the throne of David his father; and gradually his kingship became very firmly established.

13 In time Ad.o.ni'iah the son of Hag'gith came to Bath-she'ba, Sol'o mon's mother. At this she said: "Is your coming peaceable?" to which he said: "It is peaceable." 14 And he went on to say: "There is a matter I have for you." So she said: "Speak." 15 And he continued: "You yourself well know that the kingship was to have become mine, and it was toward me that all Israel had set their face for me to become king; but the kingship turned and came to be my brother's, for it was from Jehovah that it became his. 16 And now there is one request that I am making of you. Do not turn my face away." Accordingly she said to him: "Speak." 17 And he went on to say: "Please, say to Sol'o-mon the king (for he will not turn your face away) that he should give me Ab'i-shag the Shu'nam mite as a wife." 18 To this Bath-she'ba said: "Good! And we were together. There was no stranger with us in the house, no one but the two of us in the house. 19 Later the son of this woman died at night, because she lay upon him. 20 So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from beside me while your slave girl herself was asleep and laid him in her own bosom, and her dead son she laid in my bosom. 21 When I got up in the morning to nurse my son, why, there he was dead. So I examined him closely in the morning, and, look! he did not prove to be my son that I had borne." 22 But the other woman said: "No, but my son is the living one and your son is the dead one!" All the while this woman was saying: "No, but your son is the dead one and my son is the living one." And they kept on speaking before with food. It would devolve upon the king.

23 Finally the king said: "This and my son is the living one!" "You men, get me a sword." So king. 25 And the king proceeded to to the other." 26 At once the woman whose son was the living one said to the king (for her inward emotions were excited toward her son. so that she said): "Excuse me, my lord! You men, give her the living child. Do not by any means put him to death." All the while this other woman was saying: "Neither mine nor yours will he become. You men, do the severing!" 27 At that the king answered and said: "You men, give her the living child. and you must by no means put him to death. She is his mother."

28 And all Israel got to hear of the judicial decision that the king had handed down; and they became fearful because of the king. for they saw that the wisdom of God was within him to execute judicial decision.

4 And King Sol'o mon continued king over all Israel. 2 And these are the princes that he had: Az·a·ri'ah the son of Za'dok, the priest: 3 El·i·hor'eph and A·hi'iah, the sons of Shi'sha, secretaries: Je hosh'a phat the son of A hi'lud, the recorder; 4 and Be nai'ah the son of Je·hoi'a·da was over the army, and Za'dok and A·bi'a·thar were priests: 5 and Az·a·ri'ah the son of Nathan was over the deputies, and Za'bud the son of Nathan was a priest, the friend of the king; 6 and A.hi'shar was over the household, and Ad.o.ni'ram the son of Ab'da, over those conscripted for forced labor.

7 And it came about that as soon as Hi'ram heard the words of Sol'o mon, he began to rejoice greatly, and he went on to say: "Blessed is Jehovah today in that he has given David a wise son over this numerous people!" 8 Accordingly Hi'ram sent to Sol'o mon. saying: "I have heard what you sent to me. For my part, I shall do all your delight in the matter of timbers of cedar trees and timbers of juniper trees. 9 My servants themselves will bring them down out of Leb'a non to the sea: and I, for my part, shall put them in log rafts [to go] by sea clear to the place that you will send me notice of; and I shall certainly have them broken up there, and you, for your part, will carry them: and you, for your part, will do my delight by giving the food for my household."

13 And King Sol'o mon kept bringing up those conscripted for forced labor out of all Israel: and those conscripted for forced labor amounted to thirty thousand men. 14 And he would send them to Leb'a non in shifts of ten thousand a month. For a month they would continue in Leb'a non, for two months at their homes: and Ad-oni'ram was over those conscripted for forced labor, 15 And Sol'omon came to have seventy thousand burden bearers and eighty thousand cutters in the mountain. 16 besides Sol'o mon's princely deputies who were over the work. three thousand three hundred foremen over the people who were active in the work. 17 Accordingly the king commanded that they should quarry great stones, expensive stones, to lay the foundation of the house with hewn stones. 18 So Sol'o-mon's builders and Hi'ram's builders and the Ge'balites did the cutting, and they kept preparing the timbers and the stones to build the house.

And it came about in the four hundred and eightieth year after the sons of Israel came out from the land of Egypt, in the fourth year, in the month of Ziv, that is, the second month, after Sol'o mon became king over Israel, that he proceeded to build the house to Jehovah. 2 And the house that King Sol'o mon built to Jehovah was sixty cubits in its length, and twenty in its width, and thirty cubits in its height. 3 And the porch in front of the temple of the house was twenty cubits in its

So the people went away. 6 And King Re-ho-bo'am began to take counsel with the older men who had continued attending upon Sol'o mon his father while he continued alive, saying: "How are you advising to reply to this people?" 7 Accordingly they spoke to him, saying: "If today you would prove yourself a servant to this people and actually serve them, you must also answer them and speak to them with good words; and they will be bound to become your servants always."

8 However, he left the counsel of the older men with which they had advised him, and he began to take counsel with the young men that had grown up with him, who were the ones attending upon him. 9 And he went on to say to them: "What is it that you are offering in counsel that we may reply to this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke that your father put upon us lighter'?" 10 In turn the young men that had grown up with him spoke to him, saying: "This is what you should say to this people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father, for his part, made our yoke heavy, but, as for you, make it lighter upon us'; this is what you should speak to them, 'My little finger itself will certainly be thicker than my father's hips. 11 And now my father, for his part, loaded upon you a heavy voke; but I, for my part, shall add to your yoke, My father, for his part, chastised you of Judah by itself.

16 When all Israel got to see that the king had not listened to them, then the people replied to the king, saying: "What share do we have in David? And there is no inheritance in the son of Jes'se. To your gods, O Israel. Now see to your own house, O David!" With that Israel began to go to their tents. 17 As for the sons of Israel that were dwelling in the cities of Judah. Re-ho-bo'am continued to reign over them.

18 Subsequently King Re-hobo'am sent A.do'ram, who was over those conscripted for forced labor, but all Israel pelted him with stones, so that he died, And King Re·ho·bo'am himself managed to get up into the chariot to flee to Jerusalem. 19 And the Israelites kept up their revolt against the house of David down to this day.

He now said: "FILL four large jars with water and pour it upon the burnt offering and upon the pieces of wood."

And the watchman went on to report, saying: "The messenger came as far as to them, but he has not returned." 19 So he sent out a second rider on a horse, who, when he came to them, proceeded to say: "This is what the king has said, 'Is there peace?' " But Je'hu said: "What do you have to do

Now the sons of the king, seventy men, were with the distinguished men of the city that were bringing them up. 7 And it came about that as soon as the letter came to them, they went taking the sons of the king and slaughtering [them], seventy men, after which they put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jez're el. 8 Then the messenger came in and told him, saying: "They have brought the heads of the sons of the king." Now, then, do not take any more money from your acquaintances, but for the cracks of the house you should give it." 8 At that the priests consented not to take any more money from the people and not to repair the cracks of the house.

And his mother's name was A'bi the daughter of Zech·a·ri'ah. 3 And he continued to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes, according to all that David his forefather had done. 4 He it was that removed the high places and broke the sacred pillars to pieces and cut down the sacred pole and crushed to pieces the copper serpent that Moses had made: for down to those days the sons of Israel had continually been making sacrificial smoke to it, and it used to be called the copper serpent-idol, 5 In Jehovah the God of Israel he trusted; and after him there proved to be no one like him among all the kings of Judah, even those who had happened to be prior to him, 6 And he kept sticking to Jehovah. He did not turn aside from following him, but he continued keeping his commandments that Jehovah had commanded Moses. 7 And Jehovah proved to be with him. Wherever he would go out, he would act prudently; and he proceeded to rebel against the king of As-syr'i-a and did not serve him. 8 It was he that struck down the Phi·lis'tines clear to Ga'za 38 And the covenant that I have and also its territories, from the concluded with you, you must not tower of the watchmen clear to the 9 And it came about in the fourth | out to the king, but there came out son of E'lah the king of Israel, that Shal·man·e'ser the king of As·svr'i.a came up against Sa.mar'i.a and began to lay siege to it. 10 And they got to capture it at the end of three years; in the sixth year of Hez·e·ki'ah, that is, the ninth year of Ho she'a the king of Israel, Samar'i·a was captured. 11 After that the king of As·syr'i·a took Israel into exile in As syr'i a and set them down in Ha'lah and in Ha'bor at the river Go'zan and in the cities of the Medes, 12 over the fact that they had not listened to the voice of Jehovah their God, but kept overstepping his covenant, even all that Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded. They neither listened nor performed.

13 And in the fourteenth year of King Hez·e·ki'ah, Sen·nach'er·ib the king of As·syr'i·a came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and proceeded to seize them. 14 So Hez·e·ki'ah the king of Judah sent to the king of As·syr'i·a at La'chish, saying: "I have sinned. Turn back from against me. Whatever you may impose upon me I of As-syr'i-a laid upon Hez-e-ki'ah you two thousand horses [to see] the king of Judah three hundred silver talents and thirty gold house. 16 At that time Hez-eki'ah cut off the doors of the temple of Jehovah and the doorposts that Hez·e·ki'ah the king of Judah had overlaid and then gave them to the king of As·syr'i·a.

17 And the king of As·svr'i·a proceeded to send Tar'tan and Rabsa'ris and Rab'sha-keh from La'chish to King Hez·e·ki'ah with a said to Rab'sha·keh: "Speak with heavy military force to Jerusalem, your servants, please, in the Syrian that they might go up and come to language, for we can listen; and do Jerusalem. So they went up and not speak with us in the Jews' came and stood still by the con- language in the ears of the people duit of the upper pool, which is at that are on the wall." 27 But the highway of the laundryman's Rab'sha keh said to them: "Is it to field. 18 And they began to call your lord and to you that my lord

19 Accordingly Rab'sha keh said to them: "Please, say to Hez·e·ki'ah, 'This is what the great king, the king of As syr'i a, has said: "What is this confidence in which you have trusted? 20 You have said (but it is the word of lips), 'There are counsel and mightiness for the war.' Now in whom have you put your trust, that you have rebelled against me? 21 Now, look! you have put your trust in the support of this crushed reed, Egypt, which, if a man should brace himself upon it, would certainly enter into his palm and pierce it. That is the way Phar'aoh the king of Egypt is to all those putting their trust in him. 22 And in case you men should say to me, 'It is Jehovah our God in whom we have put our trust,' is he not the one whose high places and whose altars Hez·e·ki'ah has removed, while he says to Judah and Jerusalem, 'Before this altar you should bow down in Jerusalem'?"' 23 Now, then, make a wager, please, with my lord the shall carry." Accordingly the king king of As-syr'i-a, and let me give whether you are able, on your part, to put riders upon them. 24 How, talents. 15 Therefore Hez-e-kl'ah then, could you turn back the face gave all the silver that was to be of one governor of the smallest found at the house of Jehovah servants of my lord, while you, for and in the treasures of the king's your part, put your trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? 25 Now is it without authorization from Jehovah that I have come up against this place to bring it to ruin? Jehovah himself said to me. 'Go up against this land, and you must bring it to ruin."

26 At this E·li'a·kim the son of Hil-ki'ah and Sheb'nah and Jo'ah has sent me to speak these words? | with their garments ripped apart Is it not to the men sitting upon and told him the words of Rab'the wall, that they may eat their sha keh. own excrement and drink their own urine with you men?"

28 And Rab'sha keh continued to stand and call out in a loud voice in the Jews' language; and he went on to speak and say: "HEAR the word of the great king, the king of As·syr'i·a. 29 This is what the king has said, 'Do not let Hez·e·ki'ah deceive you people, for he is not able to deliver you out of my hand, 30 And do not let A'moz, 3 And they proceeded to Hez·e·ki'ah cause you to trust in Jehovah, saying: "Without fail Jehovah will deliver us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of As·syr'i·a." 31 Do not listen to Hez·e·ki'ah; for this is what the king of As·svr'i·a has said: "Make a capitulation to me, and come out to me, and eat each one from his own vine and each one from his own fig tree and drink each one the water of his own cistern, 32 until I come and I actually take you to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil-olive trees and honey; and keep living that you may not die. And do not listen to Hez·e·ki'ah, for he allures you, saying, 'Jehovah himself will deliver us.' 33 Have the gods of the nations at all delivered each one his own land out of the hand of the king of As-syr'i-a? 34 Where are the gods of Ha'math and Ar'pad? Where are the gods of Seph-arva'im. He'na and Iv'vah? Have they all the gods of the lands that have his own land."'" delivered their land out of my hand, so that Jehovah should deliver turned and found the king of As-Jerusalem out of my hand?"'"

36 And the people kept silent and did not answer him a word. for the commandment of the king it said respecting Tir ha'kah the was, saying: "You must not answer king of E-thi-o'pi-a: "Here he has him." 37 But E·li'a·kim the son come out to fight against you." of Hil ki'ah, who was over the Therefore he sent messengers again household, and Sheb'nah the secre- to Hez·e·ki'ah, saying: 10 "This tary and Jo'ah the son of A'saph is what you men should say to

19 And it came about that as soon as King Hez·e·ki'ah heard, he immediately ripped his garments apart and covered himself with sackcloth and came into the house of Jehovah. 2 Further. he sent E·li'a·kim, who was over the household, and Sheb'nah the secretary and the older men of the priests covered with sackcloth to Isaiah the prophet the son of say to him: "This is what Hez-eki'ah has said, 'This day is a day of distress and of rebuke and of scornful insolence: for the sons have come as far as the womb's mouth, and there is no power to give birth. 4 Perhaps Jehovah your God will hear all the words of Rab'sha keh, whom the king of As syr'i a his lord sent to taunt the living God, and he will actually call him to account for the words that Jehovah your God has heard. And you must lift up prayer in behalf of the remnant that are to be found."

5 So the servants of King Heze·ki'ah came in to Isaiah. 6 Then Isaiah said to them: "This is what you should say to your lord, "This is what Jehovah has said: "Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard with which the attendants of the king of As·syr'i·a spoke abusively of me. 7 Here I am putting a spirit in him, and he must hear a report and return to delivered Sa mar'i a out of my his own land; and I shall certainly hand? 35 Who are there among cause him to fall by the sword in

8 After that Rab'sha-keh resyr'i-a fighting against Lib'nah; for he had heard that he had pulled away from La'chish. 9 He heard the recorder came to Hez·e·ki'ah Hez·e·ki'ah the king of Judah. 'Do not let your God in whom you are trusting deceive you, saving: "Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of As syr'i.a." 11 Look! You yourself have heard what the kings of As·syr'i·a did to all the lands by devoting them to destruction; and will you yourself be delivered? 12 Have the gods of the nations that my forefathers brought to ruin delivered them. even Go'zan and Ha'ran and Re'zeph and the sons of E'den that were in Tel-as'sar? 13 Where is he-the king of Ha'math and the king of Ar'pad and the king of the cities of Seph-ar-va'im, He'na and Iv'vah?"

14 Then Hez·e·ki'ah took the letters out of the hand of the messengers and read them, after which Hez·e·ki'ah went up to the house of Jehovah and spread it out before Jehovah. 15 And Hez-eki'ah began to pray before Jehovah and say: "O Jehovah the God of Israel, sitting upon the cherubs, you alone are the [true] God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You yourself have made the heavens and the earth. 16 Incline your ear, O Jehovah, and hear, Open your eyes, O Jehovah, and see, and hear the words of Sen nach'er ib that he has sent to taunt the living God. 17 It is a fact. O Jehovah. the kings of As-syr'i-a have devastated the nations and their land. 18 And they have consigned their gods to the fire, because they were no gods, but the workmanship of man's hands, wood and stone; so that they destroyed them. 19 And now. O Jehovah our God, save us. please, out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, O Jehovah, are God alone."

20 And Isaiah the son of A'moz proceeded to send to Hez·e·ki'ah. saving: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, "The prayer that you have made to me concerning Sen nach'er ib the king of As syr'i a I have heard. 21 This is the word that Jehovah has spoken against him:

"The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you, she has held you in derision.

It is against the Holy One of Israel!

The very zeal of Jehovah of armies will do this.

God's sign. 185,000 die. Hezekiah sick

In those days Hez·e·ki'ah got sick to the point of dying. Accordingly Isaiah the son of A'moz the prophet came in to him and said to him: "This is what Jehovah has said. 'Give commands to your household, for you yourself will indeed die and will not live." 2 At that he turned his face to the wall and began to pray to Jehovah, saving: 3 "I beseech you, O Jehovah, remember, please, how I have walked before you in truthfulness and with a complete heart, and what was good in your eyes I have done." And Hez·e·ki'ah began to weep profusely.

4 And it came about that Isaiah himself had not yet gone out to the middle court when Jehovah's word itself came to him, saving: 5 "Go back, and you must say to Hez-eki'ah the leader of my people, This is what Jehovah the God of David your forefather has said: "I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Here I am healing you. 465 Babylonians see Hezekiah's riches. Manasseh 2 KINGS 20:11-21:9

12 At that time Be-ro'dachbal'a dan the son of Bal'a dan the king of Babylon sent letters and a gift to Hez·e·ki'ah; for he had heard that Hez·e·ki'ah had been sick. 13 And Hez-e-ki'ah proceeded to listen to them and show them all his treasure house, the silver and the gold and the balsam oil and the good oil and his armory and all that was to be found in his treasures. There proved to be nothing that Hez·e·ki'ah did not show them in his own house and in all his dominion.

14 After that Isaiah the prophet came in to King Hez·e·ki'ah and said to him: "What did these men say and from where did they proceed to come to you?" So Hez-eki'ah said: "From a distant land they came, from Babylon." 15 And he went on to say: "What did they see in your house?" To this Hez-eki'ah said: "Everything that is in my house they saw. There proved to be nothing that I did not show them in my treasures."

16 Isaiah now said to Hez-eki'ah: "Hear the word of Jehovah. 17 '"Look! Days are coming, and all that is in your own house and that your forefathers have stored up down to this day will actually be carried to Babylon, Nothing will be left," Jehovah has said. 18 "And some of your own sons that will come forth from you to whom you will become father will themselves be taken and actually become court officials in the palace of the king of Babylon." " written in the book of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 21 Finally Hez·e·ki'ah lay down with his forefathers: and Ma-nas'seh his son began to reign in place of him.

21 Twelve years out was nas'seh when he began to reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Heph'zi·bah. 2 And he proceeded to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, according to the detestable things of the nations that Jehovah had driven out from before the sons of Israel. 3 So he built again the high places that Hez-eki'ah his father had destroyed, and set up altars to Ba'al and made a sacred pole, just as A'hab the king of Israel had done; and he began to bow down to all the army of the heavens and to serve them. 4 And he built altars in the house of Jehovah, respecting which Jehovah had said: "In Jerusalem I shall put my name." 5 And he went on to build altars to all the army of the heavens in two courtvards of the house of Jehovah. 6 And he made his own son pass through the fire, and he practiced magic and looked for omens and made spirit mediums and professional foretellers of events. He did on a large scale what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, to offend him.

7 Further, he put the carved image of the sacred pole that he had made in the house of which Jehovah had said to David and to Sol'o mon his son: "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I shall put my name to time indefinite. 8 And I shall not again make the foot of Israel wander from the ground that I gave to their forefathers, provided only they are careful to do according to all that I have commanded them, even conpeace and truth themselves will cerning all the law that my servant Moses commanded them." 20 As for the rest of the affairs 9 And they did not listen, but of Hez·e·ki'ah and all his mighti- Ma·nas'seh kept seducing them to do what was bad more than the salem. And his mother's name was nations whom Jehovah had annihilated from before the sons of Israel.

10 And Jehovah kept speaking by means of his servants the prophets, saying: 11 "For the reason that Ma nas'seh the king of Judah has done these detestable things, he has acted more wickedly than all that the Am'or ites did that were prior to him, and he proceeded to make even Judah sin with his dungy idols. 12 That is why this is Jehovah. 23 Eventually servants what Jehovah the God of Israel of A'mon conspired against him has said, 'Here I am bringing a calamity upon Jerusalem and Judah, of which if anyone hears both his ears will tingle. 13 And I shall certainly stretch upon Jerusalem the measuring line applied to Sa·mar'i·a and also the leveling instrument applied to the house of A'hab; and I shall simply wipe Jerusalem clean just as one wipes the handleless bowl clean, wiping it clean and turning it upside down. 14 And I shall indeed forsake the remnant of my inheritance and give them into the hand of their enemies, and they will simply become plunder and pillage to all their enemies, 15 for the reason that they did what was bad in my eyes and were continually offending me from the day that their forefathers came out from Egypt down to this

16 And there was also innocent blood that Ma nas'seh shed in very great quantity, until he had filled Jerusalem from end to end, besides his sin with which he caused Judah to sin by doing what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah. 17 As for the rest of the affairs of Ma·nas'seh and all that he did and his sin with which he sinned, are they not written in the book of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 18 Finally Ma·nas'seh lay down with his forefathers and was buried in the garden of his house, in the garden of Uz'za; and A'mon his son began to reign in place of him.

19 Twenty-two years old was for two years he reigned in Jeru- house, 6 to the craftsmen and the

Me-shul'le-meth the daughter of Ha'ruz from Jot'bah. 20 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, just as Ma·nas'seh his father had done. 21 And he kept walking in all the way that his father had walked, and he continued serving the dungy idols that his father had served and bowing down to them. 22 Thus he left Jehovah the God of his forefathers, and he did not walk in the way of and put the king to death in his own house. 24 But the people of the land struck down all the conspirators against King A'mon. Then the people of the land made Josi'ah his son king in place of him. 25 As for the rest of the affairs of A'mon, what he did, are they not written in the book of the affairs of the days of the kings of Judah? 26 So they buried him in his grave in the garden of Uz'za; and Jo-si'ah his son began to reign in place of him.

22 Eight years old was Jo-si'ah when he began to reign, and for thirty-one years he reigned in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Je-di'dah the daughter of A.dai'ah from Boz'kath. 2 And he proceeded to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes and to walk in all the way of David his forefather, and he did not turn aside to the

3 And it came about in the eighteenth year of King Jo-si'ah that the king sent Sha'phan the son of Az·a·li'ah the son of Meshul'lam the secretary to the house of Jehovah, saying: 4 "Go up to Hil·ki'ah the high priest, and let him complete the money that is being brought into the house of Jehovah that the doorkeepers have gathered from the people; 5 and let them put it into the hand of those doing the work, the appointed ones, in the house of Jehovah, that they may give it to those doing the work who are in the house of A'mon when he began to reign, and Jehovah to repair the cracks of the builders and the masons, and to buy is what Jehovah the God of Israel they are working."

8 Later Hil·ki'ah the high priest said to Sha'phan the secretary: found in the house of Jehovah." So Hil-ki'ah gave the book to Sha'phan, and he began to read it. the king and said: "Your servants have poured out the money that of the doers of the work, the ones appointed, in the house of Jehovah." 10 And Sha'phan the secretary went on to tell the king, saying: "There is a book that Hil·ki'ah the priest has given me." And Sha'phan began to read it before the king.

Il And it came about that as soon as the king heard the words of the book of the law, he immediately ripped his garments apart. 12 Then the king commanded Hilki'ah the priest and A hi'kam the son of Mi-cai'ah and Sha'phan the secretary and A sai'ah the king's servant, saying: 13 "Go, inquire of Jehovah in my own behalf and in behalf of the people and in behalf of all Judah concerning the words of this book that has been found; for great is Jehovah's rage that has been set afire against us over the fact that our up to the house of Jehovah, and words of this book by doing accord-

And they proceeded to bring the king the reply.

99 Then the king sent and they gathered together to him all the older men of Judah and Jerusalem. 2 After that the king went forefathers did not listen to the also all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and also the priests and the prophets and all the people, from 14 Accordingly Hil·ki'ah the small to great; and he began to read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that had to Hul'dah the prophetess the wife been found in the house of Jehoof Shal'lum the son of Tik'vah the vah. 3 And the king kept standing son of Har'has, the caretaker of by the pillar and now concluded the the garments, as she was dwelling covenant before Jehovah, to walk in Jerusalem in the second quarter; after Jehovah and to keep his comand they proceeded to speak to her. | mandments and his testimonies and 15 In turn she said to them: "This his statutes with all the heart and

4 And the king went on to command Hil-ki'ah the high priest and the priests of the second rank and the doorkeepers to bring out from the temple of Jehovah all the utensils made for Ba'al and for the sacred pole and for all the army of the heavens. Then he burned them outside Jerusalem on the terraces of Kid'ron, and he brought the dust of them to Beth'el. 5 And he put out of business the foreigngod priests, whom the kings of Judah had put in that they might make sacrificial smoke on the high places in the cities of Judah and the surroundings of Jerusalem, and also those making sacrificial smoke to Ba'al, to the sun and to the moon and to the constellations of the zodiac and to all the army of the heavens. 6 Furthermore, he brought out the sacred pole from the house of Jehovah to the outskirts of Jerusalem, to the torrent valley of Kid'ron, and burned it in the torrent valley of Kid'ron and ground it to dust and cast its dust upon the burial place of the sons of the people. 7 Further, he pulled down the houses of the male temple prostitutes that were in the house of Jehovah, where the women were weaving tent shrines for the sacred pole.

8 Then he brought all the priests from the cities of Judah, that he might make unfit for worship the high places where the priests had made sacrificial smoke, from Ge'ba as far as Be'er-she'ba; and he pulled down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua, the chief of the city, which was at the left as a person came into the gate of the city. 9 Only the priests of the high places would not come up to the altar of Jehovah in Jerusalem, but they ate unfermented cakes in among their brothers. 10 And he made unfit for worship To'pheth. which is in the valley of the sons Judah and proceeded to proclaim make his son or his daughter pass through the fire to Mo'lech. 11 Further, he caused the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun to cease from entering the house of Jehovah by the dining room of Na'than-me'lech the court official, which was in the porticoes: and the chariots of the sun he burned in the fire. 12 And the altars that were upon the roof of the roof chamber of A'haz that the kings of Judah had made, and the altars that Ma nas'seh had made in two courtvards of the house of Jehovah, the king pulled down, after which he crushed them there, and he cast their dust into the torrent valley of Kid'ron. 13 And the high places that were in front of Jerusalem, that were to the right of the Mount of Ruination. that Sol'o mon the king of Israel had built to Ash'to reth the disgusting thing of the Si-do'ni-ans and to Che'mosh the disgusting thing of Mo'ab and to Mil'com the detestable thing of the sons of Am'mon, the king made unfit for worship. 14 And he broke the sacred pillars to pieces and went on to cut down the sacred poles and to fill their places with human bones. 15 And also the altar that was in Beth'el, the high place that Jer-obo'am the son of Ne'bat, who caused Israel to sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he pulled down. Then he burned the high place; he ground [it] to dust and burned the sacred pole.

16 When Jo si'ah turned, he got to see the burial places that were there in the mountain. So he sent and took the bones from the burial places and burned them upon the altar, that he might make it unfit for worship, according to Jehovah's word that the man of the [true] God had proclaimed, who pro-claimed these things. 17 Then he said: "What is the gravestone over there that I am seeing?" At this the men of the city said to him: "It is the burial place of the man of the [true] God that came from along with the bones of the proph- 'My name will continue there.' " et that had come from Sa mar'i.a.

These were Ja'besh; and they went fasting for the sons of A'zel.

And the Phi-lis'tines, for their part, made war upon Israel: from before the Phi-lis'tines and kept falling slain in Mount Gil-bo'a. 2 And the Phi·lis'tines kept in close the Phi-lis'tines got to strike down Jon'a than and A bin'a dab and Mal'chi-shu'a, sons of Saul. 3 And the fighting became heavy against Saul; and those shooting with the bow finally found him, and he got wounded by the shooters. 4 Then Saul said to his armor-bearer: "Draw your sword and run me through with it, that these uncircumcised men may not come and certainly deal abusively with me." And his armor-bearer was unwilling, because he was very much afraid. So Saul took the sword and fell upon it. 5 When his armor-bearer saw that Saul had died, then he too fell upon the sword and died. 6 Thus Saul and three sons of his died, and all those of his house died together. 7 When all the men of Israel that were in the low plain saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, then they began to leave their cities and flee; after which the Phi-lis'tines came on in and took up dwelling in them.

8 And it came about the next day that, when the Phi-lis'tines came to strip the slain, they got to find Saul and his sons fallen upon Mount Gil·bo'a. 9 And they proceeded to strip him and take off his head and his armor and send into the land of the Phi-lis'tines all around to inform their idols and the people. 10 Finally they put his armor in the house of their god, and his skull they fastened to the house of Da'gon.

11 And all those of Ja'besh in Gil'e ad got to hear of all that the Phi-lis'tines had done to Saul. 12 So all the valiant men rose up and carried off the corpse of Saul and the corpses of his sons and brought them to Ja'besh and buried their bones under the big tree in seven days.

Consequently he put three hundred slain at one time. him to death and turned the kingship over to David the son of Jes'se.

In time all the Israelites collected themselves together to David at He'bron, saving: "Look! We are your bone and your flesh. 2 Both yesterday and previously, even while Saul happened to be king, you were the one leading Israel out and bringing it in; and Jehovah your God proceeded to say to you, 'You yourself will shepherd my people Israel, and you yourself will become leader over my people Israel.'" 3 So all the older men of Israel came to the king at He'bron and David concluded a covenant with them in He'bron before Jehovah: after which they anointed David as king over Israel, according to Jehovah's word by means of Samuel. 4 Later David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, that is to say, Je'bus, where the Jeb'u-sites were the inhabitants of the land. 5 And the inhabitants of Je'bus began to say to David: "You will not come in here." Just the same. David proceeded to capture the stronghold of Zion, that is to say, the city of David. 6 So David said: "Anyone striking the Jeb'u-sites first, he will become head and prince." Now there happened to be a tract of the field full of barley. and the people, for their part, had fled because of the Phi-lis'tines. 14 But he took his stand in the middle of the tract and delivered it, and kept striking down the Philis'tines, so that Jehovah saved with a great salvation.

15 And three of the thirty head ones proceeded to go down to the rock, to David at the cave of A.dul'lam, while a camp of the Phi-lis'tines was camping in the low plain of Reph'a.im. 16 And David was then in the place hard to approach; and a garrison of the Phi·lis'tines was then in Beth'lehem. 17 After a while David showed his craving and said: "O that I might have a drink of the water from the cistern of Beth'le hem, which is at the gate!" 18 At that the three forced their way into the camp of the Phi-lis'tines and drew water from the cistern of Beth'le hem, which is at the gate, and came carrying and bringing it to David, And David go up first, and he came to be head. bringing it to David. And he continued building houses for himself in the city of David: and he went on to prepare a place for the ark of the [true] God and pitch a tent for it. "No one is to carry the ark of the [true] God but the Levites, for they are the ones whom Jehovah as king over all Israel. 29 And it came about that, when the ark of the covenant of Jehovah came as far as the city of David. Mi'chal, Saul's daughter, herself looked down through the window and got to see King David skipping about and celebrating; and she began to despise him in her heart.

16 Thus they brought the ark of the [true] God in and placed it inside the tent that David had pitched for it; and they began to present burnt offerings and communion sacrifices before the [true] God. 2 When David finished offering up the burnt offering and the communion sacrifices, he went on to bless the people in the name of Jehovah. 3 Further, he apportioned to all the Israelites, man as well as woman, to each one a round loaf of bread and a date cake and a raisin cake, 4 Then he put before the ark of Jehovah some of the Levites as ministers, both to call to remembrance and to thank and praise Jehovah the God of Israel, 5 A'saph the head, and second to him Zech-a-ri'ah, and Je·i'el and She·mir'a·moth and Jehi'el and Mat-ti-thi'ah and E-li'ab and Be nai'ah and O'bed-e'dom and Je·i'el, with instruments of the 25 And David and the older men string type and with harps, and of Israel and the chiefs of the A'saph with the cymbals playing thousands came to be the ones aloud, 6 and Be-nai'ah and Jawalking along to bring up the ark ha zi'el the priests with the trumof the covenant of Jehovah from pets constantly before the ark of 12 As for A.bish'ai the son of Ze·ru'iah, he struck down the E'dom-ites in the Valley of Salt, eighteen thousand. 13 So he put garrisons in E'dom, and all the E'dom·ites came to be David's servants. And Jehovah kept saving David wherever he went. 14 And David continued to reign over all Israel, and he was continually rendering judicial decision and righteousness for all his people. 15 And Jo'ab the son of Ze ru'lah was over the army, and Je-hosh'a-phat the son of A hi'lud was recorder. 16 And Za'dok the son of A hi'tub and A.him'e-lech the son of A.bi'athar were priests, and Shav'sha was secretary. 17 And Be-nai'ah the son of Je-hoi'a-da was over the Cher'e thites and the Pel'e thites: and the sons of David were the first in position at the side of the king.

Then you must return."

Then they came in and camped before Med'e ba; and as for the sons of Am'mon, they gathered together from their cities and now came in for the war.

7 Now this thing was bad in the eyes of the [true] God, and so he struck down Israel. 8 Consequently David said to the [true] God: "I have sinned very much in that people, and is it not I that have I have done this thing. And now, sinned and have unquestionably please, cause your servant's error to pass away; for I have acted very foolishly." 9 And Jehovah proceeded to speak to Gad, David's visionary, saying: 10 "Go, and you must speak to David, saying, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "There are three things that I am directing against you, Choose for that David should go up to erect yourself one of them, that I may do it to you."'" 11 Accordingly Gad went in to David and said to him: "This is what Jehovah has said. As for these sheep, what have they done? O Jehovah my God, let your hand, please, come to be upon me and my father's house: but not upon your people, for a scourge."

> 18 And Jehovah's angel, for his part, said to Gad to say to David an altar to Jehovah on the threshing floor of Or'nan the Jeb'u-site. 19 Accordingly David went up at the word of Gad that he had spoken in the name of Jehovah. 20 Meantime, Or'nan turned back and saw the angel; and his four sons with him were hiding themselves. Now Or'nan had been threshing wheat. 21 So David came as far as Or'nan. When Or'nan looked and saw David, he immediately went out of the threshing floor and bowed down to David with his face to the earth. 22 Then David said to Or'nan: "Do give me the place of the threshing floor, that I may build in it an altar to Jehovah. 6 Moreover, he called Sol'o mon his son that he might command him to build a house to Jehovah the God of Israel. 7 And David went on to say to Sol'o mon his son: "As for myself, it became close to my heart to build a house to the name of Jehovah my God. 3 But Jehovah's word came against me, saying, 'Blood in great quantity you have spilled, and great wars you have waged. You will not build a house to my name, for a great deal of blood you have spilled on the earth before me. 9 Look! There is a son being born to you. He himself will prove to be a restful man, and I shall certainly give him rest from all his enemies all around: for Sol'o mon is what his name will become, and peace and quietness I shall bestow upon Israel in his days. 10 It is he that will build a house to my name, and he himself will become a son to me. and I a father to him. And I shall certainly establish the throne of his kingship firmly over Israel to time indefinite.'

17 And David went on to command all the princes of Israel to help Sol'o mon his son: 18 "Is not Jehovah your God with you, and has he not given you rest all around? For he has given into my hand the inhabitants of the land. and the land has been subdued before Jehovah and before his people. 19 Now set your heart and Your soul to inquire after Jehovah YOUR God, and rise and build the sanctuary of Jehovah the [true] God, to bring the ark of the covenant of Jehovah and the holy utensils of the [true] God to the house built to the name of Jehovah."

23 And David himself had grown old and satisfied with days, and so he made Sol'o mon his son king over Israel. 2 And he proceeded to gather all the princes of Israel and the priests and the Levites. 3 Accordingly the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years upward; and their number, head by head of them, able-bodied man by able-bodied man, came to be thirty-eight thousand. 4 Of these for acting as supervisors over the work of the house of Jehovah there were twentyfour thousand; and as officers and judges six thousand; 5 and four thousand gatekeepers and four thousand givers of praise to Jehovah on the instruments that [David said] "I have made for giving praise."

6 Then David distributed them in divisions to the sons of Le'vi, to Ger'shon, Ko'hath and Me·rar'i. 7 To the Ger'shon ites, La'dan and were Je hi'el the headman and thers for La'dan. 10 And the sons of Shim'e-i were Ja'hath. Zi'na and Je'ush and Be ri'ah. These four were the sons of Shim'e.i. 11 And Ja'hath came to be the head, and Zi'zah the second. As for Je'ush and Be-ri'ah, they did not have many sons; so they became a paternal house for one official class.

12 The sons of Ko'hath were Am'ram, Iz'har, He'bron and Uz'zi el, four. 13 The sons of Am'ram were Aaron and Moses. But Aaron was separated that he might sanctify the Most Holy, he and his sons to time indefinite, to make sacrificial smoke before Jehovah, to minister to him and to pronounce blessing in his name to time indefinite. 14 As for Moses the man of the [true] God, his sons themselves continued to be called among the tribe of the Levites. 15 The sons of Moses were Ger'shom and E·li·e'zer. 16 The sons of Ger'shom were Sheb'u el the head. 17 And the sons of E-li-e'zer came to be Re-ha-bi'ah the head: and E·li·e'zer did not come to have other sons, but the sons of Re habi'ah did themselves become exceedingly many, 18 The sons of Iz'har were She·lo'mith the headman. 19 The sons of He'bron were Je-ri'ah the head, Am-a-ri'ah the second. Ja.ha.zi'el the third and Jek-a-me'am the fourth. 20 The sons of Uz'zi·el were Mi'cah the head and Is-shi'ah the second.

21 The sons of Me rar'i were Mah'li and Mu'shi. The sons of Mah'li were E·le·a'zar and Kish. 22 But E-le-a'zar died: and he had come to have, not sons, but daughters. So the sons of Kish their brothers took them [as wives]. 23 The sons of Mu'shi were Mah'li and E'der and Jer'e moth, three,

24 These were the sons of Le'vi by the house of their fathers, the heads of the fathers, by their commissioned ones, in the number of Shim'e i. 8 The sons of La'dan the names, head by head of them, the doers of the work for the serv-Ze'tham and Joel, three. 9 The ice of the house of Jehovah, from sons of Shim'e-i were She-lo'moth the age of twenty years upward. and Ha'zi el and Ha'ran, three, 25 For David had said: "Jehovah These were the heads of the fa- the God of Israel has given rest

24 Now the sons of Aaron had their divisions. The sons of Aaron were Na'dab and A.bi'hu, E·le·a'zar and Ith'a·mar. 2 However. Na'dab and A bi'hu died before their father, and they did not happen to have any sons, but E·le·a'zar and Ith'a·mar continued to act as priests. 3 And David, and Za'dok from the sons of E-lea'zar, and A.him'e-lech from the sons of Ith'a mar proceeded to make divisions of them for their office in their service. 4 But the sons of E-le-a'zar were found to be more numerous in headmen than the sons of Ith'a mar. So they distributed them to the sons of E·le·a'zar, as heads for [their] Je·ri'ah the head, Am·a·ri'ah the 19 These were their offices for their service, to come into the house of Jehovah according to their due right by the hand of Aaron their forefather, just as Jehovah the God of Israel had commanded him.

20 And of the sons of Le'vi that were left over, of the sons of Am'ram there was Shu'ba el; of the sons of Shu'ba·el, Jeh·de'iah; 21 of Re·ha·bi'ah: of the sons of Re·ha·bi'ah, Is·shi'ah the head; 22 of the Iz'har · ites, She · lo'moth: of the sons of She·lo'moth, Ja'hath; 23 and the sons [of He'bron]. paternal houses, sixteen, and to second, Ja.ha.zi'el the third. These were the sons of the Levites by their paternal houses. 31 And they themselves also proceeded to cast lots exactly as their brothers the sons of Aaron did before David the king and Za'dok and A him'e lech and the heads of the paternal houses of the priests and of the Levites. As respects paternal houses, the head one was exactly as his younger brother.

20 And David went on to say to Sol'o·mon his son: "Be courageous and strong and act. Do not be now, for Jehovah himself has afraid nor be terrified, for Jehovah God, my God, is with you. He will not desert you or leave you until all the work of the service of Jehovah's house is finished. 21 And here are the divisions of the priests and of the Levites for all the service of the house of the [true] God: and with you in all the work there is every willing one with skill for all the service, and also the princes and all the people, for all your words."

29 David the king now said to all the congregation: "Sol'o mon my son, the one [whom] God has chosen, is young and delicate, but the work is great; for the castle is not for man, but for Jehovah and for the small gold bowls by walls of the houses; 5 of the gold

10 Consequently David blessed Jehovah before the eyes of all the congregation and David said: "Blessed may you be, O Jehovah the God of Israel our father, from time indefinite even to time indefinite. 11 Yours, O Jehovah, are the greatness and the mightiness and the beauty and the excellency and the dignity; for everything in the heavens and in the earth is [yours]. 20 And David went on to say to all the congregation: "Bless, now, Jehovah your God." And all the congregation proceeded to bless Jehovah the God of their forefathers and bow low and prostrate themselves to Jehovah and to the king. 21 And they continued to sacrifice sacrifices to Jehovah and offer up burnt offerings to Jehovah on the day following that day, a thousand young bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand male lambs and their drink offerings, even sacrifices in great number for all Israel. 22 And they continued eating and drinking before Jehovah on that day with great rejoicing; and they proceeded a second time to make Sol'o mon the son of David king and to anoint him to Jehovah as leader and also Za'dok as priest. 23 And Sol'o-14 "And yet, who am I and who mon began to sit upon Jehovah's are my people, that we should re- throne as king in place of David tain power to make voluntary offer- his father and to make a success

17 Then Sol'o mon took a count of all the men that were alien residents, who were in the land of Israel, after the census that David his father had taken of them; and there came to be found a hundred length was twenty cubits, the one and fifty-three thousand six hundred. 18 So he made seventy thousand of them burden bearers and eighty thousand cutters in the mountain and three thousand six hundred overseers for keeping the people in service.

9 Finally Sol'o mon started to build the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem on Mount Mori'ah, where [Jehovah] had appeared to David his father, in the place that David had prepared on the threshing floor of Or'nan the Jeb'u-site, 2 Accordingly he started to build in the second month on the second [day], in the fourth year of his reign. 3 And these things Sol'omon laid as a foundation for building the house of the [true] God, the length in cubits by the former measurement being sixty cubits, and the width twenty cubits. 4 And the porch that was in front in necklace style and put them of the length was twenty cubits in upon the tops of the pillars, and front of the width of the house, and made a hundred pomegranates and its height was a hundred and put them on the chains. 17 And twenty; and he proceeded to over- he proceeded to set up the pillars lay it inside with pure gold. 5 And in front of the temple, one to the the great house he covered with right and one to the left, after which juniper wood, after which he cov- he called the name of the rightered it with good gold, and then hand one Ja'chin and the name of he brought up upon it palm-tree the left-hand one Bo'az.

10 Then he made in the house of the Most Holy two cherubs in the workmanship of images, and overlaid them with gold. 11 As for wing of five cubits reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing of five cubits reaching to the wing of the other cherub. 12 And the wing of the one cherub of five cubits was reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing of five cubits was in contact with the wing of the other cherub. 13 The wings of these cherubs were spread out twenty cubits; and they were standing upon their feet with their faces inward.

As a receptacle, three thousand bath measures were what it could contain.

6 Further, he made ten basins, and put five to the right and five to the left, to wash in them. Things having to do with the burnt offering they would rinse in them. But the sea was for the priests to wash

Finally all the work that Sol'omon had to do for the house of Jehovah was at its completion, and Sol'o mon began to bring in the things made holy by David his father; and the silver and the gold and all the utensils he put in the treasures of the house of the [true] God. 2 It was then that Sol'o mon proceeded to congregate the older men of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the chieftains of the paternal houses of the sons of Is-So Hi'ram finished doing the rael, to Jerusalem, to bring the ark of the covenant of Jehovah up mon on the house of the [true] from the city of David, that is to God. 12 The two pillars and the say, Zion. 3 So all the men of Israel congregated themselves to and thanking Jehovah, and as soon seventh month.

The priests the Levites brought them up. 6 And King Sol'o mon and all the assembly of Israelites that were keeping their appointment with him before the Ark were sacrificing sheep and cattle that could not be counted or numbered for to reside in the thick gloom; multitude. 7 Then the priests 2 and I, for my part, have built a brought the ark of the covenant of Jehovah into its place, into the innermost room of the house, into the Most Holy, to underneath the wings of the cherubs. 8 Thus the cherubs were continually spreading out their wings over the place of the Ark, so that the cherubs covered over the Ark and its poles from above. 9 But the poles were long, so that the tips of the poles were visible at the Holy in front of the innermost room, but they were not visible outside, and they continue there down to this day. 10 There the land of Egypt I have not chosen was nothing in the Ark but the two tablets that Moses had given at Ho'reb, when Jehovah covenanted with the sons of Israel while they were coming out from Egypt.

8 And it came about at the end of twenty years, in which Sol'o·mon had built the house of Jehovah and his own house, 2 that the cities that Hi'ram had given to Sol'o·mon-Sol'o·mon rebuilt them and then caused the sons of Israel to dwell there. 3 Furthermore, Sol'o mon went to Ha'mathzo'bah and prevailed over it. 4 Then he rebuilt Tad'mor in the wilderness and all the storage cities that he had built in Ha'math. 5 And he went on to build Upper Beth-ho'ron and Lower Bethho'ron, fortified cities with walls. doors and bar, 6 and Ba'al ath and all the storage cities that had become Sol'o mon's and all the chariot cities and the cities for the horsemen and every desirable thing of Sol'o mon that he had desired to build in Jerusalem and in Leb'anon and in all the land of his dominion.

7 As for all the people that were left over of the Hit'tites and the Am'or ites and the Per'iz zites and the Hi'vites and the Jeb'u-sites, who were no part of Israel. 8 from their sons that had been left behind them in the land, whom the sons of Israel had not exterminated, Sol'o·mon kept levying men for forced labor until this day. 9 But there were none out of the sons of Israel that Sol'o mon constituted slaves for his work; for they were warriors and chiefs of his adjutants and chiefs of his charioteers and of his horsemen. 10 These were the chiefs of the deputies that belonged to King Sol'o mon, two \ And the queen of She'ba herhundred and fifty, the foremen over the people.

12 It was then that Sol'o mon offered up burnt sacrifices to Jehovah upon the altar of Jehovah that he had built before the porch. 13 even as a daily matter of course to make offerings according to the commandment of Moses for the sabbaths and for the new moons and for the appointed festivals three times in the year, at the festival of unfermented cakes and at the festival of the weeks and at the festival of the booths. 14 Further, he set the divisions of the priests over their services according to the rule of David his father, and the Levites at their posts of duty, to praise and to minister in front of the priests as a daily matter of course, and the gatekeepers in their divisions for the different gates, for such was the commandment of David the man of the [true] God. 15 And they did not turn aside from the king's commandment to the priests and the Levites concerning any matter and concerning the supplies. 16 So Sol'o mon's work was all in a prepared state from the day of the foundation-laving of the house of Jehovah until it was finished. [So] the house of Jehovah was complete.

17 It was then that Sol'o mon went to E'zi-on-ge'ber and to E'loth upon the shore of the sea in the land of E'dom. 18 And Hi'ram regularly sent to him by means of his servants ships and servants having a knowledge of the sea, and they would come with Sol'o mon's servants to O'phir and take from there four hundred and fifty talents of gold and bring it to King Sol'omon.

You have surpassed the report that I have heard. 7 Happy are your men, and happy are these servants of yours who are standing before you constantly and listening to your wisdom. 8 May Jehovah your God come to be blessed, who has taken delight in you by putting you upon his throne as king for Jehovah your God: because your God loved Israel, to make it stand to time indefinite, so that he was a footstool in gold to the throne put you over them as king to execute judicial decision and righteousness."

9 Then she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold. and balsam oil in very great quantity, and precious stones; and there had not come to be the like of that balsam oil which the queen of She'ba gave to King Sol'o mon.

10 And, besides, the servants of Hi'ram and the servants of Sol'omon who brought gold from O'phir brought timbers of almug trees and precious stones. 11 And the king proceeded to make out of the timbers of the almug trees stairs for Tar'shish with the servants of the house of Jehovah and for the Hi'ram. Once every three years king's house and also harps and ships of Tar'shish would come in, stringed instruments for the singers, and the like of them had apes and peacocks.

12 And King Sol'o mon himself gave the queen of She'ba all her delight for which she had asked. 3 When the gueen of She'ba got besides [the value of] what she

Then the king put them in the House of the Forest of Leb'a · non.

17 Further, the king made a great ivory throne and overlaid it with pure gold. 18 And there were six steps to the throne, and there (they were attached), and there were armrests on this side and on that side by the place of sitting. and two lions were standing beside the armrests. 19 And there were twelve lions standing there upon the six steps on this side and on that side. No other kingdom had any made just like it. 20 And all the drinking vessels of King Sol'omon were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Leb'a non were of pure gold. There was nothing of silver: it was considered as nothing at all in the days of Sol'o·mon. 21 For ships belonging to the king were going to carrying gold and silver, ivory, and were seeking the face of Sol'o mon [true] God had put in his heart. 24 And they were bringing each his gift, articles of silver and articles of gold and garments, armor and balsam oil, horses and mules as a yearly matter of course. 25 And Sol'o mon came to have four thousand stalls of horses and chariots and twelve thousand steeds, and he kept them stationed in the chariot cities and close by the king in Jerusalem. 26 And he came to be ruler over all the kings from the River down to the land of the Phi-lis'tines and down to the boundary of Egypt. 27 Furthermore, the king made the silver in Jerusalem like the stones; and cedarwood he made like the sycamore trees that are in the Shephe'lah for abundance. 28 And there were those bringing out horses to Sol'o mon from Egypt and from all the other lands. 29 As for the rest of the affairs of Sol'o mon, the first and the last, are they not written among the words of Nathan the prophet and in the prophecy of A.hi'jah the Shi'lo nite and in the record of visions of Id'do the visionary concerning Jer.o.bo'am the son of Ne'bat? 30 And Sol'o-mon continued to reign in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years. 31 Finally Sol'o mon lay down with his forefathers. So they buried him in the city of David his father; and Re·ho·bo'am his son began to reign in place of him.

10 And Re-ho-bo'am proceeded to She'chem that all the Israelites came to make him king. 2 And it came about that as soon as Jer.obo'am the son of Ne'bat heard of it while he was yet in Egypt. (because he had run away on ac- bo'am on the third day, just as the count of Sol'o mon the king.) 5 At this he said to them: "Let there be yet three days. Then return to me." So the people went away. 6 And King Re-ho-bo'am began to take counsel with the older men that were continually attending upon Sol'o mon his father while he continued alive, saying: "How are you advising to reply to this people?" 7 Accordingly they spoke to him, saying: "If you would prove yourself good to this people and actually be pleasing to them and indeed speak good words to them, they also will certainly become your servants always."

8 However, he left the counsel of the older men with which they had advised him, and he began to take counsel with the young men that had grown up with him, who were the ones attending upon him. 9 And he went on to say to them: "What is it that you are offering in counsel that we may reply to this people who have spoken to me. saying, 'Make the yoke that your father put upon us lighter'?" 10 In turn the young men that had grown up with him spoke with him, saying: "This is what you should say to the people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father, for his part, made our yoke heavy, but, as for you, make it lighter upon us': this is what you should say to them, 'My own little finger will certainly be thicker than my father's hips. 11 And now my father, for his part. loaded upon you a heavy yoke, but to go to She'chem, for it was I, for my part, shall add to your yoke. My father, for his part, chastised you with whips, but I, for my part, with scourges."

12 And Jer · o · bo'am and all the people proceeded to come to Re-hocalled him, and Jerobo'am and harshly. Thus King Rehobo'am tents.

17 As for the sons of Israel that were dwelling in the cities of Judah, Re·ho·bo'am continued to reign over them.

18 Subsequently King Re ho bo'am sent Ha do'ram, who was over those conscripted for forced labor, but the sons of Israel pelted him with stones, so that he died. And King Re-ho-bo'am himself managed to get up into his chariot to flee to Jerusalem. 19 And the Israelites kept up their revolt against the house of David down to this day.

11 When Re ho bo'am arrived at Jerusalem, he immediately congregated the house of Judah and thousand choice men able-bodied for war, to fight against Israel so as to bring the kingdom back to Sol'o mon for three years, for they Re ho bo'am. 2 Then the word of walked in the way of David and Jehovah came to She mai'ah the man of the [true] God, saying: 3 "Say to Re ho bo'am the son of Sol'o mon the king of Judah and Jer'i moth the son of David, and to all Israel in Judah and Benja- of Ab'i ha il the daughter of E li'ab min, saying, 4 'This is what Je-hovah has said: "You must not go bore him sons, Je'ush and Shemup and fight against your broth- a ri'ah and Za'ham. 20 And after ers. 12 And it came about that, as soon as the kingship of Re-hobo'am was firmly established and as soon as he was strong, he left the law of Jehovah, and also all Israel with him. 2 And it came about in the fifth year of King Re-ho-bo'am that Shi'shak the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, (for they had behaved unfaithfully toward Jehovah.) 3 with twelve hundred chariots and with sixty thousand horsemen; and there was no number to the people that came with him out of Egypt-Lib'y ans, Suk'ki im and E thi o'pi ans. 4 And he got to capture the fortified cities that belonged to years old when he began to reign, Judah and finally came as far as and for seventeen years he reigned Jerusalem.

And, besides, there happened to be good things in Judah.

2 And A'sa proceeded to do what was good and right in the eyes of Jehovah his God. 3 So he removed the foreign altars and the high places and broke up the sacred pillars and cut down the sacred poles. 4 Further, he said to Judah to search for Jehovah the God of their forefathers and to do the law and the commandment. 5 Accordingly he removed from all the cities of Judah the high places and the incense stands; and the kingdom continued without disturbance before him. 6 And he went on to build fortified cities in Judah, for the land had no disturbance; and there was no war against him during these years, for Jehovah gave him rest. 7 So he said to double doors and bars. 12 At that Jehovah defeated the E-thi-o'pi-ans before A'sa and before Judah, and the E-thi-o'pi-ans took to flight. 13 And A'sa and the people that were with him kept pursuing them as far as Ge'rar, and those of the E-thi-o'pi-ans continued falling down till there was no one alive of them; for they were broken to pieces before Jehovah and before his camp, Afterward they carried off a very great deal of spoil. 14 Further, they struck all the cities round about Ge'rar, for the dread of Jehovah had come to be upon them; and they went plundering all the cities, for there happened to be much to plunder in them. 15 And even the tents with livestock they struck so that they took captive flocks in great number and camels, after which they returned to Jerusalem.

12 And Je hosh'a phat continued began to reign in place of him advancing and growing great to a walked, and not according to the and with him there were two hundred and eighty thousand. 16 And However, Je hosh'a phat said: "Do under his control there was Am-asi'ah the son of Zich'ri the volunteer for Jehovah, and with him there were two hundred thousand valiant, mighty men, 17 And out of Benjamin there was the valiant, mighty man E·li'a·da, and with him there were two hundred thousand men equipped with the bow and shield. 18 And under his control there was Je-hoz'a-bad, and with him there were a hundred and eighty thousand men outfitted for the army. 19 These were the ones ministering to the king apart from those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

18 And Je hosn a phat the have riches and glory in abunalliance with A'hab. 2 So years later he went down to A'hab at Sa·mar'i·a; and A'hab proceeded to sacrifice sheep and cattle in abundance for him and for the people that were with him. And he began to allure him to go up against Ra'moth-gil'e-ad. 3 And A'hab the king of Israel went on to say to Je-hosh'a phat the king of Judah: "Will you go with me to Ra'mothgil'e ad?" At this he said to him: "I am the same as you are, and my people are like your people and with you in the war."

4 However, Je hosh'a phat said to the king of Israel: "Please, inquire first of all for the word of Jehovah." 5 So the king of Israel collected the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them: "Shall we go against Ra'moth-gil'e-ad in war, or shall I refrain?" And they began to say: "Go up, and the [true] God will give [it] into the king's hand."

6 But Je-hosh'a phat said: "Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah still? Then let us inquire through him." 7 At that the king of Israel said to Je-hosh'a-phat: whom to inquire of Jehovah, but I myself certainly hate him, for he is prophesying concerning me, not to Je hosh'a phat: "Did I not say for good, but, all his days, for bad, to you, 'He will prophesy concern-not let the king say a thing like that."

8 Accordingly the king of Israel called a court official and said: "Bring Mi·cai'ah the son of Im'lah quickly." 9 Now the king of Israel and Je hosh'a phat the king of Judah were sitting each one on his throne, clothed in garments, and were sitting in the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samar'i.a; and all the prophets were acting as prophets before them. 10 Then Zed e ki'ah the son of Che na'a nah made for himself horns of iron and said: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'With these you will push the Syrians until you exterminate them." 11 And all the other prophets were prophesying the same as that, saying: "Go up to Ra'moth-gil'e-ad and prove successful, and Jehovah will certainly give [it] into the king's hand."

12 And the messenger that went to call Mi·cai'ah spoke to him, saying: "Look! The words of the prophets are unanimously of good to the king; and let your word, please, become like one of them and you must speak good." 13 But Mi·cai'ah said: "As Jehovah is living, what my God will say, that is what I shall speak." 14 Then he came in to the king, and the king proceeded to say to him: "Mi-cai'ah, shall we go to Ra'moth-gil'e ad in war, or shall I refrain?" At once he said: "Go up and prove successful; and they will be given into your hand." 15 At that the king said to him: "For how many times am I putting you under oath that you should not speak to me anything but truth in the name of Jehovah?" 16 So he said: "I certainly see all the Israelites scattered upon the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd. And Jehovah went on to say: 'These have no "There is still one man through masters. Let them go back each one to his house in peace."

23 Zed·e·ki'ah the son of Chena'a nah now approached and struck Mi·cai'ah on the cheek and said: "In just which way did the spirit of Jehovah pass along from from the camp, because I have me to speak with you?" 24 At that Mi-cai'ah said: "Look! You are battle kept rising in intensity on seeing [which way] on that day when you will enter the innermost chamber to hide yourself." 25 Then ing position in the chariot facing the king of Israel said: "TAKE Mi-cai'ah and turn him back to A'mon the chief of the city and to men must say, "This is what the king has said: "Pur this fellow in his own house of determined in peace to his own house of the house of determined in peace to his own house of the house the house of detention and feed him with a reduced allowance of bread and a reduced allowance of water until I return in peace."" 27 Upon that Mi cai'ah said: "If you return at all in peace, Jehovah that you should have love? 8 And in Jerusalem also Je hosh'a phat stationed some of the Levites and the priests and some of the heads of the paternal houses of Israel for the judgment of Jehovah and for the legal cases of the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 9 Further, he laid a command upon them, saying: "This is how you should do in the fear of Jehovah with faithfulness and with a complete heart. 10 As for every legal case that will come to you of your brothers who are dwelling in their cities, involving the shedding of blood, involving law and commandment and regulations and judicial decisions. you must warn them that they may not do wrong against Jehovah and indignation may not have to take place against you and against Your brothers. 5 Then Je hosh'a phat stood up in the congregation of Judah and of Jerusalem in the house of Jehovah before the new courtvard.

"O Jehovah the God of our forefathers, are you not God in the heavens, and are you not dominating over all the kingdoms of the nations, and are there not in your hand power and mightiness, with no one to hold his ground against you? 7 Did not you yourself, O God of ours, drive away the inhabitants of this land from before your people Israel and then give it to the seed of Abraham, your lover, to time indefinite? 8 And they took up dwelling in it, and they proceeded to build in it for you a sanctuary for your name, saying, 9 'If there should come upon us calamity. sword, adverse judgment, or pestilence or famine, let us stand before this house and before you (for your name is in this house), that we may call to you for aid out of our distress, and may you hear and save.' 10 And now here the sons of Am'mon, and Mo'ab and the mountainous region of Se'ir, whom you did not allow Israel to invade when they were coming out of the land of Egypt, but they turned away from them and did not annihilate them, 11 yes, here they are rewarding us by coming in to drive us out from your possession that you caused us to possess. 12 O that the sons of Mo'ab and the our God, will you not execute judgsons of Am'mon and with them ment upon them? 13 All the while all those of Judah were standing before Jehovah, even their little ones, their wives and their sons.

14 Now as for Ja·ha·zi'el the son of Zech-a-ri'ah the son of Benai'ah the son of Je i'el the son of Mat·ta·ni'ah the Levite of the sons of A'saph, the spirit of Jehovah came to be upon him in the middle of the congregation. 15 Consequently he said: "Pay attention, all Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Je-hosh'a-phat! Here is what Jehovah has said to you, 'Do not you be afraid or be terrified because of this large crowd; for the battle is not yours, but God's. 16 Tomorrow go down against them. There they are coming up by the pass of Ziz; and you will be certain to find them at the end of the torrent valley in front of the wilderness of Je ru'el. 17 You will not need to fight in this instance. Take your position, stand still and see the salvation of Jehovah in your behalf. O Judah and Jerusalem, do not be afraid or be terrified. Tomorrow go out against them, and Jehovah will be with you.' "

18 At once Je hosh'a phat bowed low with his face to the earth, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem themselves fell down before Jehovah to do obeisance to Jehovah. 19 Then the Levites of the sons of the Ko'hath ites and of the sons of the Ko'rah-ites rose up to praise Jehovah the God of Israel with an extraordinarily loud voice.

20 And they proceeded to rise early in the morning and go out to the wilderness of Te-ko'a, And as they went out, Je hosh'a phat stood up and then said: "Hear me, O Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem! Put faith in Jehovah Your God that you may prove vourselves of long duration, Put faith in his prophets and so prove came to be upon all the kingdoms

21 Further, he took counsel with Jehovah and those offering praise in holy adornment as they went out ahead of the armed men, and saving: "Give praise to Jehovah, for to time indefinite is his lovingkindness."

22 And at the time that they started off with the joyful cry and praise. Jehovah set men in ambush against the sons of Am'mon, Mo'ab and the mountainous region of Se'ir who were coming into Judah, and they went smiting one another. 23 And the sons of Am'mon and Mo'ab proceeded to stand up against the inhabitants of the mountainous region of Se'ir to devote them to destruction and annihilate them: and as soon as they finished with the inhabitants of Se'ir, they helped each one to bring his own fellow to ruin.

24 But as for Judah, it came to the watchtower of the wilderness. When they turned their faces toward the crowd, why, there they were, their carcasses fallen to the earth without anyone escaping. 25 So Je hosh'a phat and his people came to plunder the spoil on them, and they got to find among them in abundance both goods and clothing and desirable articles; and they went stripping them off for themselves until they could carry no more. And it came to be three days that they were plundering the spoil, for it was abundant. 26 And on the fourth day they congregated together at the low plain of Ber'acah, for there they blessed Jehovah, That is why they called the name of that place Low Plain of Ber'acah—until today.

27 Then all the men of Judah and Jerusalem returned, with Jehosh'a phat at their head, to return to Jerusalem with rejoicing. for Jehovah had made them rejoice over their enemies. 28 So they came to Jerusalem with stringed instruments and with harps and with trumpets to the house of Jehovah. 29 And the dread of God successful." of the lands when they heard that
